SWEATERS ARE POPULAR, SO KNIT YOUR OWN

Sweaters are popular at the southern resorts, in the north where skiing and skating are indulged in, and at home for everyday wear. Also, although the rage for knitting has gone out with the war, it may still be indulged in. Camilla Horn, who played heroine to John Barrymore's hero in a recent cinema, set the style at Hollywood, where she made the heavy tan sweater pictured, left, between scenes. Her берет is also tan. Center, she is wearing a broad brimmed hat of navy blue balibunt with natural colored dots applied on prograss ribbon. Another resort costume is shown right, fashioned of plain and printed crepe de chine. The blouse is white with pipings and bows of print, the skirt and jacket of print bound with white.

Diet and Health

Ecsema in Babies Caused by External Irritant
Answers to Mothers
God could not be everywhere; therefore He made mothers. - Jewish Proverb.

MR. V.—Ecsema in babies (and adults) may be due to external irritants such as too strong soap, too cold air, perspiration and skin secretions. The external irritant is usually coupled with some derangement of nutrition so that some of the food elements are not digested properly and the unfinished products circulate in the blood. Sometimes it is milk, sometimes eggs, or too fat foods.

MR. H.—If you have the right care and diet before your pregnancy, and take some long walks every day and get plenty of rest, you have no cause for worry. The condition you developed before will not necessarily return this time.

We have an article on the diet during pregnancy and nursing which you may have by following column rules.

"My baby is nine months old. She is normal and healthy in every way only she waves her arms and hands up and down almost constantly. Will you please tell me if this indicates nervousness?" Mrs. E.

No, Mrs. E., your baby is simply happy and active. When she begins to walk and use her legs you will find she won't use her arms so much.

Dear Unhappy Mother: Obviously you cannot help grieving deeply over the loss of your darling boy, but realize that you did all that you knew that was humanly possible to save him, and comfort yourself with that thought. Let us pray that you will have another child to take his place. And if you don't you can adopt one.

I'm sorry I cannot tell what his trouble was.

Editor's Note: Dr. Peters can not diagnose, nor give personal advice. Your questions, if of general interest, will be answered in the column, in turn. Requests for articles must be accompanied by a fully self-addressed, stamped envelope and 2 cents in coin for each article, to cover cost of printing and handling. For the pamphlet on reducing and gaining, 10 cents in coin, with fully self-addressed stamped envelope, must be enclosed. Address Dr. Peters, in care of this paper.

The Royal Neighbors of America will not hold their regular meeting on December 24. However, on December 31, Monday evening, they will entertain the Modern Woodmen, their families and friends with a program and general social evening at the Fraternal Temple.

The potluck dinner for the Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters Tuesday evening in the Fraternal Temple was well attended and proved to be an enjoyable affair. The Boy Scouts held a Court of Honor for the month and their ladies and returned as their guests for the program and tree which followed. Everyone present received a surprise package from the tree.

The program opened with Mrs. Mason Bishop at the piano to direct the singing of "America," after which Marjorie Greenwood, Theodora Faulkner, Mrs. Wayne Greenwood and Beatrice Olin each contributed talent to the entertainment of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gage were hosts to a number of their friends at a birthday dinner party given in honor of Mr. Alvin Savage of Salem and Mrs. Christel Coffman of Oregon City at their home on Lee street.

After dinner the evening was spent in the enjoyment of music. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Everett Branch and son Irvin, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Branch and son Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beary and daughter Alice, Mr. and Mrs. Zone and daughter Norma, Mrs. Georgia Savage and Lois Bell and Lloyd, Mrs. Christel Coffman and Charles and Daisy, Delbert Shelley, Roy Cowles, Mary and Charles DeVault, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Gage.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Canse entertained the families of the faculty of the Kimball School of Theology with a Christmas party Wednesday night in their apartment. The rooms were decorated with an abundance of holly, mistletoe and Oregon grape, in addition to a beautiful Christmas tree. Christmas carols and games formed the evening's entertainment. Late in the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. Canse.

Sororities Busy With Christmas Parties

The main social affairs on the Willamette campus this week have been the annual Christmas parties of the three sororities, Beta Chi, Delta Phi and Alpha Phi Alpha. These parties are traditionally informal affairs given for the members of the houses, their faculty members, and the pledges.

The Beta Chi and Delta Phi sororities held their parties Thursday evening. The Alpha Phi Alpha was given Tuesday.

The Beta Chi party began with a buffet dinner, after which the girls gathered before the fireplace in the drawing room to sing Christmas carols, before the presentation of the gift to the house. Honor guests bidden for the evening were the faculty members, Mrs. F. M. Erickson, Mrs. E. C. Richards and Mrs. Alice Dodd, house mother.

The Delta Phi party did not begin until late in the evening. Each member brought a gift to the house. Mrs. John Reede, the house mother, completed the evening by singing carols by telling the Christmas story. The honorary members present were Miss Frances Virginia Melton and Miss Lois Latimer.

The Alpha Phi Alpha party was more formal. Dinner was served at three tables made attractive with Christmas decorations. Miss Ella Pfeiffer acted as toast mistress. Numerous gifts for which members and alumnae had contributed were presented to the house. Honor guests for the evening included Mrs. Carl G. Doney, Mrs. R. M. Gatte, Mrs. Alice Fisher, and Mrs. O. P. Hoff, the house mother.

Mrs. Lela King is Farewell Party Hostess

Mrs. Lela King was a Thursday hostess at her home on North 5th street for a farewell party given in honor of Mrs. Agnes DuRette Little who is to leave soon for her home in Klamath Falls, Mrs. Little up until today has been a teacher in the Garfield school.

The rooms of the King home were bright with Christmas greens, candles, and a gay Christmas tree upon which parting Christmas gifts were hung for Mrs. Little.

Late in the afternoon Mrs. King assisted by her mother, Mrs. Richards, served luncheon. An interesting feature of the luncheon was a gorgeous candle trimmed birthday cake which centered the table in celebration of Master Billy King's seventh birthday.

Guests for the afternoon were the teachers of the Garfield school.

Bridge Party Is Pre-Christmas Affair

Mrs. John Carson will entertain at her home on Summer street this afternoon. Three tables of bridge will be in progress during the afternoon. Bright Christmas flowers and greenery will lend holiday charm to the house.

Special guests for the afternoon, Mrs. Milton Steiner, Mrs. Frank Deckebach, Mrs. Frederick Deckebach, Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., and Mrs. Gus Hixson.

Club members present will be Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. Lawrence Hofer, Mrs. Lawrence Woodworth and Mrs. Carl Nelson.

Surprise Party Is Given at Myers Home

A surprise party for their daughter, Mrs. Charles Bryant, was given by Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Myers at their home, 1922 North Commercial street, recently.

Five hundred was played during the evening. At the close of card playing refreshments were served.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Moffitt, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wheaton, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kitchin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryant.

Old-Fashion Party Is Christmas Affair

The Yomarco class of the First Methodist church will celebrate one of the most interesting parties of the Christmas season tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts.

A carefully planned program has been prepared by the committee in charge, Mrs. Richard Barton, Mrs. V. Hallenborg, Mrs. Grant Day, Mrs. J. D. Foley, and Mrs. D. H. Mosher. Each family is to come dressed to represent a family of some 30 years ago. The evening will be spent in singing old folk songs, observing old Christmas customs and will climax with the appearance of a real Santa Claus and refreshments.

Events of Interest in School Circles

The Willamette campus was surprised with the announcement of the engagement of Miss Doris Phenice to Eugene Silke. The announcement was made to the sisters of Miss Phenice at the Delta Phi sorority last Friday evening at dinner and at the Spa where Mr. Silke was entertaining a group of friends at the same time. Both of the young people are members of the senior class. No date has been set for the wedding.
