

The New Oregon Statesman's Valley News and Correspondents Page

P. T. A. COUNTY MEETING SOON

Interesting Convention is to be Held All Day Saturday at Stayton

STAYTON, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Local P. T. A. are interested in parent-teacher work are looking forward to Saturday, January 12, when the county convention of P. T. A. meets here. The county president, Mrs. R. L. Wright, is expected to attend, as is the state president, Mrs. W. W. Gabriel.

MASONS AND STAR INSTALL OFFICERS

STAYTON, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Installation of officers of the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges Thursday night brought out a large attendance of members and their guests.

Mrs. Vivianne Harold was installing officer for the Eastern Star. Mrs. Emma Sloper acted as marshal and Mrs. Anna Hobson chaplain. Officers installed were Julia English, W. M., John Winters, W. P., Rose Beedle, A. M., Lillie Meister, secretary; Emma Sloper, treasurer; Edith Winters, conductress; Anna Hobson, chaplain; Vivianne Harold, marshal; Ethel Hurt, Adh.; Ernestine Sanders, Ruth; Eva Humphrey, Esther; Clara Brown, Martha; Ellen Blakely, Electa; Lena Silhavy, warden; Arthur McKenzie, sentinel.

During the installation ceremony the following musical numbers were given: violin solo, Mary Swift; piano solo, Doris Feiser; tenor solo, Roy Hiatt, Mrs. H. A. Beauchamp, accompanist; trio, Patsy Mayo, violin, Stewart Mayo, saxophone and Mrs. J. W. Mayo, piano.

Burglars Visit Beauchamp Home Frightened Away

STAYTON, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—While Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Beauchamp and Mr. and Mrs. William Swift were attending a show in Salem Monday night, someone forced a window at the Beauchamp residence and entered the house, taking $10 and a ham which was on the back porch.

The Beauchamps returned about 11 o'clock and believe they frightened the intruders away. Mrs. Beauchamp's wrist watch and other articles in the dresser were overlooked.

Boys' S. S. Class Is Entertained At Brown Home

HUBBARD, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Brown was the scene of a delightful affair, when Mrs. Waldo Brown entertained the boys of her Sunday school class of the Congregational church, Friday evening. All reported a pleasant time. Games and refreshments were enjoyed.

Silver Tea Held At Bear Home

TURNER, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—The women of the Methodist Episcopal church held their January silver tea at the home of Mrs. C. Bear Friday afternoon. Twenty-five women were present to enjoy a pleasing program and dainty refreshments.

McClendons Are Hubbard Guests

HUBBARD, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McClendon and daughter Jo, of Monmouth were week end visitors at Hubbard. They spent Saturday night at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Irvine and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Dick, Sunday. Mr. McClendon, a former Oregon teacher, is manager of the lumber yard at Monmouth and Mrs. McClendon is teaching a school near Monmouth. They were formerly resident of Hubbard, having moved away about three years ago.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

SCHOOL REOPENING DELAYED BY "FLU"

MILL CITY, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—The schools here reopened Monday after the vacation period had been lengthened on account of the influenza epidemic.

Four boys narrowly escaped death recently when their automobile turned over four miles from Scio. The car struck loose gravel and at the same time met another machine on a turn. Lewis Ellsworth, who was driving, tried to turn out to pass the other car. His machine jumped and turned over in a ditch which contained about four feet of water. Ellsworth was pinned beneath the car and received a deep cut on the knee. His three companions, Art and W. E. Plunko, and St. Plunko, escaped without injury. The car was demolished.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Blaine entertained their children and the latter's families over the holidays. Those present for Christmas dinner were Mrs. C. O. Blaine of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Walker and daughter Maxine of Mill City, and Estil Blaine, Mrs. Rhoda Fay, mother of Mrs. C. O. Blaine, of Puyallup, also was a guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howe had as guests Mrs. and Mrs. C. O. Howe's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Howe, their son Lloyd and granddaughter Lois George of Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Howe and little son of Eugene spent the week end at the home of Mr. Howe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howe.

Miss Mary Ives Is Married To Lee H. Shepherd

SILVERTON, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Of special interest to their many friends in Silverton was the marriage of Miss Mary Ives, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ives, to Lee H. Shepherd, son of Mrs. J. E. Shepherd, a pioneer resident of Silverton.

Pythian Lodge Has Installation

HUBBARD, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—At a recent meeting the Knights of Pythias of Hubbard installed the following officers: Hugh Wells, chancellor commander; Lester Will, vice chancellor; Ike Ott, prelate; George Leffler, master of work; Robert Brown, master of finance; Lawrence Scholl, master of exchequer; Elmer Stauffer, outer guard; Earl Koehler, inner guard; and Avon Jessie, keeper of records and seal.

BUNIONS REDUCED ARCHES RESTORED

Also all other foot troubles overcome by new method. Write for free book telling how this can be accomplished. MORRIS INSTITUTE OF L. A. 707 So. Broadway Los Angeles

Student Returns To Forest Grove After Holidays

GERVAIS, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Harlie Oddie has returned to school at Forest Grove after spending the holiday vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Oddie.

Prof. and Mrs. J. E. Brehaupt and son, Jimmie, returned Sunday from Roseburg, where they spent the holidays. John Vanderbeck, of Hoquiam, Wash., spent the holidays with relatives in Gervais.

Mr. and Mrs. Wenzel Eder are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a new baby girl.

Electric Motor Operates Onion Topper Cheaply

LABISH CENTER, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—W. R. Newmyer of the Portland Electric Power company tried an experiment of unusual interest to the Lake Labish farmers and all other onion growers, recently on the D. R. De Gross place.

Under the direction of Mr. De Gross, Newmyer replaced the three-horse power gas engine with a three-horse power electric motor. This will operate his onion topper at the mere cost of three cents per hour using 1.125 kilowatts per hour at a maximum speed.

367 Carloads of Onions Shipped

LABISH CENTER, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—There have been 367 carloads of onions shipped out from Lake Labish in the past year, with probably 150 cars remaining in the hands of the growers. The present price is around $3 per hundred pounds, but news of 150,000 sacks of foreign onions being cancelled on account of the new tariff of an extra half cent, effective the latter part of this month, has resulted in many growers holding their onions for higher price. Little shipping was done in December but onions are beginning to move out since the first of the year.

WOODBURN DEBATE TEAM IS SELECTED

WOODBURN, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Woodburn high school's debate team has been announced as follows: Winton Hunt, James Myers and Winton Weisberg, affirmative; Matthew Mochel and Ila Webber, negative.

COMMUNITY CLUB'S MEETING IS HELD

BROOKS, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—The Brooks community club held its first meeting of the new year at the home of Mrs. A. E. Harris on Thursday afternoon. Routine business was transacted with the president, Mrs. John Dunlavy, presiding.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Sylvester Harris. The next meeting of the club will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Willard Ramp in Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Loomis and children, Harry, Delphine and Virgil Leroy, spent New Year's day in Salem at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mart Logston.

Miss Ellen Hackitt and Mrs. W. F. Raab were recent guests of Mrs. John Dunlavy. Mr. Hendricks of Molalla was also a recent caller at the Dunlavy home.

The next Sunday school convention of the Hayesville district will be held in Brooks at the Methodist church.

Several persons from Brooks attended the Hayesville Sunday school district convention held at Clear Lake recently. In the individual contest, Billie Coffindaffer, won second prize. Reward of merit cards were given to Verda Schafer of the Brooks Sunday school and Lloyd Tonkin and Myles Dodge, also of Brooks.

Howard Ramp is improving, after being in a very serious condition with pneumonia for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlavy and daughter Miss Marie Dunlavy and son John Dunlavy, Jr., and Mrs. Dunlavy's mother, Mrs. C. D. Naylor, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Naylor in Gervais.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rhodes have moved into their new house which they recently finished, on their farm a mile east of Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bailey and son Robert have moved into the Murphy house in Brooks. Mr. and Mrs. Cutsinger and family have moved into the Fruit house, recently vacated by the Baileys. The Cutsingers were former residents of Gervais.

GRANGE NEW YEAR DINNER IS SUCCESS

MONMOUTH, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—The annual grange New Year's dinner at Monmouth was a feature of the day here. The attendance was not as good as usual, due to the prevalence of sickness. Master P. O. Powell presided at the table. In the afternoon a short program, directed by Mrs. V. J. Edwards, was featured by a talk from R. B. Swenson, Monmouth Herald editor. Mr. Swenson referred happily to the time when he had been something of a teamster, and amusingly related that even now he sometimes is afflicted with nightmares, in which he fears that he has not properly unharnessed his steeds.

A piano number, "Mission Bellis," by June Craven; a reading, "My Shadow," by Gertrude School; a vocal number, "Drifting," by Virginia Craven playing her own accompaniment; and a trio of songs by Miss Elizabeth Brune of Hood River, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Homer Dods, were all well received. Community singing concluded the afternoon.

Adult S. S. Class Is Entertained At Bond Home

TURNER, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Mrs. H. S. Bond entertained Monday night for her adult Sunday class. A pleasant evening was spent.

Ivan Hadley and family attended the Santiam district Sunday school convention last Sunday, held at the Stayton Baptist church. J. R. Besse is seriously ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Archie Bones.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Given were Salem shoppers Friday. C. A. Bear made a trip to Crawfordville Sunday, to the home of his brother Frank. His mother returned with him for a visit.

Urgent Request Causes Choir to Repeat Pageant

DALLAS, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—The choir of the Methodist church by special request again presented the Christmas pageant Sunday night.

When the pageant was presented at Christmas time the church was far too small to admit all who came. The church was filled almost to capacity again at this performance.

Prowlers Enter Earl Home But Little is Taken

TURNER, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Mrs. Rachel Earl reports that someone recently entered her home in search of valuables. Nothing was missed except a few dollars.

Miss Gladys Morgan and Miss Hazel Bos who are nurses training at Eugene, spent New Year's day at their home in Turner.

A. Bradley of Salem spoke at the school auditorium Friday night on the subject of community development.

Fred Mitchell and family have moved to Mill City.

Mrs. D. S. Riches returned Monday from her parents' home at Wieser, Idaho. Mrs. Riches is the commercial teacher in the Aumsville high school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer and children of near Corvallis visited at the M. O. Pearson home Sunday afternoon. Mr. Palmer is employed as gardener at the W. C. T. U. Children's Farm home.

KEIZER, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—The Keizer community club will give a pie social Friday night, January 11. The women of the club are to bake their favorite pies and bring them to be auctioned to the highest bidder. The proceeds will be used in financing the hot luncheons at the school.

T. A. Brown's automobile was badly wrecked Saturday. Mr. Brown was not seriously hurt.

Eileen Holden celebrated her seventh birthday today. As it was a school day, she entertained seven little girls at a luncheon given during the noon hour. Her guests were Zillah Frogley, Mary McCall, Janette Eilers, Sylvia Cragget, Alice Scott, Evelyn Melson, and Lorraine Russell.

Parent-Teacher Association to Meet on Friday

BROOKS, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—The Brooks Parent-Teachers' association will meet on Friday evening at the Brooks schoolhouse. The program committee is preparing a good program which will be given after the business meeting.

The annual election of officers and regular business meeting of the Brooks Ladies' Aid society will be held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Schafer. All members are urged to be present.

McMINNVILLE COUPLE VISIT AT SILVERTON

SILVERTON, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes, of McMinnville were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Holmes' mother, Mrs. Adamson.

GRANGE TO INSTALL NEW HEADS FRIDAY

RICKREALL, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Installation of officers will be a feature of the grange meeting Friday night. The state secretary, Bertha Beck of Albany, will be installing officer. Prof. R. G. Hyslop of O. S. C. will speak on the subject of clover, and a short program will be given.

MRS. E. A. DUNIVAN SERVICES MONDAY

MILL CITY, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Mrs. Eliza Anna Dunivan died in this city Friday afternoon after an illness of several weeks. She was born in Missouri December 26, 1874. On January 11, 1892, she married Ellsworth Dunivan. She has lived in Mill City for the last 12 years.

She is survived by her widower, two sons, Floyd of Stockton, Cal., and Lloyd of Mill City; four daughters, Mrs. Fernie Bailey, Janice, Dorothea and Lulabel, of Mill City; two brothers, E. Glenn of Mill City and Layton Glenn of Oklahoma; two sisters, Martha French of Missouri and Nellie Murry of Tacoma, Wash. Funeral services were held from the Church of Christ Monday at 2 o'clock.

MISS SPECHT RETURNS FROM CALIFORNIA TRIP

SILVERTON, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Miss Rose Specht has just returned from a two weeks' vacation spent with a sister near Sacramento. Miss Specht contracted the influenza during her stay, and was quite ill most of the time she was away.

FORMER STAYTON GIRL MARRIED AT CORVALLIS

STAYTON, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Stayton friends of Bernadine, daughter of Mrs. Ella Lyons, have been informed of her marriage recently to Clifford Christensen at Corvallis, where the Lyons family now resides.

WOODBURN DEBATE TEAM IS SELECTED

WOODBURN, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Woodburn high school's debate team has been announced as follows: Winton Hunt, James Myers and Winton Weisberg, affirmative; Matthew Mochel and Ila Webber, negative.

Crawfords Are Luncheon Hosts

ZENA, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Crawford were hosts at a three course fireside luncheon. Miss Hilda Crawford assisted her mother in serving.

Parent-Teacher Association to Meet on Friday

BROOKS, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—The Brooks Parent-Teachers' association will meet on Friday evening at the Brooks schoolhouse. The program committee is preparing a good program which will be given after the business meeting.

McMINNVILLE COUPLE VISIT AT SILVERTON

SILVERTON, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes, of McMinnville were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Holmes' mother, Mrs. Adamson.

GRANGE TO INSTALL NEW HEADS FRIDAY

RICKREALL, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Installation of officers will be a feature of the grange meeting Friday night. The state secretary, Bertha Beck of Albany, will be installing officer. Prof. R. G. Hyslop of O. S. C. will speak on the subject of clover, and a short program will be given.

MRS. E. A. DUNIVAN SERVICES MONDAY

MILL CITY, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Mrs. Eliza Anna Dunivan died in this city Friday afternoon after an illness of several weeks. She was born in Missouri December 26, 1874. On January 11, 1892, she married Ellsworth Dunivan. She has lived in Mill City for the last 12 years.

MISS SPECHT RETURNS FROM CALIFORNIA TRIP

SILVERTON, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Miss Rose Specht has just returned from a two weeks' vacation spent with a sister near Sacramento. Miss Specht contracted the influenza during her stay, and was quite ill most of the time she was away.

FORMER STAYTON GIRL MARRIED AT CORVALLIS

STAYTON, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Stayton friends of Bernadine, daughter of Mrs. Ella Lyons, have been informed of her marriage recently to Clifford Christensen at Corvallis, where the Lyons family now resides.

WOODBURN DEBATE TEAM IS SELECTED

WOODBURN, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Woodburn high school's debate team has been announced as follows: Winton Hunt, James Myers and Winton Weisberg, affirmative; Matthew Mochel and Ila Webber, negative.

Crawfords Are Luncheon Hosts

ZENA, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Crawford were hosts at a three course fireside luncheon. Miss Hilda Crawford assisted her mother in serving.

Parent-Teacher Association to Meet on Friday

BROOKS, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—The Brooks Parent-Teachers' association will meet on Friday evening at the Brooks schoolhouse. The program committee is preparing a good program which will be given after the business meeting.

McMINNVILLE COUPLE VISIT AT SILVERTON

SILVERTON, Ore., Jan. 8.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes, of McMinnville were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Holmes' mother, Mrs. Adamson.

you are going to hear lots about this "once in a blue moon sale" January 12 at 9 a. m. great price concessions throughout our entire stock of high class men's wearables. watch for our ad Friday the man's shop clothing-furnishings hollis w. huntington salem, oregon