HOLIDAY FOODS ARE FEATURED

Christmas Dainties Appear
Prominently in Local Stores and Shops

Christmas dainties, candies and nuts, continue to dominate the windows of most of the grocery stores to remind one that it is but a few more days before the big table will be spread and that Christmas menu, if not already planned, should be attended to immediately. Primarily because it is Christmas week and the demand for foodstuffs is more encouraging than in the past few weeks, the market has been steady, both in the line of vegetables and fruits. But let's pay particular attention to those things that are displayed so temptingly to attract the Christmas eye.

Here is a fair indication of the price the shopper will have to pay for nuts:

Hazelnuts cost 25 cents a pound; almonds are two pounds for 45 cents and 25 cents a pound; mixed nuts are about 25 cents a pound, or two pounds for 49 cents; walnuts are selling for about 30 cents, or in some stores at two pounds for 57 cents; peanuts are 15 cents a pound; Brazil nuts are the most expensive, at two pounds for 65 cents.

Candies Seasonable
Christmas candies, equally as important on the Yuletide as plenty of nuts to crack, may be bought for as low as 15 cents a pound for the broken mix, or three pounds for 40 cents; three pounds of the plain mix for 40 cents; three pounds of the cream mix for 45 cents; and three pounds for 57 cents for the more colorful extra creams. But then, any kind of candy at any price may be purchased to fill the bon bon dish.

And Stuffed Dates
Stuffed dates are an item at this time of the year, and for these one may buy bulk dates at two pounds for 23 cents or a little higher.

Bulk mince meat is offered in most of the stores, the price averaging about two pounds for 25 cents.

Raisins may be quoted with propriety at this time of year; they are about 33 cents a pound.

Orange and lemon peel—though one should have made the fruit cake earlier—is 23 cents a pound, and citron is higher at 33 cents.

Cocoanuts run about 15 cents straight or two for 25 cents on the medium size.

Then there are all the dried fruits from prunes to apricots, which may be bought at reasonable prices.
