

Local News Briefs

Orr to McMinville

John Orr, of the Orr real estate offices, was a business visitor in McMinville Monday.

Visits Pringle School

County Superintendent Mary L. Fulker, visits the rural schools at Pringle and near points Monday.

Dental Exam Today

A dental examination is scheduled for the Englewood school today. Dr. Estlin Branck, dental supervisor with the child health demonstration, to be in charge.

Patients at Deaconess

George Shook, 605 South 18th, and William Buntin have entered the Deaconess hospital as medical patients.

Lighting Improver

W. S. Jacks, route three, box 203, paid a $2.50 fine into the city coffers Monday for driving with improper lights.

Independence Visitor

Louis Bechtel, of the Bechtel and Sears realty office, was a Monday business visitor in Independence.

High School Teacher Out

Miss Ethelwynne Murton, French teacher at the Salem high school, was absent from her classes Monday.

Oliver at Tillamook

G. O. Oliver, vice president of Willamette university is at Tillamook today, where he is assisting with the solicitations for the Willamette Forward Movement.

Study Class to Meet

The class for instruction in prenatal and infant care conducted weekly at the Salem health center, 434 North High street, will be held this Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock, with Miss Ruby Brettske, R. N., instructor. All women are invited. Miss Fern Goulding, supervisor of nursing for the child health demonstration, is directing the instruction.

Leaves for California

Mrs. Louise Bechtel will leave this morning for Long Beach, Calif., where she plans to stay several weeks, and possibly until April. She will be accompanied south by her nephews and niece, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Sheldon, of Amity, who will remain in Long Beach for two or three weeks.

Ralph Ross Dies

Word has been received in Salem of the death in Monterey, Calif., January 13 of Ralph B. Ross, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Ross of Chemawa. His widow and 18 months old son reside at Chemawa, as also does a brother, Claud Ross. The body is being shipped to Clough-Huston for services and interment, time and place of which have not yet been set.

Hazel at Hazel Green

Dr. Edward Lee Russell of the Marion county health demonstration will conduct a clinic at the Hazel Green school this Tuesday morning. Miss Gertrude Breyer, R. N., will assist him. In the afternoon, Dr. Russell will be in charge of a clinic at the Silvertown health center.

Two Flu Cases Reported

But two cases of influenza, one in Salem and one in the county, were reported over the week-end to the county health officer. Whether the reports are really indicative of the status of the influenza epidemic at present is problematical, as doctors may have failed to report cases following the height of the wave.

Kimball Folk Meet

Students at Kimball School of Theology, and members of the faculty and their families will have a pot-luck lunch at noon today in the Kimball auditorium for a social room. Following the lunch, the Lupella Kimball club will hold its regular monthly business and social meeting.

New Courses Offered

A committee of faculty members at Willamette university has been at work for some time preparing the university catalogue for the school year 1929-30. R. A. McCully, registrar, announced Monday that several new courses will be offered next year. One of these is a course in the principles of radio communication, which is being offered by the physics department.

Mrs. Menzie Dies Here

Mrs. Jane Menzie, 74, died at a local hospital Monday. She is survived by four sons, John Lenzie, Portland, Alex. James and Chester Menzie, New York City. Funeral services will be held this Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at the Salem Mortuary chapel. Interment will be made in the Cityview cemetery.

To Address Realty Class

L. C. Soule, prominent Portland realtor, will be in Salem tonight to address the realty class conducted at the high school each Tuesday night at 7:15 o'clock as one of the extension courses sponsored by the University of Oregon. Mr. Soule will talk upon "What to Know About Your City and District." The regular class instructor is Prof. C. L. Kelly of the state university. The class is designed especially for realtors but is also adapted for property owners.

Encampment Planned

The first annual encampment of the Chemeketa, local hiking club, will be in Jefferson park the first two weeks in August, according to plans formed and discussed at a meeting of the committee covering this event. Jefferson park is on the south slope of Mt. Jefferson. Various functions for the two weeks of the camp were assigned to committee members for full development. Members of the committee are Ben Rickel, chairman; Dr. R. H. Miller and Mrs. Mike Knowlton, R. M. Hoffmann, George Folsky, Stanley Vail and Lavilla Perry.

N. & B. TRANSFER

Frank M. Newton
Office Phone 682; Box 1180-R
Local and Long Distance

Demurrer Filed

A general demurrer to the complaint was filed in circuit court here Monday in the case of E. A. Miller vs D. H. Looney and Lona Looney.

Divorce Asked

Charging that she deserted him the day after their marriage and has never come back, Cecil R. Secho filed suit in circuit court Monday asking a divorce from Norma Secho. They were married in Vancouver, Washington, December 18, 1927.

Ellis Loses Suit

Default decree for $56 and numerous court costs was entered in circuit court here Monday against the defendant in the suit F. W. Casey vs. Newton W. Ellis and others.

Has Four in Seat

C. E. Kaufman of Portland left a $5 bill with the city police judge for being picked up early Sunday morning for driving with four persons in the driver's seat.

Dean Jameson Here

Mrs. Kate W. Jameson, dean of women at Oregon State college, will address the members of the Girls League of the Salem high school at their regular meeting this morning. Miss Mabel Robertson, dean of girls at the high school, is advisor to the league.

R. Starrett Improving

Condition of Robert Starrett, son of J. V. Starrett, 554 North Liberty street, is showing slight improvement. The younger Starrett has been seriously ill at the parental home of an attack of pneumonia.

Mickel in South

A. A. Mickel, general passenger agent for the Southern Pacific here, left Monday morning for San Francisco. He will return the middle of the week.

Lost Sheep Found

Twenty lost sheep have been found in the vicinity of Hager's Grove, according to an announcement made at the office of the county sheriff Monday. The sheep have caused considerable annoyance to the farmers in that vicinity, it was indicated. No clue has yet been found to show who owns the sheep.

Bootlegger Sentenced

F. W. Kraemer was sentenced to a $200 fine when he came up before Justice of the Peace Small Monday on a charge of bootlegging. Falling to pay the fine, he was lodged in the county jail.

Two Couples Wed

Marriage licenses were issued here Monday to William F. Harris, 29, and Thea M. Wellman, 22, both of Woodburn, and to James L. Furnish, 35, and Rose M. Holenbeck, 28, both of Eugene. Furnish is a tax collector at Eugene. The marriage is the second for both himself and his bride.

Hastay Gets Lawyer

George A. Hastay, who was arrested last week on a non-support charge, came up before Justice of the Peace Small Monday and was given time to consult an attorney before entering his plea. He is being held in jail in lieu of bail.

Estate Appraised

The estate of the late E. G. Guard was appraised at $192.85 in a report of inventory and appraisal filed in probate Monday by B. M. Skafte, J. D. Eldson and Charles Meyers, appraisers.

Girls Return to Homes

Florance Hinkle, 18, and Helen Taylor, 14, have been returned to their homes in Salem following nearly a week's search for them. The girls had been in Carson, Wash., visiting relatives. They mysteriously disappeared from school a week ago Monday, but when found were enjoying what proved to be but a harmless runaway escapade.

Mannings Leave for Home

Mr. and Mrs. George Manning and two children, Patricia and Jerry Junior, left Sunday morning for their home in Seattle, where Mr. Manning is in the coast guard service. Mrs. Manning and their children have spent the past two months at the home of his mother, Mrs. Lillian M. Manning, 1775 Fir street. He came down Friday to accompany them home.

Cup on Display

The silver loving cup which the Salem high school won as a trophy for entering the best high school paper in the high school press conference held on the University of Oregon campus last Friday and Saturday was on exhibit at the school this morning. The cup is not much more than six inches high and is known as the Eugene Guard trophy.

FIND IT HERE

During Legislature—The Gray Belle will serve breakfast from 8 to 11.
Furniture Upholsterers—And repairing Gliese-Powers Furniture Co.
Dinner—Every night 5:30 to 8 at the Marlon hotel.
Old Time Dance—Crystal Garden every Wed. and Sat. night.
Jan. Clearance Sale—The clearance in a photo studio. Wonderful Bargain Counter. (Who ever heard of such a thing in photography?) Well, come and see for yourself, Trover's Studio, 122 N. Com. st.

PILES CURED

Without operation or loss of time.
DR. MARSHALL
232 Oregon Bldg.
Office Phone 125 Res. 2622

Dr. F. Don Baylor

Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon,
General Surgery and Obstetrics
Office 304 Oregon Bldg.

THOMPSON-GLUTCH OPTICAL CO.

110 N. Commercial St.
"At the Sign of the Spect"

Farm Auction Sale Next Friday

At 1:30 p. m. 4 miles east on Garden Rd., good horse, cows, hogs, chickens, machinery, furniture, tools, etc. Bertha Ristow, Owner, F. N. Woody, auctioneer.

Old Time Dance

Crystal Garden every Wed. and Sat. night.

Flowers for All Occasions

Lutz Florist, 16 and Market. Phone 2124.

Thomas Bros. Band

Mellow Moon Wednesday.

Kat at O'Leary's

Where good food is served.
On first mortgages. Box 123. Statestman.

Guaranteed Shed Dry Wood

Royal Coal. Prompt Service. Tel. 13.

Valve Grinding Specialty

New grinding machines, expert workman. 20% discount till Feb. 16, Fitzgerald Sherwin Motor Co. Liberty at Chemeketa.

Farm Auction Sale

Next Friday at 1:30 p. m. 1 mile east on Garden Rd., good horse, cows, hogs, chickens, machinery, furniture, tools, etc. Bertha Ristow, owner, F. N. Woody, auctioneer.

Ray Conway Will Speak at Dinner Of Hiking Club

Ray Conway, guide on the Mount Hood climb of the Chemeketa last summer, will talk on the thrill of being "up" at the first annual banquet of the local hiking club tonight at the Y. M. C. A. Serving will begin at 6:15 o'clock.

Numerous talks on different phases of hiking will be given by members of the local club and a greeting will be extended by Gene Dowling of the Portland Mazama club. A musical program and hiking pictures are also on the program.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 14 (AP)—Two federal prisoners escaped from Fort Benjamin Harrison, near here, and a guard who had charge of them was missing late today. Whether the guard, Private Cleveland G. Pipes, had met with foul play or voluntarily accompanied the prisoners remains a mystery to officials at the military posts.

OBITUARY

Fruit

Amy L. Fruit, 23, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fruit of Crawfordville, Ore., died Sunday at a local hospital. Also survived by three brothers, Walter, Albert and Lester of Crawfordville, and two sisters, Mrs. Clark Chastain of Halsey and Mrs. Ira Van Epps of Holley. Ore. Funeral announcements later from Clough-Huston company.

Stiffler

Mrs. Grace D. Stiffler, 58, mother of Lloyd E. Stiffler, of Salem, and Lester H. Stiffler of San Francisco, died early Saturday in the residence at 1677 Chemeketa street. Six grandchildren also survive. Funeral services Tuesday, January 15, at 10:30 a. m., at the Rigdon chapel, Rev. H. C. Stover officiating. The Daughters of Veterans and Rebekah lodge assisting. Burial in Cityview cemetery.

Craver

Died at Union, Ore., January 13, Abraham Craver. Father of five children, three of whom died in infancy. Surviving are one son, Clarence G. Craver of Union, Ore., and Mrs. Allen McCall of Salem, and two grandsons, Hugh and Chester McCall of Salem, and one granddaughter, Mrs. Pauline Davis of Manhattan Beach, Calif. Funeral services from the Clough-Huston parlors Tuesday, at 1:30 p. m., the Rev. R. L. Payne officiating. Interment beside his late wife, in I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Menzie

Mrs. Jane Menzie, 74, died in this city January 14. Survived by four sons, John of Portland and Alex. James and Chester, all of New York City. Funeral services will be held this Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock from the Salem Mortuary chapel, with interment in the Cityview cemetery.

MT. CREST ABBEY MAUSOLEUM

Vault Entombment
LOYD T. RIGDON, Mgr.

CLOUGH-HUSTON Co.

1200
Fully
Restoration
Service

PILES CURED

Without operation or loss of time.
DR. MARSHALL
232 Oregon Bldg.
Office Phone 125 Res. 2622

Dr. F. Don Baylor

Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon,
General Surgery and Obstetrics
Office 304 Oregon Bldg.

LET'S LIVE! MILDRED LAMB

Chapter LXII
BYRD hadn't taken time to wire Pat, but had just packed up and left. She took a taxi from the station. She smiled to herself in anticipation of the job. Pat would get, and Pat loved jobs. She had a childish zest for surprises of all kinds. Pat had opened the hall door after the buzzer sounded, and stood with a look of inquiry in her eager, bright eyes as Byrd panted up the stairs with her bag.

"Glory, hallelujah!" she gasped. "When did you arrive?" "I'm still arriving!" laughed Byrd. "I got your letter yesterday. I could hardly wait for train time."

"You of shoe-and-stockings!" said Pat, delightedly. "I'm just woosy with joy!"

"They hugged again. Then Byrd took off her things and they sat down and talked, as madly as racing fords."

Byrd described her visit home. "The wicked flea when Henrietta pursued—with that tongue of hers," said Byrd, shaking her head. "She got awfully suspicious because I wasn't getting any letters from Larry, and that whenever I got into hot water, you ought to have seen the way dad lied me out of it. Of course, he suspected right from the beginning where to head in."

"I'd like to see anybody put anything over on dad!" laughed Pat. "Then she looked grave. 'What did dad think about it all? I suppose he wanted to come right up to Cleveland and tell Larry where to head in.'"

"Not exactly," said Byrd, considering the point of her shoe with a speculative eye. "No, strange as it may seem, he looked at the thing from both sides and showed me where I had made a few mistakes myself."

"Why, the old muckwump! And what did you tell him?"

Byrd gave her a sketchy account of their conversation. "Well, I used to have the idea myself that all husbands should be stepped on, some on the neck and some on the accelerator, but I've changed my mind, too," giggled Pat. "It's Chet that's doing the stepping around here. He told me if I didn't get busy about learning to drive, he'd go to a club. A word to this wife was sufficient. I got busy!"

Byrd thought with amusement how Pat used to irritate the family with her constant impositions. She was the rally of the neighborhood, and her meekness now seemed incredible.

Before Byrd had gone to visit her parents she told Pat about the baby and had sworn her and Chet to secrecy just as she had tiny and Fritzie.

"I just couldn't tell dad about Fritzie," she said, trying to speak casually about the coming of the baby, but it was still such a novel thought to her that hot and cold shivers wiggled up and down her back.

Then she looked quickly away whenever she thought of the advent of a son or a daughter, she was reminded of Larry, and the combination unperturbed.

Pat started to say something and stopped abruptly.

"What's on your mind, shoe-string?" asked Byrd, humorously.

"Larry's been staying with us week-ends while he and Fred have been going over Jack's affairs," Pat began slowly.

"Yes!" inquired Byrd, trying to conceal the eagerness in her voice. She was bursting to get news of him. "How is he?"

"Improving!" said Pat, emphatically. "He's not worrying any more about the Builders' Supply, and he's put back the weight he lost. He's handsomer than ever."

Byrd looked down quickly before Pat could discover the slightly resentful look in her eyes.

He was growing fat and successful, while she was thin with worry and the strain of the coming of the baby!

Byrd unpacked her clothes while Pat finished straightening up the apartment. Houseswork didn't come easily to her and she groaned aloud as she ran the carpet sweeper around.

"Let me fix something for our supper tonight," said Byrd. "Just then let's go on a bat!"

Byrd had planned the dinner and was responsible for the unusual touches, the paper frill around the crown roast of lamb, the sauce served with the cauliflower and the desert built up with colored gelatin and whipped cream.

It was one of the ironies of life, she thought, that she probably spend her life working in a bank.

She had slipped into her black velvet dress just before tiny and Fred arrived, and to them she looked like a qualtr cameo in a jeweler's window against a velvety background.

During the dinner the conversation consisted chiefly of what the children said and did.

"Hear from Larry today?" Chet asked Fred.

Byrd felt as if her body had suddenly tried to leap away from her.

"Why, yes," said Fred. "He came into town this morning. He's taken some offices on a lease in the First National bank building. He thinks he'll be ready to open the first of the month. I'm relieved that the Builders' Supply stock went so well."

"It was a big worry until it was sold," considered Chet. "Larry knows now that it doesn't pay to handle that kind of stuff. Not when you have to have a steady income."

Byrd listened with beating heart to this little drama in which he felt she was the leading lady without ever taking part. The rest of the evening she was as detached from the scene as if only her spirit were there.

After Fred and tiny had left, Pat and Byrd slipped into their pyjamas and started washing the dishes.

Auction Sale

Friday, Jan. 18 at 1 p. m.

Located 4 Miles East of Salem on Garden Road. Follow Arrows from the Swegle School

Horse, Cows, Hogs, Chickens, Grain, Hay, Machinery, Furniture, Tools, Etc.

1 good Clyde horse, 4 yrs. old, blocky built, weight about 1250 lbs., broken; 1 Jersey cow, 4 yrs. old, milking; 1 Jersey cow, 1 yr. old, milking; 1 Jersey heifer, 1 yr. old; 2 fine Chestnut Whites, weight 100 lbs. each; 100 W. L. hens; 20 Black Minorca hens; 15 bushels wheat; 11 1/2 bushels oats, vetch and wheat; 1 1/2 tons clover hay, loose; 1 ton oat and vetch hay, loose; 9 bushels of oat and vetch hay; 1 set of double work harness, 1 set of single work harness, parts of harness and collars, 1 good one-horse wagon with box complete, 1 hand cutting box, 1 Iron Age garden seeder, 1 2-hp. Iron orchard plow, 1 12-in. Oliver steel plow, 2 buggies, 2000 gal. galv. tank, 1 sec. spring tooth harrow, 1 one-horse cultivator, like new; 1 drag harrow, ladder, stone boat, wheel barrow, step ladder, small tools of all kinds, neck yokes, doubletrees, shovels, axes, post auger, rakes, spray pump, backsway, 10 sacks potatoes, 4 cords 4-ft. wood, 4 cords dry stove wood, brooder and incubator, scale, fruit bars, 50 lbs. fresh berry crates, sanitary couch and pad, 2 beds, springs and mattresses, dining chairs, stand tables, rugs, dining table, heater, Morris chairs, bookcase and books, china cabinet, large oak side board heater, range, congolectric rug, rockers, clock, lamps, partitions, dressers, oil stove, medicine chest, K. cabinet, K. utensils, dishes, and many other articles. Terms cash.

Note: The owner is moving to California and everything goes without reserve. The 10 acre improved farm is for sale or rent. See owner.

Mrs. Bertha Ristow Owner.

F. N. Woody
16 1/2 First National Bldg.
Auctioneer in Charge.

West Salem News

By LOU THOMPSON Phone 417-W

Mary Elizabeth Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Patterson, is visiting her grandparents, Dr. W. J. and Mrs. Patterson of St. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Sloper attended a bridge party Saturday evening, given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doolittle of Salem.

Mr. W. J. Magee visited his family over the week end. Mr. Magee is employed on the state highway at Hood River.

A large and orderly crowd attended the Mellow Moon dance Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Sloper are looking forward to moving into their new home, which is nearing completion.

Major Chas. Robertson is expected home from Detroit, Mich., some time in February.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Yantis returned to their home January 11, from an eleven months visit in Beloit, Kansas, where they attended to their farming interests, and were the guests of relatives.

GLEE CLUB PLANS CONCERT JOURNEY

Members of the Willamette university glee club are making intensive preparation for their annual concert tour, to begin January 25. Last Wednesday night a pre-season concert was given at the Blind School, Wednesday night will be given at Chemawa, and on Thursday night a concert at Jefferson is planned.

Next week the singers will take their final somewhat of a rehearsal, so that they may have the regular examination week for travel. The club this year numbers 17 men besides the reader and accompanist, Paul Geddes, manager of the club, stated Monday that the itinerary for this year would be in southern Oregon and northern California, a territory in which the local club has not sung before.

Following the concert tour, the club will give a concert in Portland, and a presentation over radio station KGW has been arranged. Some time in February the quartette will make a brief trip independent of the club. No date has been set for the annual home concert in Salem.

Legislature Gets DeAutremont Case

Attention of the legislature was called Monday to the claims for portions of the reward offered by the state for the arrest and conviction of the three DeAutremont brothers, who participated in the Siskiyou holdup October 11, 1923. This was done in a message to the house from Secretary of State Hal E. Hoss Monday afternoon. The matter was referred to the ways and means committee.

Today's Recipes

Creamed Dried Beef—Cut dried beef into small pieces with scissors and fry for a few minutes in butter. Add one tablespoon flour to mixture and gradually pour on a cup of milk season with a little pepper and salt, if necessary, and serve over the baked potatoes.

FOR INFORMATION

ABOUT LOCAL OR EASTERN RAILROAD TRIPS
PHONE 727
Oregon Electric Ry.
Willamette Valley Line

John J. Rottle

415 State St.
Expert Shoe Fitter
WALK-OVER AND CANTILEVER FOOTWEAR

Electric Vacuum Cleaners For Rent VIBBERT & TODD Things Electrical 191 South High Tel. 2112

Hood's POISON OAK Lotion

The Greatest Remedy on Earth for the Relief of POISON OAK AND IVY

Its Soothing and Healing Properties Alleviate All Itching and Burning.

Price 50c and $1.00 per bottle

Schaefer's Drug Store

The Original Yellow Front Drug Store—Phone 197 N. Commercial St. Penslar Agency

Come and See "the wheels go round" At Our Power Farming Day

THE power farming idea is sweeping the country so rapidly these days that it is important for every farmer to get first hand information on this subject. It is the purpose of our big POWER FARMING DAY, Friday, January 18, 1929, to provide, in an interesting, entertaining way, facts that will prove helpful to present and prospective power farmers.

The men who will present these facts during our POWER FARMING DAY are experienced in tractor operation and upkeep. Their discussion and demonstration of power farming equipment methods will be worth money to every farmer who is interested in reducing production costs. And, remember, the whole party is FREE! Come early and be our guest for the day. There'll be a dandy FREE LUNCH AT NOON, and FREE MOVIES.

Chas. R. Archard Implement Co.

210 State Street SALEM, OREGON

GOOD LAWYERS OAKLAND

SATS—

1927 Pontiac 4-door sedan in A-1 condition, has the appearance of a new car, equipped with 80% new rubber, bumpers, snubbers, spare tire and 1929 license for $650.00.

MICK BROS.

"The House That Service Builds"

ARMORY LECTURES

By Prof. C. E. Evesson

Subject: "Jonight"

"Was Jesus Christ the Son of Joseph, the Carpenter?"