Funeral Services for Alfred Ives Held at Woodburn On Wednesday

WOODBURN, Jan. 25 .- (Special) - Alfred Ives, for many years a resident of this city, and last living charter member of Woodburn lodge No. 106, A. F. and A. M., was buried in Belle Possi cemetery Wednesday

Funeral services were held in the Hall chapel under auspices of the Masons with the Rev. D. J. Gillanders of Monitor officiating. At the cemetery Masonic services were in charge of Worshipful Master Elburn F. Sims. Pallbearers were T. C. Poorman, Charles Halverson, Hugh Boyle, W. J. and R. H. Scott.

Was 73 Years Old Mr. Ives died last Thursday at the age of 73 years, in Svenson, Oregon, near Astoria.

He was born in London, England, February 2, 1855. At the age of 12 he came with a brother, Henry, to the United States, and began work in a nursery in Portland and has since lived in Salem and Silverton, coming to Woodburn about 1888. Here he was married to Catherine Urfer, who. with a son, Frederick Arthur, survives him. In 1904 the family moved to Irrigon, living there six years and then moving to Portland. Two years ago they moved
