Elaborate Plans For Bridge Tea

The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church will present an elaborate and beautifully planned benefit bridge-tee at the Elks club Saturday afternoon. The inspiration for the benefit is the Salem general hospital—such being the case, anyone attending the bridge-tee, will be doing a good turn to himself for the hospital is the public's benefit, and what does it good, does good to the public.

The tea is to be especially pretty. The dining room of the Elks club will be decked, candles in pastel shades will give out their soft complimentary light, and spring flowers will complete the waiting atmosphere of a well appointed room. To add to the attractiveness well selected music will be presented all during the hours. The American Legion quartet, Mrs. Mildred Wyatt, Mrs. Bernice Bowe, Mrs. Marie Robinson, and Mrs. Grace Zosel, will sing, accompanied by Lucile Cummins. This quartet appears under the direction of Miss Lena Belle Tarrance. There will also be stringed quartet which will appear during the afternoon.

Approximately 80 tables have been reserved for bridge. Many clubs are reserving groups of tables. It is hoped that the original plan of 100 tables may be carried out before Saturday. Additional tables which have been reserved since the last report are Mrs. Edward Bostein, Mrs. Sally Dyer, Mrs. E. M. Paxe, Mrs. Herbert Stiff, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. P. W. Golder, Mrs. E. C. Goodwin, Mrs. J. F. Heathfield, Mrs. Roma Hunter, Mrs. Blanche Jones, Mrs. L. O. Smith, Mrs. Frank Tibbon, Mrs. J. A. Jeldirka, Mrs. E. H. Kollenborn, Mrs. G. L. Forze, Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. Amelia Riley, Mrs. J. E. Hathaway, Mrs. T. A. Rafferty, Mrs. A. E. Wallace, Mrs. Fred Steusloff, Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. Frank Durbin, Sr., Miss Charlotte Orr, Mrs. F. L. Cheshire, and the L'Heur Gale club.

The plans of the Alliance have been entered into with zest from the townfolk, which fact has added one great factor toward success of the affair. The funds received from the benefit will be turned over to the hospital fund to be used either for furnishing a room or for other equipment needed just as badly.

CHOOSING PROM DANCE FROCK

A reputation for distinction in clothes begins with youth, declares Lejzen Lejzen. In choosing her frock for the prom dance, the girl is inclined to select what she loves, but in the art of dressing love and reason must be equal. The young girl should have knowledge of her type. Only a few can wear the bouffant type frock with the straight-around waist and hemline. More personal and beautiful is the robe de style with irregularity at these two important points of the silhouette. Above all, a dance dress should be so designed as to be beautiful in motion.
