

PIONEER PUPILS STAGE PROGRAM

Miss Eleanor Stagjr Brings Latent Talents Out In Children's Work

PIONEER, Feb. 28.—(Special)—Pupils of the Manning school district No. 13 under the direction of their teacher, Miss Eleanor Stagjr showed talent and ability in the program given at the school Thursday evening, February 21.

Little Nina Fuller did splendid work in a short dramatization of Lincoln's chance to earn the book, "Wash's Life of Washington." Lawrence Eder took the part of Lincoln and Willard Aker, the neighbor who had loaned the book to Abe.

Short Play Given
The short play, "Our Country's Flag," dramatized Washington and his officers choosing the stars and stripes for the new flag. Dale Fuller made a splendid George Washington and Edith Miles, a charming Betsy Ross.

The dialogue, "A Slight Misunderstanding," given by Ruth Fuller and Percy Fuller, was greeted with much amusement by the audience. Two recitations, "Pockets" by Willard Aker and "Faw Down and Go Boom," by Rex Fuller, provoked considerable mirth.

The duet by Misses Martha and Elva Pokorny of Woodburn were enthusiastically received by those present and they responded with an encore.

Besides the short plays there were recitations by Eugene Miles, Edwin Miles, Dale Fuller, Lawrence Eder, Nina Fuller, Roy Aker, Claud Miles, Jeannette Evans, Rex Fuller, and Willard Aker. The primary class gave a drill and later a health song. The program was opened by the reading of two compositions on the lives of Lincoln and Washington which were read by Roy Aker and Clarence Eder.

Following the program baskets were auctioned to the highest bidder by Eugene Manning.

Scholl Home is Made Happy as Daughters Visit

HUBBARD, Feb. 28.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Scholl was the scene of a happy re-union Saturday when their two daughters, Vesta and Velma, came home for the week end. Vesta returned to Hood River Sunday afternoon to resume her work as physical director in the Hood River high school and Miss Velma returned to Portland where she is employed as assistant export manager for the Jantzen knitting mills.

PIONEER, 90, IS CALLED TO REST

Mrs. Sarah Hovenden Born in Tasmania; Married Aurora Pioneer

HUBBARD, March 1.—Burial services were held in the Hubbard cemetery Monday afternoon for Mrs. Sarah Hovenden, a Hubbard pioneer, whose funeral was conducted at the Pearson Funeral parlors, Portland at 10:30 o'clock. She was buried beside her husband who died 43 years ago. Many beautiful bouquets of flowers covered both graves.

Mrs. Hovenden, who would have been 90 years old March 1, died at Emanuel hospital Portland, Friday night. She was born in Tasmania, her parents Mr. and Mrs. Souden being immigrants from Ireland. Later she came to the western coast of the United States with her parents by way of the Hawaiian Islands, the trip taking three years. The family settled near Aurora, Oregon, at which place she was married to Alfred Hovenden, who had crossed the Atlantic ocean from Kent county, England in 1849.

Mrs. Hovenden is survived by three children: Mrs. M. L. Jones,

PRATUM WILL DO LITTLE RE-SEEDING

PRATUM, Feb. 28.—Although considerable damage has been done to crops by the recent cold weather little re-seeding will be done, because most of the farmers prefer to have a thin stand of fall grain than to chance spring sowing. The ground is in fine shape now for planting trees. Some cherry and walnut stock is being set out. This community has been especially favored with two men who spoke at the Mennonite church last week. Missionary Braun who had been in China for 19 years and returned by way of India and the Holy Land. He closed a series of lectures on China and Palestine and this week Evangelist J. C. Kaufman from Kansas preached here Monday evening.
