Last Obstacle To Miami Fight Removed When Sharkey Signs Paper

JACK WILL GET $100,000 SUM

Dempsey Goes to Florida to Make Arrangements for Winter Classic

By WILLIAM R. KING
Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON, Jan. 12.—(AP)—After haggling for three hours here today, Johnny Buckley, manager of Jack Sharkey, and William F. Carey, vice president of the Madison Square Garden corporation, signed a contract which guaranteed the Boston heavyweight $100,000 for boxing Young Stribling, of Macon, Ga., at Miami Beach, Fla., on February 27.

The terms provided that Sharkey would be paid $25,000 on February 17 and the remaining $75,000 on the morning of February 27. The contract certified that the referee would be an official acceptable to both Sharkey and Stribling and that his identity would be closed by Jack Dempsey at least seven days before the bout.

Expenses Granted
Other concessions given Sharkey were all traveling and hotel expenses for himself and Mrs. Sharkey as well as Mr. and Mrs. Buckley.

Buckley said he and Sharkey would arrive in Florida on February 1 and would strike their camp at Miami, where the Boston fighter planned to train publicly, thereby collecting about $50,000 more, he figured.

Sharkey was not present during the negotiations, which were attended by Buckley, his attorney, Carey, Jack Dempsey, their attorney, Sheldon Fairbanks, general manager of the Garden, Eddie Mack, Boston Garden boxing promoter and Daniel J. Carroll, manager of Jimmy Maloney, another Boston heavyweight.

THREE OUTSIDE TEAMS COMING

Intercity Bowling Matches on Schedule Today; More Next Sunday

Three intercity matches are on the schedule of activities today at the Winter Garden bowling alleys, when three Montgomery Ward quintets from Portland oppose local teams. The Portland women have previously claimed the northwest women's championship, but have been beaten twice by the local team.

Next Sunday an intercity series of even greater interest, when two of Portland's leading quintets will appear against picked teams from Salem's City league players. These are the Imperial hotel and Brazilian Nettleton teams, both of which make average team scores of 950.

The local City league wound up the first half of its season last week with the Capital City Bedding company team winning the championship. Strangely, the mattress makers did not hold any of the league records at the end of the half. The Flying Clouds held the high game mark of 1013; the Man's Shop had the series record of 2892, and members of the Man's Shop team held the individual records: Kantola 254 for high game, and Kay 647 for high series.

The City league will begin the second half of the season tomorrow.

M'MINNVILLE WILL BRING FAST QUINT

More tough competition for the Salem high school basketball team in its own district is foreseen Tuesday night when the red and black meets McMinnville high on the local high school floor.

In the past McMinnville has not proven an exceptional obstacle for Salem high, but its victory over Eugene high Friday night at McMinnville is sufficient evidence that the visitors will prove formidable, especially since Coach Louis Anderson's men have not yet shown evidences of rounding into real scoring form.

AUMSVILLE DEFEATS TURNER HIGH 22-21

AUMSVILLE, Ore., Jan. 12.—(Special)—Aumsville high school's basketball team won a hard fought game from Turner high at Turner Friday night by a 22 to 21 score. The game was hard fought and fast despite the fact that it was slowed up by a large number of fouls. Three Aumsville players were removed on personals and one Turner player.

The game was close all the way, with a 5 to 4 score at the end of the first quarter and a tie 13 all at half time. At the end of the third quarter Aumsville was ahead 18 to 15.

The Turner lads made a valiant effort to overcome the lead in the last period but fell one point short. Sacre was Aumsville's outstanding player, while Bear looked the best for Turner.

BRITISH QUEEN HAS LIGHT COLD, REPORT

LONDON, Jan. 12.—(AP)—King George today enjoyed another restful day but his subjects were grieved to learn that his queen, who has borne with quiet courage the countless burdens imposed by the long illness of her husband, was suffering from a cold. Her indisposition, however, was described as of a minor character and not sufficiently serious to justify issuance of a medical bulletin.

Her majesty did not leave Buckingham palace yesterday or today. Because of the cold weather it was deemed inadvisable for her to leave her rooms and risk exposure. The guards expected to start are Paul and Harshbarger.

Salem high is also scheduled to play Eugene high here this week. Friday night in the high school gymnasium.

LOW SCORE OF 135 TURNED IN

Little Chance is Now Seen for Anybody to Head off Canny Scott

By VICTOR G. SIDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
RIVERIA COUNTRY CLUB, West Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 12.—(AP)—For a man who for several years' faced the dangers of World War battle, and carries upon his person scars of that conflict, the terrors of this hazardous course mean nothing.

Tommy Armour, who fought under the colors of a Scottish regiment during the strife of some 10 years ago, is the man. The tall, husky Scot who now hails from Washington, D. C., tonight had so decisively licked the well-bunkered course of the Riviera country club that little doubt was held out as to who would be the next Los Angeles open golfing champion.

His amazingly low aggregate of 135, the like of which seldom, if ever, has been seen in the history of western golfing battles, was so far ahead of the field that it was considered doubtful that he would be headed in the final 36 hole drive tomorrow.

George Von Elm, Detroit amateur, and former national amateur champion, and Frank Walsh, Appleton, Wis., pro deadlocked at 144, nine strokes behind Armour.

The veteran Al Waltrous of Detroit, followed this pair with 72-73—???

Walter Hagen played "all over the course," today, but turned in a better card than he did yesterday.

Willamette Team Unable to Make Field Goal During Second Period

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 12.—The Oregon basketball team ran hog wild over Willamette yesterday 53 to 13 here in the third game of the series between the two quintets.

Oregon showed that at the hands of Gonzaga it afforded a much needed rest for many of the faulted players against the Bullies.

The greatest change in the play was in speed, the team being for the first time this season in possession of the ball for the first time this season. Oregon earned a great many chances at the basket. It was able to capitalize on Webfoot defensive weakness stronger than at any previous time this year.

Willamette could not find a field goal throughout the half.

Stayton Teams Defeat Gervais

STAYTON, Ore., Jan. 12.—(Special)—Stayton basketball teams carried off honors here Friday night as the boys' team defeated Gervais high 38 to 10 and the girls' team won from the Gervais girls 21. Mrs. Eggleston was the girls' game and Miss Scio of the boys'.

George Hauser, brother of the Athletics' first baseman, was tried out as a pitcher with Indianapolis club.
