

COLLISION RESULTS IN LIGHT INJURIES

CLEAR LAKE, Dec. 27.—(Special)—A head-on collision of the cars driven by William Collard and Robert Massey, Saturday morning in the hollow in front of Alex Harold's place, resulted in no serious injuries to the occupants of either machine. Alice Massey sustained several cuts and bruises and Pearl Jones had several stitches taken in a cut across her nose and two stitches in a wound on her leg. Neither Robert Massey nor Mina Beckner were injured. William Collard, the only occupant of the car he was driving, received a few cuts and his spectacles were broken. Both cars were taken to Salem for extensive repairs.

Several cases of illness are reported around Clear Lake. The Roy Smith family has suffered from influenza and severe cold. The members of the Cecil Boyd family have been confined at home with illness. Lunelle Clark just recovered from an attack of the "flu."

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Collard entertained relatives at dinner Christmas day. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Bixey and daughter Winifred, Mrs. Clara Collard, Mrs. Sarah E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rhodes, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barnett, Claire and William Collard, Evelyn Cain and the hosts.

The Christmas program given at the church Sunday evening delighted the audience. Illness and an accident presented difficulties against which the program committee had to labor to present their splendid program. A beautiful and difficult star drill given by ten girls won high praise from many of those present.

The complete program is: "Come Thou Almighty King," song by congregation. Invocation, the Rev. Mr. Scheuerman. "Joy to the World," congregation.

"And There Were Shepherds," song by choir, Sophia Garner, Pearl Baker, Claire Collard, Alice Massey, Lenore Jones, Harold D. Toll, Robert Massey and W. P. Collard.

Recitation, Opal Scheuerman. Vocal solo, "O Babe Divine," Elaine Chapin.

Star drill with Christmas carols by Neva Smith, Ada May Smith, Edith Foren, Evelyn Cain, Lunelle Chapin, Mina Beckner, Shirley Dickey, Thelma Lambert, Claire Collard, and Nellie Clement.

Duet, Verda Schafer and Alice Massey. "Matchless Gift," choir. Duet, "Luther's Cradle Hymn," Evelyn Beckner, Neva Smith. Solo, "O Night Divine," Mrs. Ray Barker.

Address, the Rev. Mr. Scheuerman. Offering for missions. "Adore Him," choir.

CAPACITY AUDIENCE AT JOINT PROGRAM

NORTH SANTIAM, Ore., Dec. 28.—(Special)—A capacity audience enjoyed the splendid Christmas program Saturday night, put on by the Sunday school under the supervision of John Miller, and the public school, under the supervision of the teacher, Mrs. Gulvin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Powell, Miss Elma Powell and Roy Cobb, after spending a few days with relatives here, returned Thursday to their homes at Tyee.

Elton Bond, who spent the past summer at Asotin, Wash., returned Thursday and expects to spend the rest of the winter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Bond.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clayton and little daughter June of Roseburg, after having spent a few days with relatives here, went on to Portland Wednesday where Mr. Clayton, who is a cartoonist, hopes to find a position with one of the daily papers.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guenkel, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeves and children, Lois and Dwight, of Mehama, spent the Christmas holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Bond.

Will the United States and Japan Meet In ARMED CONFLICT?

What Does Prophecy Indicate?

PROF. C. T. EVERSON
Noted Bible Lecturer of New York

The prophecy is so clear and simple that even a child can understand it; yet it deals with the mightiest war ever fought in this world—Armageddon, the wind-up of human history. It shows the meteoric rise of Japan, which has made more progress in the last 30 years than any other nation in history, and is fast becoming the leader of the colored races of the world. There are two colored persons to every white person in the world. Napoleon said that he would never go to war with people of the Orient for fear they might learn the use of modern arms. He foresaw a great racial war. You have heard men's opinions. Why not get an authoritative statement from God's word? If "you are from Missouri," so much the better, as there will be plenty of evidence produced, as Japan is actually mentioned by name in the Bible. If you are a little late, come anyhow; we will try to make room for you. Don't stay away for anything.
