Y. W. C. A. Plans: For Future Activity

Mrs. Eric Butler, chairman of the publicity committee for the Y. W. C. A. announces that $7. 000.00 is the objective for the budget drive which will begin February 4.

It is interesting to note that Sa lem did not have a Y. W. C. A until 1914 at which time it was located at 257 N. Liberty street and two years later was moved to its present location, the entire second floor of the Roth building. Many women of Salem have worked hard and patiently to bring the organization to the place it now fills in the community, and many liberal hearted and civic-minded individuals both in business and in society have contributed financially to make possible its slow but sure growth so far.

At the present time the following women, as the board of directors for 1929, are giving much labor and thought toward a more efficient and far-auching association: Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, president, Mrs. L. H. McMahan, first vice president, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, second vice president, Mrs. F. M. Erickson, recording secretary, Mrs. John McNary, corresponding secretary, Mrs. D. R. Ross, treasurer and Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. Prince W. Byrd, Mrs. B. E. Carrier, Mrs. W. D. Clarke, Mrs. H. M. Hawkins, Mrs. J. H. Lauterman, Miss Nina McNary, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers. Mrs. B. C. Miles, Mrs. George Moorehead, Mrs. Glenn C. Niles, Dr. Mary Purvine. Mrs. Rex A. Sanford, Mrs. Carl A. Swope, and Dr. Estella Ford War-

The program included a scarf dance in which appeared Elizabeth Waters, Grace Day, Katherine Ellis . Marie Stutsman, Margaret Bell, Margaret Burdette, Nancy Spurlin, Mary Jane Lau, Frances Lau and Juanita Powell; Jack Spong, the magician, presented slight-of-hand tricks; toe solo, the "Dragon Fly," by Eliabeth Waters; tap numbers in which appeared Juanita Powell and Grace Day; solo dance, the Dutch Dairy Maid" by Elizabeth Afternoon of Bridge Waters; and an adagio number For Club Members given by Grace Day and George Birrell. Mrs. Florence Teed ac companied the dance numbers.

A group of girls from the school for the deaf appeared in a clever execution of "The Highland Fling." They were Georgia Krepela, Irene Lance, Marbaret Cupper and Marjorle McKinnon. Following the program members of the school faculty and some of the students served tea to the visiting entertainers.
