

Salem High Quint Overcomes Dallas' Stubborn Resistance

RED AND BLACK WINS 28 TO 15

Beechler and Bob Kelly Scoring Stars; First Half of Game Close

DALLAS, Feb. 1.—(Special)—Although faced by much stiffer opposition than it encountered in its game with the same team at Salem two weeks ago, the Salem high school basketball team defeated Dallas high here tonight 28 to 15.

As it was, the Dallas quintet would have made the going even tougher for Salem high than it did, except for an off day in shooting. The game was fast throughout, and especially close in the first half, Salem leading at half time 12 to 8.

Griffin, the shifty guard who went in and stopped Siegmund's dashes under the basket in the game at Salem, did the same thing tonight and held the slender Salem forward to four points. Beechler, with short shots from under the basket, and R. Kelly with long ones, scored most of Salem's points.

Summary:
Dallas: Uglow (2), Brown (2), LeFors (8), Griffin (1), Cleaver (1), Vaughn (2).
Salem: (4) Siegmund (2), (2) Kitchen (12), (12) Beechler (1), (10) R. Kelly (1), (1) Perrino.

SORDS POINTS

Chosen Ryder Cup Team Captain

By JACK SORDS
Sports Cartoonist-Writer for Central Press and The Statesman
GEORGE DUNCAN, Scotland's foremost golfer, has been chosen captain of the British Ryder Cup team which tackles Walter Hagen's American golfers on British links this week. Duncan is a golfer of rare ability. He is quick in figuring out his shots and loses no time in preliminary maneuvers. He just chooses his club and bangs away. He is capable of giving the game's greatest stars a merry battle for honors if someone else could do his putting. There is none better in making long iron approach shots, but once on the green he is just another golfer.

In addition to Duncan, Britain's team includes the names of Archie Compton, Abe Mitchell, Tom Cotton, Aubrey Boomer, Stewart Burns, Fred Robson, Percy Alliss, Ernest Whitcombe and Charles Whitcombe.
Burns, Cotton, Alliss and the Whitcombes have never played on this side. But the rest are well known to American golf bugs. Mitchell and Compton are the most familiar figures. Mitchell is a match player supreme and at this game a hard man to beat. Compton is the one who smothered Walter Hagen in the widely advertised special match in England last spring. Boomer, who bears a striking resemblance to the Prince of Wales, has visited our shores twice and proved himself to be one of the most brilliant shot makers among England's young professionals.

Jack Sharkey Gets Large Welcome on His Arrival

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 1.—(AP)—Jack Sharkey arrived here tonight to pitch his camp around the corner from that of W. L. (Young) Stribling in preparation for their heavyweight elimination bout here the night of Feb. 27. Sharkey was accorded an enthusiastic welcome when he arrived by Buckley, his manager, and his respective wives stepped from the train and the ovation was repeated at the Miami Beach Kennel club, and later at the Miami fight between Ruch Heise and Texas Ranger, which the Boston sailor refereed.

The first meeting of the pair of heavies who will enter the Flamingo park ring occurred tonight at Heise-Ranger fight, where Sharkey, Stribling and Jack Dempsey were guests. They exchanged pleasantries but their meeting was brief. Sharkey thanked Stribling for the wire of welcome which the latter's party had sent his party today.
A large crowd attracted to Hialeah race track yesterday announced of Sheriff M. P. Lehman that gambling in the Miami area would be stopped was disappointed when there was no disturbance and no arrests made.
Bookmakers, who replaced the Pari-Mutual machines banned two years ago when declared illegal under Florida statutes, were said to have operated, but there was no money changing hands about the track and tonight officials of the Miami Jockey club declared the meeting would continue.
On the heels of the Jock club's announcement came a declaration from Jack Dempsey that the Sharkey-Stribling fight would be staged at Flamingo park in Miami Beach, Feb. 27. He previously had been quoted as saying that if racing in Dade county was stopped he would transfer the fight to an unnamed California city.
Earlier today the sheriff, after a secret conference announced that he intended to enforce the anti-gambling laws of the state at Hialeah track, at the Jai Alai Fronton all within the limits of Dade county.
His statement was prompted by a telegram sent to him last night by Governor Doyle Carlton at Tallahassee.

Schmeling Pounds Risiko for Technical K.O.

Powerful German Wallops Yankee Fighter; Referee Stops Fight in 9th Round

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, Feb. 1.—(AP)—With a terrific display of punching power, Max Schmeling, German heavyweight, scored a technical knock-out over Johnny Risiko of Cleveland in the ninth round of a ten round bout here tonight. Risiko was floored four times before the referee stopped the bout after one minute and five seconds of the ninth.

For the first time in any of his New York battles with the top flight of heavyweights, Risiko went down under a right hand punch in the first session, a wild, free-swinging round. Johnny came up without a count, but was badly hurt at the bell. Weaving and bobbing like the real Dempsey, punching viciously with either hand, Max gave Risiko a drubbing in the second round, but took a lacing himself in the third as Risiko found the range with sweeping left hooks to the head and body.
Johnny Stages Rally
The fourth round was another mad session. They fought from rope to rope, grunting, slugging, growing more vicious with each blow. Fighting better than ever before, Risiko bullied Schmeling before him in the fifth and nearly floored the German with a torrent of gloves in the sixth.
Out of a clear sky, while taking a punishing Schmeling landed with his right in the seventh and dropped Risiko for a count of nine. Risiko bled, and slugged, and tore, but twice more in the round the German staggered him with lightning rights to the chin.
Risiko Seen to Stagger
The big crowd was in an uproar in the eighth, as Schmeling dropped Risiko again for nine with another right to the chin. This time Johnny was badly hurt. A new sight for New York fans. He staggered through fierce punishment but lasted the round.
Schmeling ended the match in short order in the ninth when he landed Risko on the floor for a nine count and battered him unmercifully until Referee Arthur Donovan halted the fray.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Joe Jeby, New York welterweight, scored his second straight knock-out victory over Cecil Harper of Aberdeen, Wash., in the second session of the first 10 round match at Madison Square Garden tonight. This was in their first meeting sprinkled with knock-outs, the second battle was a sudden death affair.
Otto von Porat, slugging Norwegian heavyweight from Chicago scored a technical knockout over Jack Gagnon of Boston, after two minutes and 24 seconds of fighting in the fourth round of a ten round semi-final. The bell saved Gagnon after the Boston battler was twice floored with rights to the chin in the third. The referee stopped the bout after Gagnon had been felled for six count, and was reeling helplessly in the fourth. Von Porat scaled 195; Gagnon 190.
