

Joe Adolph President of Senators Club This Season

MUCH SUPPORT TO BE NEEDED

Big Event Planned for Opening Day, April 14, With Montavilla Here

Officers of the Salem Senators baseball club were elected Monday night as follows:

President, Joe Adolph; vice president, Dr. E. H. Hobson; secretary-treasurer, G. H. Brophy; directors, Bill Phillips, Fred Collins, Carl Armpriest, Frank Nelson and William Busick.

Plans for a financial campaign were discussed, and will be put into effect within a few days. Manager Leo "Frisco" Edwards reported that other clubs in the Oregon-Washington league, notably Longview, are planning substantial support, and that Salem must follow suit if it is to have a contending team.

Indications are that Longview will outbid Coover for the services of Johnny Coover, left handed pitcher who was considering signing up here; but Edwards has in view another heavier of equal or greater ability.

Opening Game Here

The schedule will not be announced until next Sunday, but it is known that Salem's first three games will be at home. The opener will be against Montavilla.

For this game, the local club officers are planning a big opening day program, and indications are that there will be a larger crowd present than has ever attended a baseball game in Salem. In past years, Montavilla has always drawn bigger crowds than any other semi-pro team, even when its games here were not league games.

The opening was set forward a week and will be on April 14. The season will last 20 weeks with all teams starting again at "scratch" at the end of ten weeks.

Manager Edwards has issued a call for the first practice to be held next Sunday.

SALEM MARKSMEN GET HIGH PRIZES

Two Salem sharpshooters were among the leading prize winners in the Hy Everding shoot at Portland Sunday, Carl Bahrburg winning second award in class A, the Simpson trophy, and Clarence Bowne fourth prize in class B, the J. L. Stafford trophy.

Salem marksmen entered in this event and their scores were: R. Shelton, 34-48; C. Van Patten, 38-46; Bahrburg, 44; Wohlgenant, 39-45; Gouley, 37-35; Bowne, 35-45; Prime, 35-42; Palmer, 34-43; Farris, 36-45; Welch, 39-46; Ed Viesko, 37; Eldridge, 39-46.

In the telegraphic shoot, Salem with a score of 7 won from Clatsop (Athens) 69, tied Roseburg (74) and lost to Bend (75). Scores turned in by the local club were those of George Viesko, 25; Cuyler Van Patten 25; and Carl Bahrburg 24. Others making 24 scores were Tom Wolgast and Clarence Bowne.

Other scores in the telegraphic were:

Ball 22, Curry 23, H. DeSart 23, D. DeSart 20, Evans 22, Eldridge 20, Farris 22, Gouley 14, Brown 14, George 21, Haberman 20, Lohm 14, McKay 22, Prime 23, Palmer 23, Patterson 21, Parker 22, Ringwald 19, Race 16, R. Shelton 23, Welch 22, Wieder 10, Wain 21, Ellason 19.

SORDS POINTS . . . . . By Jack Sords

Bob Fothergill In a Heavy Battle for Outfield Position

FOR some time Bob Fothergill, over-stuffed outfielder of the Detroit Tigers, has had things more or less his own way. At least he wasn't worried that some young upstart was going to come along and take away his job.

The Tiger bosses were well satisfied with their gardeners and concentrated most of their attention to bettering the inner works.

But this year, with the coming of four or five young hopefuls, among them being a $75,000 "beauty" by the name of Roy Johnson, big Bob must look to his laurels. He always was a hard hitter, but 220 pounds cannot pick up much speed on a hard hit liner.

In addition to Johnson, Detroit has Johnny Stone, Art Eubie, Charley Wade and Bob Peirie as rookies, aspiring to a big league outfield berth.

Stone joined the club last September and demonstrated, when put in the lineup, that he is thoroughly capable in all departments of the game. In the 26 games he played with the Tigers he batted .364.

Ruble is an outfielder from Seattle with a .328 batting average. He was with the Tigers in 1927 but was optioned to the coast league team.

Wade is another hard hitter who averaged .347 with Evansville in 1928.

But whatever the odds, Fothergill isn't destined to the bench yet. He is a fighter and loves to play. And above all he can hit.

GRADE SCHOOLS PLAN BALL SKED

Youthful Moundsmen in This County Preparing for Hard Season

Schedule for the Marion county grade baseball league was prepared Monday by W. W. Fox, director of the grade division of the county league and includes 14 schools, eight each from the northern and southern section of the county.

First games will be played April 12, as follows: Northern section—Aurora vs. Hubbard; Woodburn vs. Mt. Angel; Butteville vs. Brooks; and Buena Crest vs. Keiser. Southern section—Central Howell vs. Hayesville; Pringle vs. Amusville; Mill City vs. Stayton; West Stayton vs. Jefferson.

Games will be played a week apart, the second series to be April 19, as follows: Aurora or Hubbard vs. Woodburn or Mt. Angel; Butteville or Brooks vs. Buena Crest or Keiser; Central Howell or Hayesville vs. Pringle or Amusville; Mill City or Stayton vs. West Stayton or Jefferson.

The championship game between the winners of the two sections will be played at a date to be announced later. Anderson's sporting goods store of Salem offered a large silver cup for the champions.

The following rules for the county league have been sent out with the schedule:

1. The place and hour of playing scheduled games shall be determined by the principals of the schools competing.
2. The principals shall also select and agree upon the referee and umpire.
3. The result of each game shall be forwarded to Mr. Fox within 24 hours after the game.
4. Only games played according to the above schedule shall count toward championship.
5. Postponed games shall be played before the following Wednesday.
6. Players shall be under 18 years of age and shall have been in attendance 85 per cent of the current season.
7. A period of serious illness shall not be considered when considering this qualification.
7. Official 1929 baseball rules shall govern all games played in accordance with the above schedule.
8. The official Goldsmith baseball has been adopted for the league.

Lloyd Waner Accepts All Terms of Year's Contract

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 18.—(AP)—The most noted holdout case of the national league this season, involving Paul and Lloyd Waner, brothers and star outfielders of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was partly ironed out today with the announcement that Lloyd had accepted terms. At the same time it gave rise to reports that Paul, older of the two Ada, Oklahoma boys, also would soon be in the fold.

Barney Dreyfus, president of the Pirates, in his brief statement that "Lloyd Waner has accepted terms and is on his way to join the club here," declared emphatically, however, that he "had not heard from Paul in four weeks."

ANAHEIM, Calif., Mar. 18.—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers, led by their new pilot, Stanley "Bucky" Harris, will come here tomorrow for a spring exhibition game with the Portland Beavers of the Pacific coast league. Manager Harry Lins, on route with his club for Los Angeles for a five game series with the Chicago Cubs, starting Wednesday, will bring his full strength here. It is probable that Earl Whitehill will pitch for the Tigers.

STATESMAN DERBY FINALS THIS WEEK

The final week of the Statesman bowling derby at the Winter Garden is on, with the following men surviving. The figures are their scores in the semi-final round:

Woodruff 1550, Aiken 1948, Lyons 1892, Allen 1873, Martin 1872, Brown 1843, McKinney 1827, Muller 1804.

These players must all bowl four games prior to 7 o'clock Saturday night, and then will bowl five games that night.

Frank Loose's Flying Clouds, bowling a practice series preparatory to the northwest tournament Monday night, ran up a score of 2918.

The Capitol theatre pair in the Ladies' league won three straight games Monday night from Central Pharmacy, and Hartman's won three from the Winter Garden.

In the City league, Capital City Bedding company won three games straight from the Man's Shop. The other matches were postponed.

Scores were:

Mandell and Miller Fight For Dempsey

NEW YORK, Mar. 18.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey, the promoter, announced tonight he had persuaded Sammy Mandell, the "Rockford Shiek," to defend his lightweight championship against Ray Miller, the Chicago left hook artist, "some time in June." The fight, Dempsey said, probably would be held either in Detroit or New York.

Lawrence N. Blowers of Eugene, in a letter received in Salem Monday, indicated that he would be an independent candidate for governor in 1930. Mr. Blowers formerly served in the state legislature as a representative from Hood River county. He recently located in Lane county.

Mr. Blowers is interested in the development of the upper Willamette river between Salem and Springfield. He received a letter recently from Senator McNary indicating that the river between Salem and Springfield would be included in the development program to be submitted to congress at its next regular session.

Preliminary surveys of the river by army engineers will be necessary before the proposed improvement between Salem and Springfield can be included in the rivers and harbors bill.

BLOWERS LISTS SELF AS GOVERNOR TIMBER

PARIS, Mar. 18.—(AP)—Marshal Ferdinand Foch tonight was at another crisis in his long and apparently illness. His physicians, in leaving him for a while this evening, said that he had had no actual new attack, but that it was a case merely of a gradual slow sinking and weakening of his heart.

One doctor said with intense sadness: "Poor, dear Marshall! It would not require much of an attack to put an end to his game battle now."

The heart of the former Generalissimo of the allied armies has begun to give out under the coalition of diseases affecting his lungs, kidneys and bladder. This morning in a voice hardly audible the Marshal commanded: "I must see Weigand." General Weigand was his chief of staff during the great war.

Hug On Way Back From Chicago, To Visit In Denver

George W. Hug, city superintendent of schools who is now in the east, left Chicago Sunday and will spend today in Denver, according to word home. Mr. Hug attended the meeting of the North Central association of secondary and high schools in Chicago and writes of a wonderful meeting. He will spend Thursday and Friday in Salt Lake City, where he will inspect schools.

LOMSKI BEATEN BY ROSENBLUM

New Yorker Awarded Nod in Ten Round Go; Western Lad Fights Hard

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 18.—(AP)—Maxie Rosenbloom, New York, 165, won the decision over Leo Lomski, Aberdeen, Wn., in a ten round fight at the arena tonight.

Preceding this bout Finky Kaufman, Hartford, Conn., 141, pounded his way to a technical knockout over King Tut, Minneapolis, 138, in the second round.

Lomski tore in when the third opened and landed two rights to the heart that hurt his opponent. Rosenbloom recovered quickly and shot heavy punches to the body in return.

Lomski's eye was closing in the fourth and fifth, but he continued his aggressive tactics and slugged with both hands, but Rosenbloom took all that was offered and gave some in return.

They were on even terms in the sixth and seventh and in the eighth Maxie again resorted to his left jab. Lomski drew a series of rights and lefts to the body, and Rosenbloom stopped his advance with a right cross to the head. Both missed wild swings as the round ended.

Foch At Crisis; Heart Weakens; Voice Is Weaker

PARIS, Mar. 18.—(AP)—Marshal Ferdinand Foch tonight was at another crisis in his long and apparently illness. His physicians, in leaving him for a while this evening, said that he had had no actual new attack, but that it was a case merely of a gradual slow sinking and weakening of his heart.

Walgren Wins Billiard Game Over Fessenden

MILWAUKIE, Wis., Mar. 18.—(AP)—M. C. Walgren, Everett, Wash., Pacific coast champion, defeated Ray V. Fessenden, Madison, Wis., 300 to 290, in the third game of the national amateur balking 18.2 billiard tournament here tonight. Walgren won the match with an unfinished run of 99, and an average of ten for the 30 innings played. Fessenden had a high run of 69 against Walgren's 43.

Chamber Leaders To Portland For State Gathering

The Salem chamber of commerce was represented Monday night at the annual meeting in Portland of the Oregon chamber by B. E. Sisson, president of the local organization, E. L. Wieder, member of the board of directors and C. E. Wilson, secretary. Prominent leaders from all parts of the state spoke Monday night at the annual banquet.

Central Airport, Glendale, Inspected

It became known that within a few days he will return here and make a complete test flight of the 20 passenger Patrician, following which he will fly to Oakland airport.

SALESMEN GET HIGH PRIZES

Chin Crackers Get Into Action When Jimmy Meets Ray

NEW YORK, Mar. 18.—(AP)—The chin-cracking thrills this Friday night industry expects plenty of when Baby-faced Jimmy McLarnin and Ray Miller exchange wallops, also a big "upset," perhaps $100,000, which would be a record for Madison Square Garden at a top price of $10. Speculators are asking, and getting, considerably more than that already for such of the pastebords as they have obtained.

LINDBERGH NOW IS AT SANTA BARBARA

SANTA BARBARA, Calif., Mar. 18.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh landed at the Carpinteria airport at 6 o'clock tonight, having flown here from Los Angeles. He went directly to the home of Daniel Guggenheim, Jr., where it is expected to remain for a day or two.

MISS DOAK HOME

Miss Olive Doak, society editor of the Statesman, was in McMinnville over the weekend to visit her parents.
