Gratitude is characteristic of only the higher civilized men. Hence, we propose a New Year's resolution for Salem

Inasmuch as Salem is a glaring example of merchant-charity; inasmuch as not one of us can deny that he has received untold benefit from the numerous merchant-supported activities of the city; inasmuch as we appreciate the contribution of local business men to such worthy enterprises as the drum corp trip; the ad-club out-doordecoration campaign; the Ealvation Army drive; Red Cross relief work; the maintenance of Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions, and other civic organizations; high school and Willamette publications; -church support; all Salem publicity ventures; Inasmuch as we desire to give as well as to take-WE, THE SHOPPERS OF SALEM, RESOLVE DURING 1929 TO CEASE OUT-OF-TOWN-BUYING AND TO GIVE THE BUSINESS MEN OF SALEM OUR WHOLE-HEART-ED SUPPORT.

Did it ever occur to you that:

The reason that you buy your Paris creations in Salem is that you have never created a demand for them by asking Salem shops for Parisian things?

Salem merchants would give more special prices if the public responded more readily to the sales which are sponsored?

You cannot improve .your own or anyone else's financial condition by trying to save the few cents difference between local and out-of-town prices? Local prices drop as the volume of business increases.

Exactly how much do you know about your own city?

Did you know that Mack's coat and dress shop is the noly store in Oregon, outside of Portland, which sells Marion Prince frocks? And that the beautiful Marion Prince herself, the vivacious Seattle designer, is coming to Salem because of her personal acquaintance with Mrs. Jean Mack to give a style revue of her own creations sometime in February? Furthermore, did you know that Mrs. Mack is a descendant of a family of French designers and was born in

How does the local Miller store compare in size with other department stores in Oregon? Did you guess that the Salem Miller store is the second largest store outside of Portland, employs 75 people on the sales staff, all home families who contribute their share to the up-building of our own city.

Did you know that Monday evening at six p. m. is the close of Miller's year-end clearance sale—in which good staple merchandise is offered at one third less than regular price? Even such staple articles as blankets are being offered at a reduction of one-third the regular figure. Timely articles including winter dresses of wool and woolen coats, also all rain coats, are priced one-third less. All gift packages in tofletries go at a reduction of one-thrid. The Miller store is even thinking in terms of one-thirds-and hundreds of smaller articles are likewise reduced for this

Where can one secure genuine carvings? These bits of peasant art, popular in the East as favors and bridge prizes, are at the Nelson Jewelry store, in the Oregon building, priced from $1.00 up. This store has some of the best dollar spiclais which we have found.

Where is the new Kafoury building to be located? Beand the Cross Market on North Liberty; it is a structure 42 feet wide and 80 feet deep, containing two stories and a full basement, built of concrete and costing between $20,000 and $25,000. The building is erected by Steusloff Brothers and will be occupied by Kafoury's on February 1. In the meantime, Kafoury's are having a big removal sale worthy of the attention of any thrifty shop-

What is Salem's only exclusive negligee shop? The Sunnie Undie Shoppe, in the Bligh building at 121 S. High. It would be well to cultivate the acquaintance of the shop and note the unique lighting effects, and the charming assortment of
