

The New Oregon Statesman's Valley News and Correspondents Page

COUNTY'S S. S. MEETING SOON

Convention Will Be Held March 8 and 9 at Silverton, Announced

PRATUM, Feb. 2.—(Special)—Notices of the annual county Sunday school convention, which will be held at Silverton Christian church March 8 and 9 have been mailed out by Fred deVries, president of the county organization, to almost 100 Sunday schools.

An excellent program is being prepared, copies of which will be mailed out later. The program will be similar to those of former years, with three institute periods. The theme of the first, which will be on Friday afternoon, is "Building a Lesson." On Saturday morning, the theme is "Building a Class," and Saturday afternoon "Building a Life."

Dr. J. J. Staub of Sunnyside Congregational church will preach the convention sermon Sunday morning. Other prominent speakers from various parts of the state will appear.

Hoover, Jr., Gets Job

Herbert Hoover, Jr., son of the president-elect and who will soon join the Western Air Express at Los Angeles as a radio and communication expert.

HAZEL GREEN ASKS NEW MARKET ROAD

HAZEL GREEN, Feb. 2.—(Special)—L. A. Z. 1-11 and O.V. 1-11 recently circulated a petition for a new market road from Hazel Green to the corner of the Hazel Green road, to the corner of the L. 1-11 Center road.

Mrs. B. C. Zebold undertook a major operation at the Salem general hospital Monday. She is recovering satisfactorily.

Miss Hilda St. John is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. J. St. John, at St. Mary's, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. St. John, and Mrs. Floyd Leighton were guests Sunday at the Ralph Van Cleave home.

E. Kirkpatrick of Fresno, Cal., is visiting his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dunigan, Sr., are visiting Mr. Dunigan's sister at Los Angeles. They expect to visit the Rev. F. M. Fisher at Pratum and go to Mexico before returning.

"How We Got Our Bible" is the subject of the special service at the Hazel Green church Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Louise Wampler gave a birthday party for her niece, Hazel Dunigan. The second grade pupils of the Hazel Green school were guests.

Richard Gordon Bundridge, three months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Bundridge, died Monday. The Bundridge family moved here from Brooks in October.

Mrs. Ashbaugh and children of Brooks attended church service here Sunday. Their musical contributions were well appreciated.

The farmers of this vicinity welcomed the recent snowfall as a protection to their grain. Much damage was done by the previous cold spell.

Cannery Script Acceptance as Cash Proposed

SILVERTON, Feb. 2.—(Special)—The board of directors of the Silverton Food Products company is working on a plan with the Silverton business men, who are stockholders, in the company to offer cannery script to Silverton business houses as cash.

The plan of the company is to issue script to its stockholders, who may present it as cash to Silverton business men. In turn, the business men must hold the script for a term of thirty days, at the end of which time the company will take it up in lieu of cash.

This plan will in no way interfere with the cash picking money which is forwarded to stockholders.

E. O. Nelson has been chosen by the board, to be plant superintendent.

Eases Childbirth

HUBBARD, Feb. 2.—(Special)—Dr. Oliver Kamm, chemical research director of Detroit, is the winner of a $1,000 prize from the American Association for the Advancement of Science for his work in an investigation of ductless glands. His isolation of hormones may reduce suffering incident to childbirth.

GARDEN CLUB HOLDS FIRST ANNUAL MEET

SILVERTON, Feb. 2.—(Special)—The Silverton Garden club recently held its first annual meeting in the city hall.

By request of the State Federated Garden Clubs, the election of officers will be postponed until May, at which time all clubs affiliated with the state organization will elect. By this plan the year book, published in the early summer, will be kept up to date.

It was voted by the members, that as soon as the weather permits, all regular meetings of the club shall be held in the garden of some club member. Special meetings which will consist of special speakers, will be held in the City Hall.

Three Complete H. S. Courses in First Semester

JEFFERSON, Feb. 2.—(Special)—Laura Kibs, Virginia McKee and Leonard McCaw, students of Jefferson high school, completed their high school courses at the end of the mid-winter term. Miss Kibs and Miss McKee completed the course in three and one half years. The three will graduate at the end of the school year with the rest of the class.

HOCHSTETTLERS MOVING TO SALEM, REPORTED

HUBBARD, Feb. 2.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Hochstetler have traded their property in Hubbard for Salem property, located near the Highland school, Mr. and Mrs. Hochstetler and two small sons moved away from Hubbard last September.

STATE CONVENTION OF C. E. HERE SOON

Plans for the state Christian Endeavor convention to be held in Salem April 18-21 are rapidly being formed, according to Dr. David B. Hill, local publicity chairman for the convention.

"We are expecting over 1,000 delegates," Dr. Hill reported Friday. "So this will be the first big convention for Salem this year. In addition to the young people and children who will be here as delegates, a large number of parents probably will drive here for the meetings on Sunday."

Dr. Hill reported that the chamber of commerce is lending considerable aid by sending publicity matter to officers of local Endeavor societies throughout the state. "We are stressing the fact that Salem is a city of homes, schools and churches," he reported.

Among the prominent speakers who have been engaged for the convention E. P. Gates of Boston, a national field secretary of the Christian Endeavor society. Mr. Gates was prominent in work of the society in the middle western states for several years. Several state officers of the organization will also appear on the program.

ADABI CAMP FIRE CEREMONIAL HELD

HUBBARD, Feb. 2.—(Special)—Camp Adabi Camp Fire Girls of Hubbard held a council fire Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Knight. Mrs. Beryl Blosser, guardian, presided at the ceremony.

New members welcomed into the camp were Marion Carlson, Geraldine Carlson and Mildred Ott.

Members receiving the rank of Wood Gatherer were Mary Pemble, Marjory Wolfner, Leah Kromling, Alice Menzies and Leona Hopkins.

The Fire Makers rank was conferred upon Misses Jacqueline Dick, Agatha Vogel, Anita Bevens and Gungadene Bidgood.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillon and little son, Billy Gene, accompanied by Misses Marie Sileninger, Aylil Hinchey, Lorraine Reed, Aylene Trary, and Maxine Miller, motored from Molalla to be present at the meeting. Mrs. Dillon, who organized Camp Adabi four years ago and who was their guardian during that time, is now in Molalla where she has organized Camp Wetamachick Camp Fire Girls. Mr. Dillon is principal of the grade school in Molalla.

Members present were Misses Jacqueline Dick, Gungadene Bidgood, Anita Bevens, Helen Knight, Frances Leffler, Wilma Dick, Leah Reed, Marjory Wolfner, Leah Kromling, Mary Pemble, Louise Vogel, Bessie Rector, Mildred Ott, Agatha Vogel, Geraldine Carlson, Marion Carlson, Alice Menzies, Leona Hopkins, Anna Knight, Irene Vogel, Guardian Beryl Blosser, Assistant Guardian Mrs. Ella Watson.

Refreshments were served, after which games were enjoyed.

Youth Planning To Enter Navy

SILVERTON, Feb. 2.—(Special)—Philip Richardson, who has spent the past few days at the home of his parents, left Thursday morning for Portland where he will take an entrance examination for the navy. If he passes, he will then go to San Diego. His mother, Mrs. S. E. Richardson, is with him now in Portland, and will be with him until he leaves for the south.

GLESDALE WOMAN IS VISITOR AT HUBBARD

HUBBARD, Feb. 2.—(Special)—Mrs. C. D. Trout of Glesdale is visiting her mother, Mrs. Anna Ott and her two brothers, Jake and Isaac Ott of Hubbard. Mrs. Trout made the trip to Hubbard to consult Dr. Edward Schorr but found the physician too ill to receive patients. Dr. Schorr has been confined to his home for over a month.

Hubbard Family Has Diphtheria

HUBBARD, Feb. 2.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wolfner and five children have all been ill with diphtheria. A doctor from Mt. Angel is in charge of the case. Friday, it was reported that Mr. Wolfner and one of the children were allowed to sit up.

CONTEST ON HOME PRODUCTS PLANNED

SILVERTON, Feb. 2.—(Special)—Saturday, February 9, is the date set by the Silverton Women's club as "Silverton Food Products day." Twenty-seven prizes will be offered in the baking contest, the rules being that only Silverton oatmeal, kraham, bread or pastry flour, Silverton fruits, nuts, eggs, milk, butter and lard must be used in the preparation of all entries.

To receive the grand prize of ten dollars, offered by the business men of the city, one must make entry in each division and shall have received the most prizes.

An interesting all day program has been arranged, which will be held in the Eugene Field auditorium.

The program is as follows:

- 10:00 a. m.—Dixie Biscuits, Miss Dorothy Hadley, home economics teacher.
- 10:30 a. m.—Walnuts and Filberts, J. J. Doerfler.
- 11:00 a. m.—Preparing Oven Dinner, Miss Hadley.
- 11:30 a. m.—Electricity in the Home, P. E. P. Co.
- 1:00 p. m.—A Gooseberry Pie, Miss Hadley.
- 1:20 p. m.—The Cow as a Source of Food, Theodore Hobart.
- 2:10 p. m.—Fruit and Berries in the Home Garden, Oscar Lee.
- 2:40 p. m.—Serving home economics girls.
- 3:10 p. m.—Flowers and Shrubs as a Food, Rholin Cooley.
- 3:45 p. m.—Vegetables, Mrs. Percy Brown.
- 4:00 p. m.—Miscellaneous, Miss Hadley.

All prizes offered at the exhibit are now on display in the window of Starr Hardware.

Quick Thinking Aids Woman to Avoid Bad Burn

SILVERTON, Feb. 2.—(Special)—Mrs. W. D. Shepherd of Steelhammer drive, escaped serious burns on Friday, when her apron caught fire from the open stove. She had just lit the fire, and had spilled kerosene on her apron. The flames from the stove ignited the oil.

Only Mrs. Shepherd's presence of mind, in rolling the apron and smothering the flames, saved her from what might have been a fatal accident. Mrs. Shepherd, who is nearly 70, was alone at the time of the accident.

13 ARE EXAMINED AT HEALTH CLINIC

JEFFERSON, Feb. 2.—(Special)—The health clinic was held Thursday at the home of Prof. Bennett. Thirteen children were examined by Dr. Russell, assisted by Miss McAlpine. The dental clinic was held at the schoolhouse on Tuesday, with Dr. Brunk and Miss McAlpine in charge.

Mrs. L. M. Bennett received word from Nebalem that her mother is seriously ill, and left Tuesday for that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones of Stayton, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Holt of Carlton, Mrs. Eva Jewell of Mill City and Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Allen of Albany were among out of town people who attended the funeral of William H. Holt Wednesday.

W. C. Loney went to Portland the first of the week to put in a bid before the highway commission for construction work on the roads, but he was under-bid on a figure that he thought was as low as anyone could make wages on.

Harry Jones attended a concert given by the Williams Jubilee singers at Salem on Monday night.

The postoffice is undergoing some interior improvements, in that it has been newly papered this week.

Former Resident of Hubbard is Visitor

HUBBARD, Feb. 2.—(Special)—Mrs. P. A. Pook, a former resident of Hubbard, but now living in Coquille, stopped to visit with friends in Hubbard Thursday. Mrs. Pook was on her way to Portland to visit her mother, Mrs. Alice McKenzie, who is ill. As soon as her mother is able, Mrs. Pook expects to take her to Grants Pass.

Gets Swift Trial

Although but a brief time has elapsed since David J. Pugh, of Ogden, Utah, confessed to taking $104,000 from the state treasurer's office, he now is a waiter in the state penitentiary. Pugh, who was chief deputy state treasurer, claims to have bet the money on horse races.

Mayor Puts Ban On Pulling Sled By Automobile

Because of the many persons who have been injured on sleds attached to autos during the past week, Mayor W. H. Broyles issued a regulation Thursday prohibiting this form of recreation. Miss Rita Kistner suffered a broken shoulder when thrown off a sled, and several others have been injured, necessitating such action.

Choir Planning Easter Cantata

SILVERTON, Feb. 2.—(Special)—The Trinity Lutheran choir met on Wednesday night, to formulate plans for an elaborate Easter cantata. Rehearsals have already begun, and solo parts will be given out soon.

25 Year Jewels Are Presented Lodge Veterans

HUBBARD, Feb. 2.—(Special)—At a regular meeting of the Arion temple, Knights of Pythias lodge, Walter Gleason, grand keeper of records and seals, of Portland presented jewels to Hardy Dimick, Dave Hovenden, Henry Scholl and Arnold Christian, members of the Hubbard lodge. The jewel represents a membership of 25 years in the lodge, and other visitors were expected but owing to the weather conditions they could not be present.

Extraordinary Values at BUSTER BROWN SHOE STORE

2 for 1 SHOE SALE

All Women's Pumps and Oxfords to Clear out at 2 Pairs for exactly the Price of 1 Pair. A genuine Bargain giving event. Bigger and Better than ever.

Early Shoppers Were Amazed at the Beautiful Styles and Wonderful Bargains

For early week shoppers. A continuance of the 2 for 1 Sale, the Bargain Event of the Season.

- Dress Pumps
- Street Pumps
- Street Oxfords
- Street Pumps
- Evening Slippers

Every Line on SALE

2 pairs for the price of 1 pair

- Silver
- Suedes
- Velvets
- Satins

Bargain Time at BUSTER BROWN