Quintet Facing Salem High Tonight Winner Over Eugene, Washington

The really significant part of school's basketball season may be said to open to night when the red and black quintet seeks to repel the invasion of McMinnville high's speedy outfft. The game is scheduled for 7:

Previous games here have turn ed out to be more or less "set-ups" for Coach Louis Anderson's men. while on the other hand the disastrous defeat at the hands of the O. S. C. Rooks spelled little. A college freshman team draws from the best in the state, and may be entirely out of the high school

But McMinnville high is a different story. It is not in the same district with Salem, so that the outcome will have no bearing on district standings; but at the same time, it must be remembered that all of Salem high's games are viewed from the angle of almost certain participation in the state tournament.

Fans are Spoiled

Fans here have been spolied to the extent that they are not content with anything less than a contender for state honors. That such accomplishments should continue for years and years is patently unreasonable, yet they have been repeated until the fans look for them each year.

Now, if Salem high goes down to defeat on its home floors against any Oregon high school team, whether in the same district or not, it is a bad omen for the local school's performance in the state tournament where it will be pitted against nine teams from also won from Washington high neighbors as Mrs. Helen Kinder. of Portland. Probable lineups

CHERRIANS READY FOR ANNUAL MEET

Salem Cherrians will hold their annual banquet and initiation ceremony at the Marion hotel tonight. The affair is to be a stag party. A well planned program is to be presented during the evening.

It is at this time that the outgoing King Bing, P. D. Quisenberry, will relinquish the official title and the incoming King Bing. C. F. Giese, will take it over for the year 1929. Several new members will be initiated, among whom will be Frank Chapman, Delph Craig, George Norris, Ralph Hamilton and Walter Zosel. One of the original ideas of the Cherrians has attained national mention in several magazines during the last year. This is that of the lighted out-of-doors Christmas trees which has spread from Salem to many municipalities of the United States.

The organization also takes pride in being one of the oldest civic organizations in the city.
