

Exceptional Program Is Given by Zena Community Club

ENTERTAINERS IN TWO GROUPS

Salem and Independence Musical Organizations Present Attractions

ZENA, Mar. 18.—(Special)—The Zena Community club held a meeting of unusual interest Friday, March 15, at the Zena school house. The program was in two sections, the first part being in charge of the Rev. H. G. Stover of the Knight Memorial church of Salem, who made an apology for the cast of the play, "Dutch Deeds," who are all students at the Willamette university and were unable to come to Zena and put on the play as planned because of studies. Mr. Stover was assisted by Miss Myra Gleason, Lawrence Deacon and Donald Allison, pianist.

The first number on their program was a vocal selection, "Love Came Calling" by the trio: Rev. Stover, tenor; Lawrence Deacon, baritone, and Miss Gleason, alto. As an encore Miss Gleason sang "Little Green Lane Goes Windy."

As a fitting finale for their splendid musical program the trio sang "Whispering Hope" and after hearty applause responded with "Love's Old Sweet Song." Mr. Stover, upon being requested by Ralph Scott, president of the club, gave a talk on "Community Spirit," saying in part, that although community spirit may exist in any community it does not necessarily mean that every one should think alike. Progress lies in the fact that all do not think on the same lines. He illustrated his point by quoting from a Salem paper of March 15 which told of grocery stores combining buying power in a community spirit in closing his remarks he told of one small town in which he had lived where the people joined two old church buildings together and eleven denominations were represented in this federated church.

At the conclusion of his remarks the "Monde quartet" of Independence, under the able direction of the Rev. E. G. Ranton, gave the second part of the program.

Vocal number, "Goin' to Shout An' Over God's House," by the quartet, Rev. Ranton and Rev. Willard, first and second tenor, and Mr. Kelly and Mr. Anderson, first and second bass. As an encore they sang, "Carry Me To Old Virginia." Mrs. Anderson was the accompanist.

The next number proved to be interesting to young and old alike. Mr. Ranton played "Old Kentucky Home" on a musical instrument made of a common broom and a cigar box combined and for variety played, "Home, Sweet Home," on a hand saw, the melody running from a high note to become almost inaudible. The versatile player next gave two selections on a harmonica, without touching the instrument with his hands. He also played, "Still My Darling You Shall Be," with variations on another harmonica of different key. Mr. Anderson favored with a bass solo, "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep." Mr. Ranton and the Rev. Willard favorably impressed the assembly with a duet, "Come Unto Me and Rest."

The Monde quartet gave, "The Wayside Cross" and encore, "Night is Drawing Nigh," closing number. Rev. Ranton then played Beethoven's "Minuet in G" with original variations on the violin. He next demonstrated his ability to play the violin in any position by placing it behind his back, on his shoulder, upside down and also with the bow held between his knees.

He then requested Ralph H. Scott to come forward and play the violin and told him to just move the bow across the strings in any motion and he would find the strings. The music which resulted from this unique playing was highly satisfactory, bringing round after round of applause.

Mr. Scott heartily thanked those who put on the splendid program. A cafeteria lunch was served in the basement at a nominal charge. Mrs. L. F. Matthews, Mrs. W. W. Henry and Mrs. Wayne D. Henry were in charge.

The program committee included W. W. Henry, Walter B. Hunt, and W. N. Crawford. At the short business meeting which preceded the program Mr. Scott appointed as program committee for April 19, Ralph C. Shepard, J. S. Hiatt, and Byron Purvine, and as refreshments committee, Mrs. Guy H. Taylor, Mrs. Albert Denham and Mrs. Jesse Worthington.

This time.... World's endurance record for women

"Louise Thaden stays up twenty-two hours, three minutes, twelve seconds—using only one hundred sixty-two gallons of Associated gasoline and four and one-half gallons of Cylol Aero oil!"

It was in January that Louise McPhetridge Thaden, using Associated Aviation Gasoline and Cylol Aero Oil, set a women's world altitude record—soaring nearly 5 miles above Oakland Airport in her model A Hisso Travelair biplane.

Again this daring aviatrix has established a new record for women. She successfully maneuvered her ship in this thrilling attempt to remain in the air long after all previous women's world endurance records had been shattered. As in the January flight, Mrs. Thaden placed her reliance in Associated Aviation Gasoline and Cylol Aero Oil. The tired but happy girl stated after her record feat—

"Your products performed perfectly and I was sure of them every minute I was up. You can rightfully claim 'More Miles to the Gallon' for your gasoline and 'Endurance Beyond Belief' for Cylol motor oil."

Aviators and motorists everywhere endorse these "Sustained Quality" products.
