

The Day's News in Pictures

FIRST PHOTO TAKEN of powerful anti-aircraft guns in turrets of United States aircraft carriers Lexington and Saratoga. View shows guns which are capable of hurling missiles straight up into the air for four miles, higher than any bombing plane would fly, navy men say.

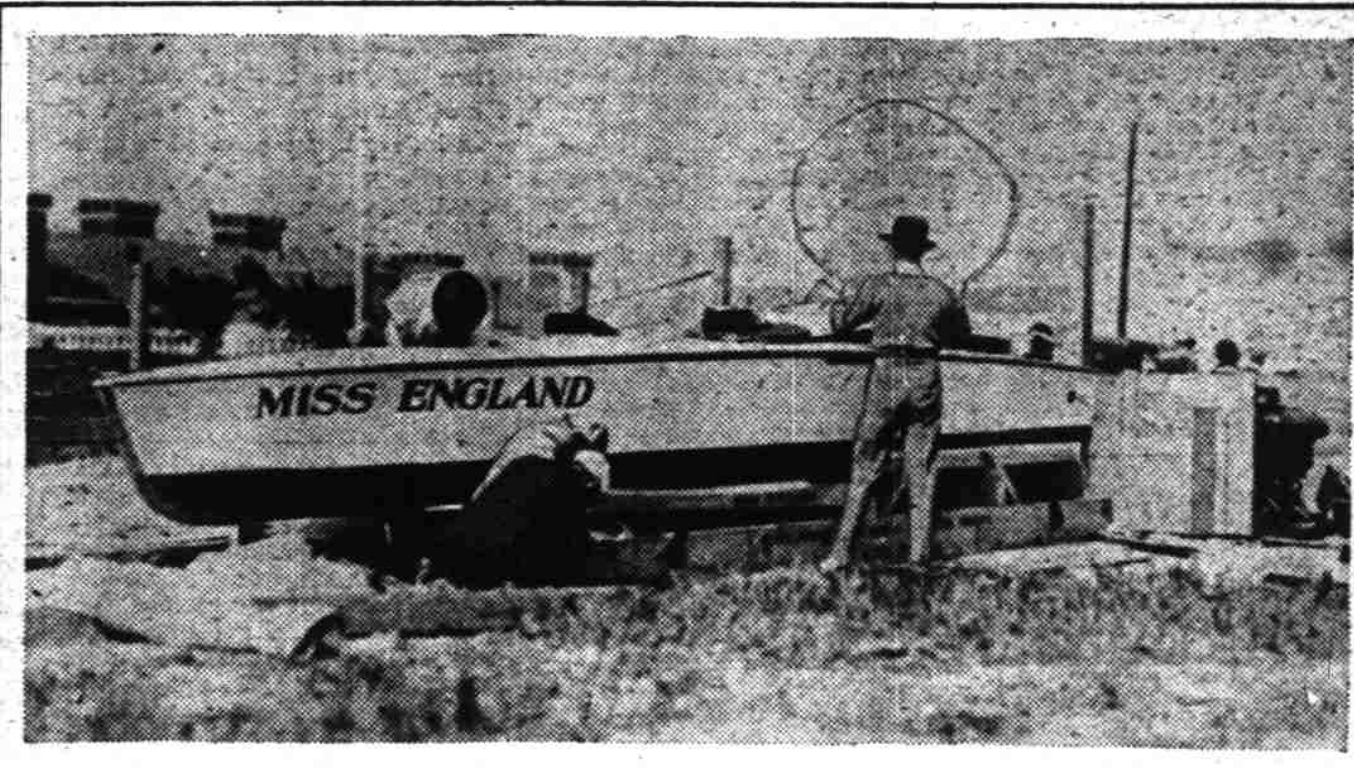

MAJOR JOHN COOLIDGE and bride-to-be, Miss Florence Trumbull, daughter of Governor John H. Trumbull of Connecticut, snapped at military ball and dinner in Bridgeport, Conn.

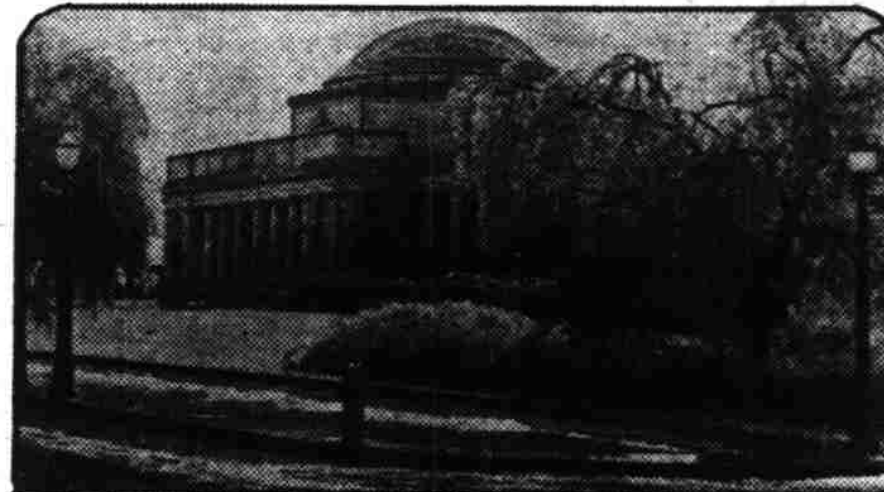

SENATOR ROBERT M. LA FOLLETTE of Wisconsin finds relaxation from his labors in Washington by a winter visit to Miami Beach, Fla.

JAILED BECAUSE HE VIOLATED the letter of the law by having in possession a revolver he had wrested from a bandit attempting to hold him up, Oliver Deardorff, New York taxi driver, shown above with two children, William and Oliver, Jr., has been freed through the efforts of Malcolm Lovell, Jr., eight-year-old son of a banker, who read of the plight of Deardorff's destitute family and urged his father to go bail for the taxi driver. Deardorff could find no one to give the gun to.

AFTER A NEW RECORD for speed on water, Major H. O. D. Segrave, English racing enthusiast and one-time holder of a world speed record, is shown at work on his boat, Miss England, which he plans to race over the Halifax river course at Daytona Beach, Fla.

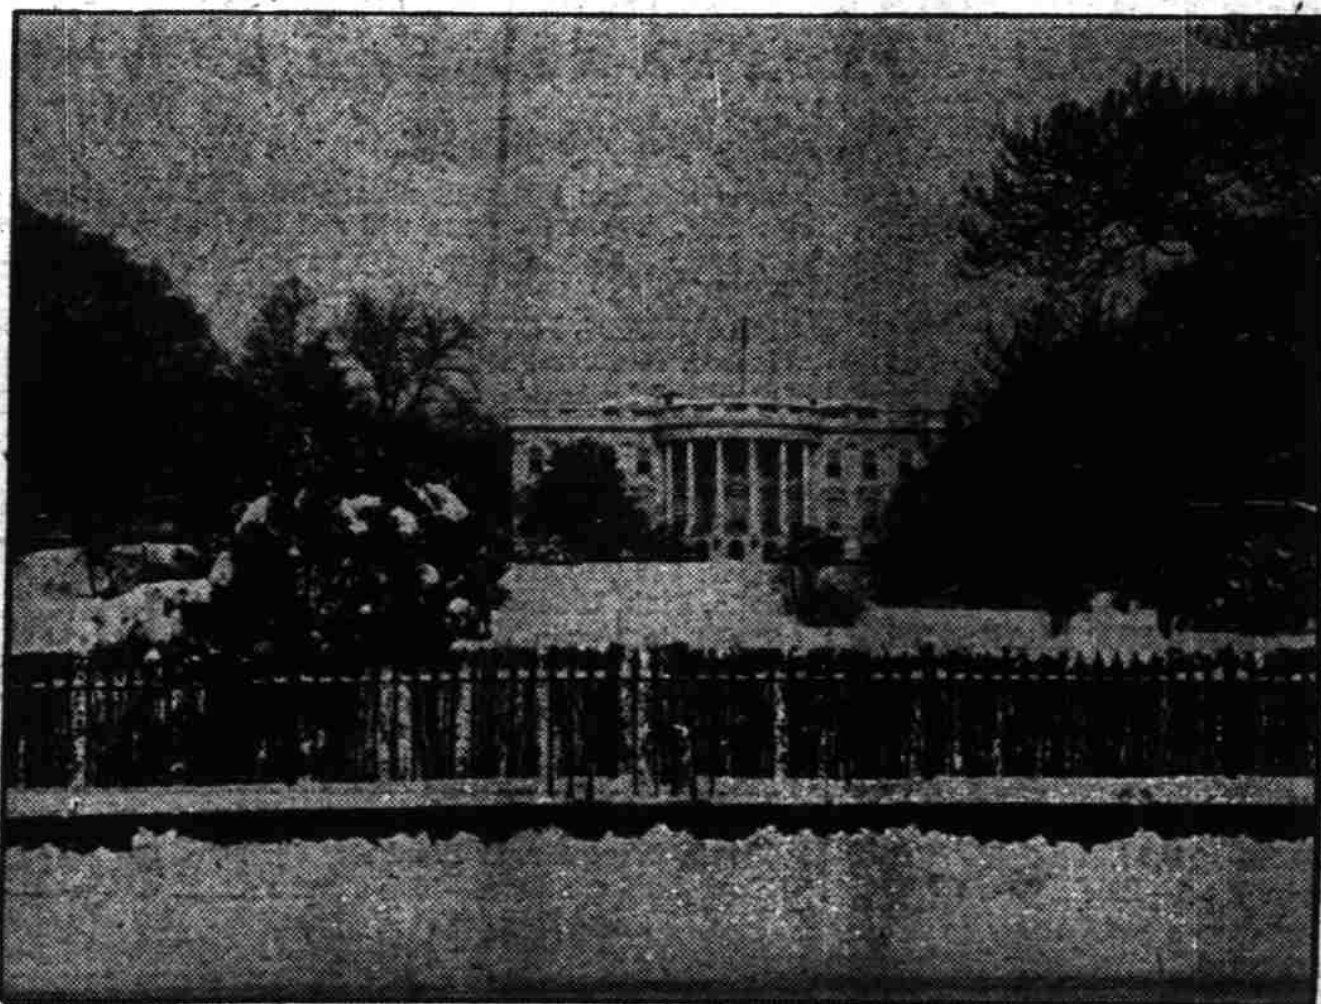

ICY WINTER EMBRACES sunny Virginia and its capital city, as these pictures, taken in Richmond, show. Above, the snow-clad capitol is seen, while below Richmond gets busy clearing streets of snow.

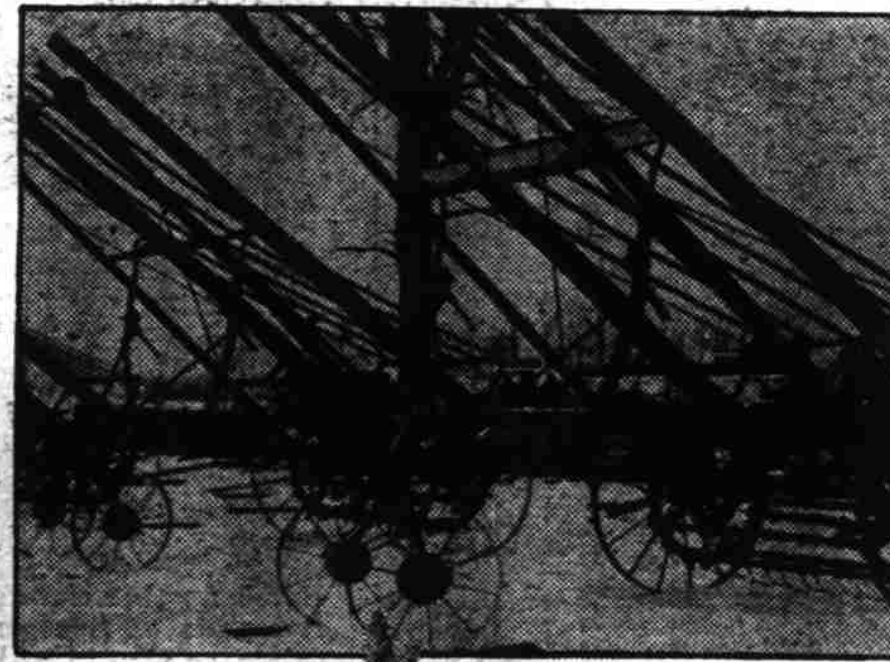

WINNING A STRANGE RACE, Miss Joyzelle Joynier is shown in a pool near Los Angeles, Cal., at the finish of a contest which began on toboggans and snowshoes in snow-swept Los Angeles county park and ended in a semitropical pool at Arrowhead Hot Springs.

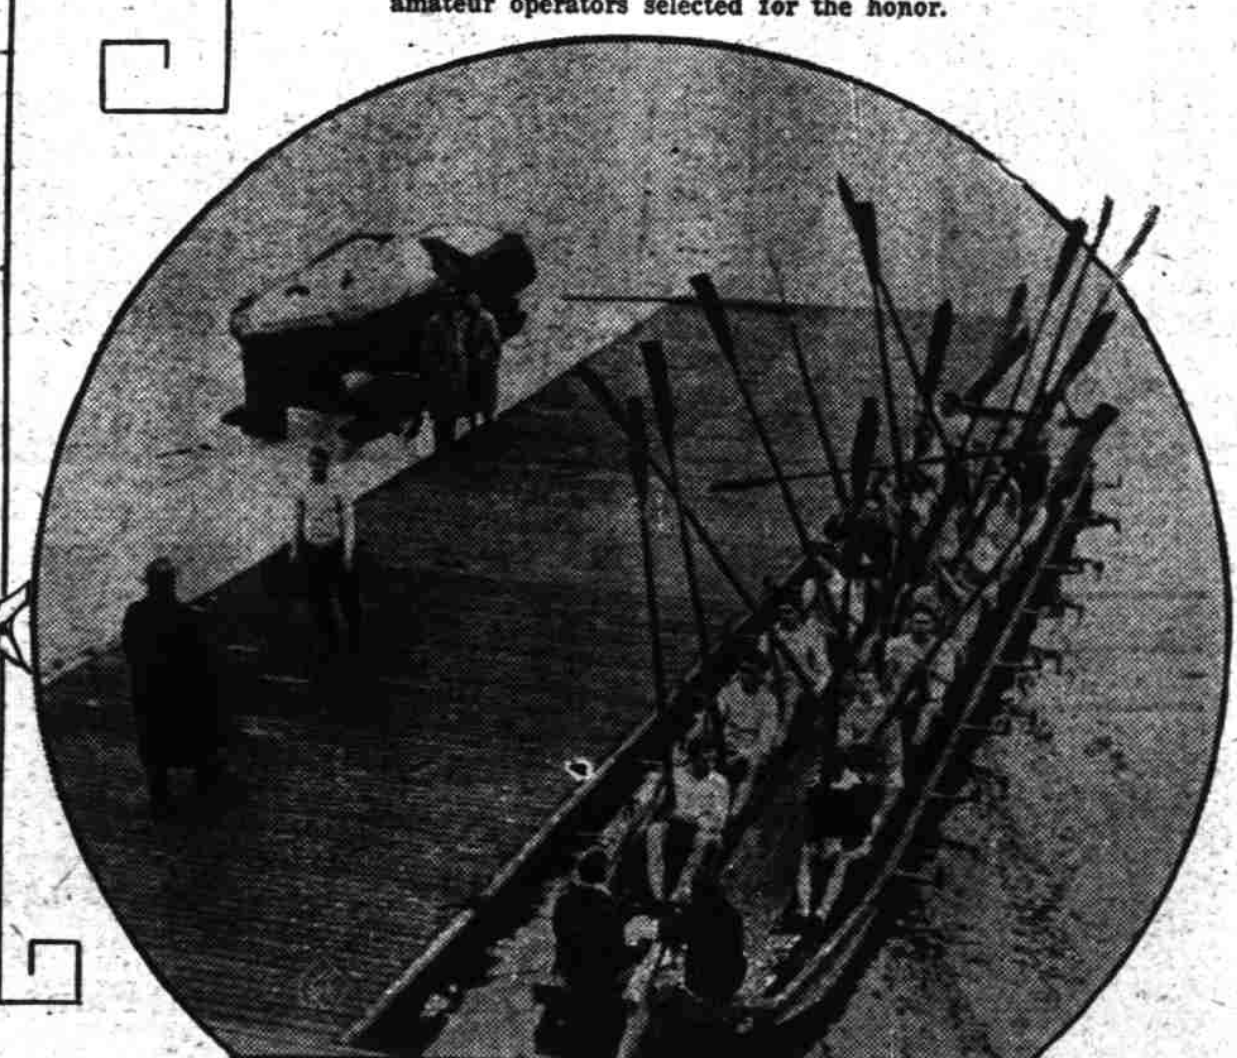

WITH HER OWN LITTLE STATION, Miss Elizabeth Zandonini, Washington, amateur radio operator and owner of Station W3CDQ, has been designated to receive congratulatory messages from the 48 state governors to President Hoover on inauguration day. She is the only woman among the seven amateur operators selected for the honor.

CLAD IN A SOFT WHITE GOWN, winter's gift to Washington, the south grounds and portico of the White House bear witness to the capital's most severe snow storm of the season.

HENRY FORD RETIRES—but only as a farmer. View above shows some of the farm implements used in his various agrarian enterprises and now disposed of by the auto manufacturer in an auction at Detroit, Mich. Below is a scene of the auction.

SNOW OR NO SNOW, University of Pennsylvania varsity crews must have practice, so here are the oarsmen starting out for their first workout on wind-swept, ice-chilled Schuylkill river in Philadelphia, Pa.