

KANTOLA WINS SPECIAL EVENT

Most Brilliant Bowling Seen Here Played in Match With Steinbock

The flashiest bowling that has been seen in the two seasons that the Winter Garden alleys have been in operation featured the special match Friday night in which Wayne Kantola defeated Sam Steinbock by a 13 pin margin, 202 to 189. It was a better match than the feature singles affair of the Northwest bowling congress last year, the Zell-Converge contest.

Although defeated, Steinbock was the most consistent bowler, missing the head pin but once in the ten games, to Kantola's ten misses. Both averaged over 200 pins to the game. Steinbock lost by making eight splits to Kantola's five. Each contestant made a high game score of 244; Steinbock's low score was 166 and Kantola's 161. Steinbock made one error to Kantola's five.

Scores were:

Steinbock—195, 178, 177, 166, 244, 190, 227, 226, 217, 189.

Kantola—200, 187, 222, 220, 203, 244, 191, 221, 187, 193.

In the Bankers' league the Capitol theatre quintet won three games straight from Ladd and Bush, and Headquarters 249th served the Western Paper converting company team in the same manner.

The new Ladies' Recreation league got off to a flying start, the Central Pharmacy winning two games out of three from the Capitol theatre and Montgomery Ward taking three straight from Hartman Brothers.

Scores were:

Western Paper
Headquarters 249th
Wilson 145 134 121 410
Kilby 120 122 145 484
Greenbaum 109 138 139 400
Van Praetere 192 176 186 554
Cameros 129 140 141 410

Totals 689 815 774 2278

Capitol Theatre

Ladd and Bush
Moriarty 128 118 159 405
Kilby 120 122 145 484
John Beyer 120 111 281
Snicker 126 148 126 400
B. Jones 136 142 141 419
Shaffer 136 142 141 419
Nadon 98 98

Totals 650 678 640 1978

Capitol Theatre

Ladd and Bush
Moriarty 128 118 159 405
Kilby 120 122 145 484
John Beyer 120 111 281
Snicker 126 148 126 400
B. Jones 136 142 141 419
Shaffer 136 142 141 419
Nadon 98 98

Totals 650 678 640 1978

Capitol Theatre

Ladd and Bush
Moriarty 128 118 159 405
Kilby 120 122 145 484
John Beyer 120 111 281
Snicker 126 148 126 400
B. Jones 136 142 141 419
Shaffer 136 142 141 419
Nadon 98 98

Totals 650 678 640 1978

Capitol Theatre

Ladd and Bush
Moriarty 128 118 159 405
Kilby 120 122 145 484
John Beyer 120 111 281
Snicker 126 148 126 400
B. Jones 136 142 141 419
Shaffer 136 142 141 419
Nadon 98 98

Totals 650 678 640 1978

Capitol Theatre

Ladd and Bush
Moriarty 128 118 159 405
Kilby 120 122 145 484
John Beyer 120 111 281
Snicker 126 148 126 400
B. Jones 136 142 141 419
Shaffer 136 142 141 419
Nadon 98 98

Totals 650 678 640 1978

Capitol Theatre

Ladd and Bush
Moriarty 128 118 159 405
Kilby 120 122 145 484
John Beyer 120 111 281
Snicker 126 148 126 400
B. Jones 136 142 141 419
Shaffer 136 142 141 419
Nadon 98 98

Totals 650 678 640 1978

Capitol Theatre

Ladd and Bush
Moriarty 128 118 159 405
Kilby 120 122 145 484
John Beyer 120 111 281
Snicker 126 148 126 400
B. Jones 136 142 141 419
Shaffer 136 142 141 419
Nadon 98 98

Totals 650 678 640 1978

Capitol Theatre

Ladd and Bush
Moriarty 128 118 159 405
Kilby 120 122 145 484
John Beyer 120 111 281
Snicker 126 148 126 400
B. Jones 136 142 141 419
Shaffer 136 142 141 419
Nadon 98 98

Totals 650 678 640 1978

Capitol Theatre

Ladd and Bush
Moriarty 128 118 159 405
Kilby 120 122 145 484
John Beyer 120 111 281
Snicker 126 148 126 400
B. Jones 136 142 141 419
Shaffer 136 142 141 419
Nadon 98 98

Totals 650 678 640 1978

Capitol Theatre

Ladd and Bush
Moriarty 128 118 159 405
Kilby 120 122 145 484
John Beyer 120 111 281
Snicker 126 148 126 400
B. Jones 136 142 141 419
Shaffer 136 142 141 419
Nadon 98 98

Totals 650 678 640 1978

Capitol Theatre

Ladd and Bush
Moriarty 128 118 159 405
Kilby 120 122 145 484
John Beyer 120 111 281
Snicker 126 148 126 400
B. Jones 136 142 141 419
Shaffer 136 142 141 419
Nadon 98 98

Totals 650 678 640 1978

Capitol Theatre

Ladd and Bush
Moriarty 128 118 159 405
Kilby 120 122 145 484
John Beyer 120 111 281
Snicker 126 148 126 400
B. Jones 136 142 141 419
Shaffer 136 142 141 419
Nadon 98 98

Totals 650 678 640 1978

Capitol Theatre

West Salem News

By Helen H. Rodolf—Phone 2402-J

Thomas Anderson of Falls City and editor of the West Salem Advocate was in this city the forepart of the week looking for a location for his printing press.

Alvin Anderson, a brother-in-law of W. R. Peterson was a weekend guest at the Peterson home on Edgewater street.

A shoe shop has been put in on Edgewater street near the Henkle Wood yard by W. R. Porter. He has taken the house off a truck and put it on the ground and gone to work in it as a shop.

The Klugwood service station, deserted by W. J. Kibbee, is as yet no reopened due to some controversies by two of the gas companies. No definite information has been received as to the whereabouts of Mr. Kibbee.

West Salem is preparing for the holiday season with much enthusiasm. Preparations for absent ones and holiday happiness for the children is left as the main issue. Decorated trees are glimpsed already through open windows, and the docility of all the children speaks of the nearness of Santa Claus.

The Ford Memorial Methodist church is giving a program Saturday night which will be by the Sunday School children and will be also a tree, and on Sunday night which will be musical program.

The Popcorn school of Summit is having a Christmas tree and program for the younger children and a delightful program has been arranged for the entertainment of the older people. The Rev. M. A. Groves, who preaches there every other Sunday will attend with his family.

Mrs. Olive Scott, wife of Officer Scott of West Salem, has been ill with the influenza. It is much better and able to be up for the first time during her illness.

Mrs. Jack Summers heard a prowler around her house Tuesday evening and called Officer Scott by telephone to come down and look around. No one was found, but the unwelcome visitor had raised a window and started in when the noise attracted the attention of Mrs. Summers, and had evidently left when he realized that he was discovered.

The Dew Drop Inn is now formally opened and under operation by Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Roseman of Beaverton, who have just come to West Salem. The Rosemans ran a similar place in Beaverton previously. They are occupying the building next to Gerth's grocery store owned by Major Charles A. Robinson, and have refurnished and installed fixtures in the larger part, while they are living on the other side. Mrs. Roseman is doing the cooking.

West Salem stores have caught the holiday spirit and have decorated in the festive style of the season, giving the streets of this city quite a cosmopolitan air of rush and cheerfulness.

Handling of the illicit liquor traffic was widely discussed at today's meeting. Tomorrow a resolution will be offered asking federal prohibition officers to withdraw permits for the manufacture and sale of all wine, medicinal preparations, except those which are recognized as purely medicinal compounds.

Stanley Myers, district attorney of Multnomah county, said there had been abuses in the sale of the wine products in Oregon under the government permit.

Sheriffs of the state met here today and elected officers. M. Hurlburt, sheriff of Multnomah county, was re-elected president of the association which he founded 12 years ago and of which he has been chief continually since.

Patient At Deaconess—F. W. stock, 576 Locust street, is a medical patient at the Deaconess hospital.

Default Entered—Order of Default was entered in circuit court in the case of Ethel Bradford vs. Ivan Bradford.

Ducks Said Stolen—M. Shishido entered a plea of not guilty in circuit court here Friday to a charge of shooting two quack ducks belonging to Lulu Fisher and Barney Fisher. Trial has been set for Monday at 10 a. m.

Two Couples Wed—Marriage licenses were issued here Friday to August Toepper, 24, of Dayton, and Gertrude Schmitz, 20, of Shaw, and to William E. Pardo, 28, and Theresa E. Doran, 19, both of route 2.

Mortgage Foreclosure—The state bonus commission began action in circuit court here Friday to foreclose a mortgage against Ethel E. Muehlhaupt. Carle Adams and J. Schnebel are also named as defendants as claiming some interest in the property involved. The sum of $2166.67 is involved.

Plea Is Filed—Plea in abatement was filed by Oscar J. Othman in circuit court Friday in the divorce suit brought against him by Alice Muriel Othman. He alleges that certain acts charged against him in her complaint, have been condoned by her.

Planning Program—The American Lutheran church Sunday school will present a Christmas program at 7:30 o'clock Sunday night. At the morning worship about new members will be received into the church and there will be communion service. The church is planning to hold its first annual meeting Sunday afternoon, January 6, beginning at 3 o'clock.

Presbyterians' Program Given; Attendance Big

WOODBURN, Ore., Dec. 21.—(Special)—A special Christmas program was presented to a large crowd at the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening.

WOODBURN, Ore., Dec. 21.—(Special)—Warner Guiss, editor of the Woodburn high school Wireless has announced that the paper will enter the contest sponsored by the school of Journalism of the University of Oregon for the Oregon High School Press association. Papers will be judged at the university after January 9, and winners announced at the annual conference banquet January 12.

The publication will be eligible to compete for the loving cup donated by Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall, president of the University of Oregon, for the best all around school paper, or for the award given by the Eugene Guard for the best paper in schools of less than 500 students.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A group of men interested in furthering the export of coal asked an appropriations committee to furnish money for the purpose.

All of the committee sessions were comparatively brief, however, and it was expected that tomorrow would see similar situation at the capital.

The house foreign affairs committee deliberated further on the bill for a thirteen month year, questioning Dr. Charles F. Marvin, head of the weather bureau, who favored it. A