Making City Beautiful is Topic at Much Enjoyed Monmouth P. T. A. Meet

BEULAH H. CRAVEN, MONMOUTH, Mar. 8.—(Special)—One of the most pleasant, profitable meetings of the year was enjoyed by the Parent-Teacher association in the auditorium of the training school, Tuesday evening, March 5. A number of members of the Independence P. T. A. were guests of the local association. Numerous other friends came to hear the principal speaker of the evening, R. W. Gill of Portland, who stressed the fact that beautiful flowers and well kept lawns are the most conspicuous advertisements of any city.

Mr. Gill began his informative address with definite details on organic and mineral fertilizers. He warned the ambitious amateur about working ground while it is too wet. He touched on annuals and perennials, making an especial plea for the former; and gave concise formulae on lawn grass, and lawn upkeep. Dahlias were another point of interest, and during this discussion Mr. Gill proffered a gift of 50 bulbs of the various dahlia varieties to the Monmouth training school for the informal flower gardens which Miss Cora Turnidge, principal, had mentioned earlier in the evening in a brief outline of what the school will attempt in this year's planting.

Program Interesting

A number by the training school orchestra, directed by Mrs. Florence Hutchison; and an interesting paper by Mrs. J. S. Landers on helping the child to fit into the civic theme, preceded Mr. Gill's appearance on the program.

Miss Turnidge stated that trees had been donated by the following individuals and groups to be planted:
