brilliant Tea Is Thursday Club Affair

Mrs. C. P. Bishop, gracious and charming hostess, opened her home to the Thursday club, one of Salem's oldest and most exclusive clubs, Thursday afternoon at which time the club entertained with a brilliant tea, inviting as its guests the wives of elective state officers, and the wives of the heads of state institutions. Some one hundred guests were received during the afternoon tea hours between three and five, by Mrs. E. C. Cross, president of the club, Mrs. I. L. Patterson, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, secretary of the club, and the hostess, Mrs. C. P. Bishop.

The receiving rooms were darkened and lighted candles worked the magic of soft lights and shadows about the rooms where a wealth of pink carnations were arranged. In the dining room red candles, valentine motifs and red carnations made beautiful the serving table where Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. John H. Albert, Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, and Mrs. Charles Park presided. Assisting with serving were Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. Breyman Bolse, and Mrs. Frederick Deckerbach, Sr.

Miss Josephine Albert won ovations of praise for the beautiful interpretations of a group of four old fashioned songs which she gave in character dress. Mrs. Richard H. Robinson sang a group of two songs in her usual delightful manner.

One of the surprises of the afternoon was the arrival of Mrs. Walter Pierce (Cornelia Marvlin), the unusual happy informality of one of the most delightful affairs of the Salem winter season.

Members of the Thursday club are Mrs. J. H. Albert, Mrs. H. J. Bean, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. Marcia Cusick, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Mrs. Sally Dyer, Mrs. Alice Dodd, Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. W. F. McCall, Mrs. A. N. Moores, Mrs. George Pearce, Mrs. C. A. Park, Mrs. George M. Brown, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. H. B. Thielson, Mrs. M. N. Chapman, Mrs. Frank Snedeker, Mrs. R. F. Bolse, Mrs. F. W. Spencer, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. B. C. Miles, Mrs. William Kirk, Mrs. A. N. Bush, and Mrs. William Fleming.

Minnesota Club Plans Summer Meeting

The Minnesota club which met for its mid-winter affair Tuesday evening at the First Presbyterian church planned to hold a similar summer meeting in order that the some 200 members who once lived in Minnesota may get together and renew old acquaintances.

At this meeting there was also a letter sent to the president of the club, Prof. J. O. Hall, III from the effects of a serious fall, in which greetings and wishes for a speedy recovery were expressed. Music by Turney's orchestra, group singing led by T. S. McKenzie, violin solo, Ruth Lowe, and the Minnesota state song sung by Mrs. W. J. Linfoot made up the musical program, and readings by J. Burton Carary and Joseph Benner closed the program for the evening.

Surprise Luncheon For Mrs. Fairbanks

A surprise luncheon was held in honor of Mrs. Grace Fairbank of Portland, at the Gray Belle Thursday noon. Mrs. Fairbank, who is secretary for Senator M. R. Kieffer, has attended every session of legislature since 1915 inclusive.

The occasion for the surprise was her crystal wedding anniversary. Members of legislature presented her with a bouquet of pink carnations.

Others attending were: Elizabeth J. Glatz, Ann M. Sherlock, Bertha Kalbus, Mary Ryzozynski, Zylphia Burns, Frances Plummer, Nelle D. Cox, Gladys Renn, Jean Belle, Mary Hays, Frances Whitehead Blakely, Vera I. Barrick and Reatha Haagma.

Luncheon for Council of Church Women

A luncheon will be the noon feature of the World Day of Prayer, which is to be observed by the Salem Council of Church Women Friday at the First Methodist church.

Mrs. Fred Erickson will preside during the luncheon for which extensive plans have been made by various committees. Mrs. B. Blachford, chairman, Mrs. H. H. Vandervort, Mrs. A. M. Lausch, and Mrs. Waterman have served on the menu committee; Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Kettle, Mrs. Emmons, Mrs. Lisie, and Mrs. Savage make up the table committee; serving on the reception committee are Mrs. Wampler, chairman, Mrs. Oling, Mrs. Millard, Miss Helen Litchfield, and Mrs. A. A. Lee. Mrs. Lee has also served as general chairman of the arrangements for the First Methodist church in preparing for this observance.

Those serving during the luncheon hour will be Mrs. Waterman, Mrs. W. S. Young, Mrs. Huesman, Mrs. Estes, Mrs. Peck, Mrs. Lavendar, Mrs. B. Blachford, Mrs. B. E. Carrier, Mrs. Lausch, Mrs. Poole, Mrs. J. H. Baker, and Mrs. John Robins.

The returns from this luncheon will go toward the local Japanese fund of the church.

Special music will form part of the program throughout the day, an election of officers will be held at the business session in the morning and special addresses will be delivered at both the morning and afternoon programs.

Pretty Valentine Party Entertains Young Set

Mrs. Ballie Savage entertained at a Valentine party for her daughter Anita in her home on North Capitol street Wednesday afternoon.

The Valentine motif was carried out in the decorations, favors and refreshments. Games provided the center of interest for the afternoon.

Russell and their husbands from McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spence, Mr. and Mrs. Kelton Perry, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Toney, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ross, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bland, Mr. and Mrs. Tom White, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Abraham, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller, Dr. and Mrs. Joe Tamielis and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Weaver.

Mrs. Petteys Hostess At Bridge Affair

Mrs. M. C. Petteys entertained for a group of friends with an evening Valentine bridge party at her home on the Wallace road Thursday. Six tables of bridge were arranged for the pleasure of the guests.

Red carnations and red tapers were attractively arranged about the rooms to carry out the Valentine motif.

County Federation Of Clubs To Meet

Mrs. Corrydon Blodgett, president of the federation of Rural Women's clubs of Polk county, announces a county meeting to be held at Rickreall February 23. A 12:30 luncheon will be served with a business and social program following during the afternoon.

This organization includes 14 clubs of Polk county having grown from 7, the original number which began the federation a year ago. Two winter conferences are held and a picnic in the summer. Projects are planned and carried out by the organization. One of the most popular of these projects was that which resulted in the Home-makers conference last November. Similar projects are being planned for this year.

Members of this federation are Brush College Helpers, Zena Missionary Society, Rickreall Ladies' Aid, Oak Point Community service club, Oak Grove Ladies Aid, Sweet Briar club, Book and Thimble club, F. D. Live Wines, Buena Vista club, Valley View Woman's club, Community club of Dallas, Bridge Port Silver Thimble club, Oak Dale Community Service club and Valley View club.

Mrs. Herschel Wait of Rickreall is vice-president of the Federation.
