COREY NOT AGREED ON DUNNE FIGURES

Operating the automotive division of the public service commission costs only 20 per cent of the receipts and not 50 per cent, as stated recently by Senator Dunne of Multnomah county, according to a statement issued Saturday by H. H. Corey, a member of the commission.

Mr. Corey also denied in his statement that the public service commission had used automotive funds for the purchase of caps, umbrellas and holder and to defray expenses of a commissioner who attended the national meeting of railroad and public utilities commissioners in 1927.

Senator Dunne's charges against the public service commission were said to have been made at a recent meeting of the special committee appointed to investigate and revise the motor vehicle license fees.

AIR DELIVERY OF RADIO IS PLANNED

Two of the world's newest marvels, the airplane and the radio, will be involved here Monday when an airplane delivery of a radio receiving set will be made.

All have been sent to training station at San Diego, but Caldwell will be transferred to the aviation section elsewhere.

Edward W. Hewitt, who enlisted here October 14 is now at sea en route to South America through the Panama canal, aboard the U. S. S. Idaho, according to word received by Sergeant W. J. McClain, in charge of Marine corps recruiting in Salem.

High School Students Learn Rudiments of Mechanics in Class Room

With less than one semester or half a school year, of existence behind it, the auto mechanics shop at the Salem high school is declared a huge success by the instructor, Tom Wolgamott, and it is only a matter of time before more room will be required.

The matter of more room is apparent already, with 65 boys enrolled in a course which was primarily designed to accommodate but 60. At that, as many again boys as now enrolled have been turned away from the course because of class limitations.

Work of the young mechanics is in no way limited to any one thing, is discouraged, that is the too frequent appearance of the popular jiffy. Apparently the shop could keep busy on these and nothing else were not it frowned upon for class work.

Helps Organize Teachers—William W. Fox, rural school supervisor, was in Silverton Saturday to organize a teachers' club for the rural schools adjacent to that town.

Married at Parsonage—Frederick William Rosentrotter and Mabel Williams were united in marriage at the parsonage by the Rev. Fred C. Taylor, pastor of the First Methodist church Thursday afternoon. The ceremony was witnessed by Mrs. Ida Spencer and Mrs. F. C. Taylor.

Salem Photographers Heralded Afar

The complete issue of "Studio Light," a magazine for the photographic profession, is given over to artistic portraits made by the Kennell-Ellis studio of Salem and Eugene. This fact constitutes a distinctive tribute in view of the fact only one other Oregon photographer, it is said, has been so honored.

The cover of the magazine is beautified by a portrait of David Thompson, young son of Dr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson of Salem. The 32 pages of the publication are pictures of a number of well-known Salem persons, including Sam Ellis, Max Blackwell, Professor Hobson, Walter Jenks and his family, Governor Patterson and Dr. Hall, as well as an unusual character study of an aged violinist, Mr. Hill.

The publication chronicles the history of the photographic career of Earl E. Kennell of Salem and his associate, Ernest W. Ellis of Eugene. Their first studio was at Eugene and was opened five years ago. Later they opened the Salem studio and have branched out at Silverton and Monmouth.

West Salem News

The annual fathers and sons banquet will be held January 25 at 6:30 p. m. in the community hall. The dinner will be "pot luck," and will be served by the young men of the Epworth league. Each father is asked to bring some prepared dish and all fathers and sons in the community are invited. Men who have sons are asked to notify the Rev. M. A. Groves, pastor of the Methodist church, who may be able to put them in touch with some boy who has no father.

The program will be as follows: Welcome, by the Rev. M. A. Groves; music by the Rev. E. G. Hantley of Independence; "A Father to the Sons," A. Gosser's response, Lyle Thomas; "A Father and the Boy Scouts," Dr. D. A. Williams; report on the men's meeting, W. L. LaDue; music by the Rev. Mr. Stanton; address by the Rev. Fred C. Taylor; numbers by the boys.

JOHN H. SCOTT Retires from Business
I have more country and city property than I can use. Its care requires so much of my time, I have decided to place it on the market at prices and on terms that any good rustler can pay for. Limited space prevents me quoting prices or entering into details. The following will give only a brief hint of some of them.
TRACT NO. 1
61 acres of splendid land, all year creek and springs and beautiful timber that will make 5,000 cords of wood, located 15 miles from Salem. Will sell all or any part for a small cash payment and take wood on the ground or delivered in Salem at the market price, for the remainder at $2.50 to $4.00 per cord. Don't sit idle looking for a job, here is one.

TRACT NO. 2
130 acres 15 miles out, 2,500 cords of fuel timber, two wells and springs, good wire fences, two sets of buildings. Will divide. Will sell on same terms as tract No. 1. A splendid stock ranch.

TRACT NO. 3
60 to 70 acres 5 miles from Salem, 16 acres cleared, 2 acres timber, remainder good pasture. Some cash, some labor, remainder easy terms.

TRACT NO. 4
40 acres located 3 miles from Salem. Modern improvements, 30 acres set to walnuts, filberts and cherries. This is a choice tract. Will subdivide. I have cheap land on the coast and mountain country, with unlimited advantage near town and school. Will sell any of the above cheap and on easy terms. Might take some trade. See me at once for particulars at 1189 Court Street, phone 622, Salem. I have two tractors, 2 two-bottom 12-inch Hodge plows, several walking plows and harrows, a cream separator, a circular wood saw for sale at a bargain, and a job with it.
