

Spring Tennis Tournament April 5, 6 and 7 Is Announced

PLAYERS HERE ALL ELIGIBLE

Active Year Planned by Association at Annual Meeting; Drive Begun

Plenty of competition for tennis players of Salem will be provided by the Salem Tennis association, judging from the action taken at the annual meeting Wednesday night when the members present voted to open the season with a spring tournament April 5, 6 and 7, in which all men racquetists of the city will be invited to enter. Entries may be filed with Ivan White, newly elected secretary of the association, or left at the office of the Y. M. C. A. The entry fee is 50 cents for each person entering singles, and 50 cents for each person entering doubles.

Prizes Offered

The winners in singles and doubles will be awarded suitable prizes, but this tournament will not select an official city champion. That honor will be determined in a later tournament.

The association also voted to open its annual membership campaign at once. Membership fees are payable to Ivan White as secretary-treasurer, to the newly elected president, Ralph Curtis, or to French Hagemann or Jack Mintz, who, with White, are on the tournament committee.

Will Repair Courts

Extensive repairs are to be made on the association's courts at the state hospital grounds. These will include repainting of the backstops, repainting the court boundaries, and purchase of a new net.

In addition to the spring tournament and several others which will follow, a ladder tournament will be arranged for the club members, and a club team will be selected by this means to compete in intercity team matches.

SALEM HIGH SHOWS FOOTBALL DEFICIT

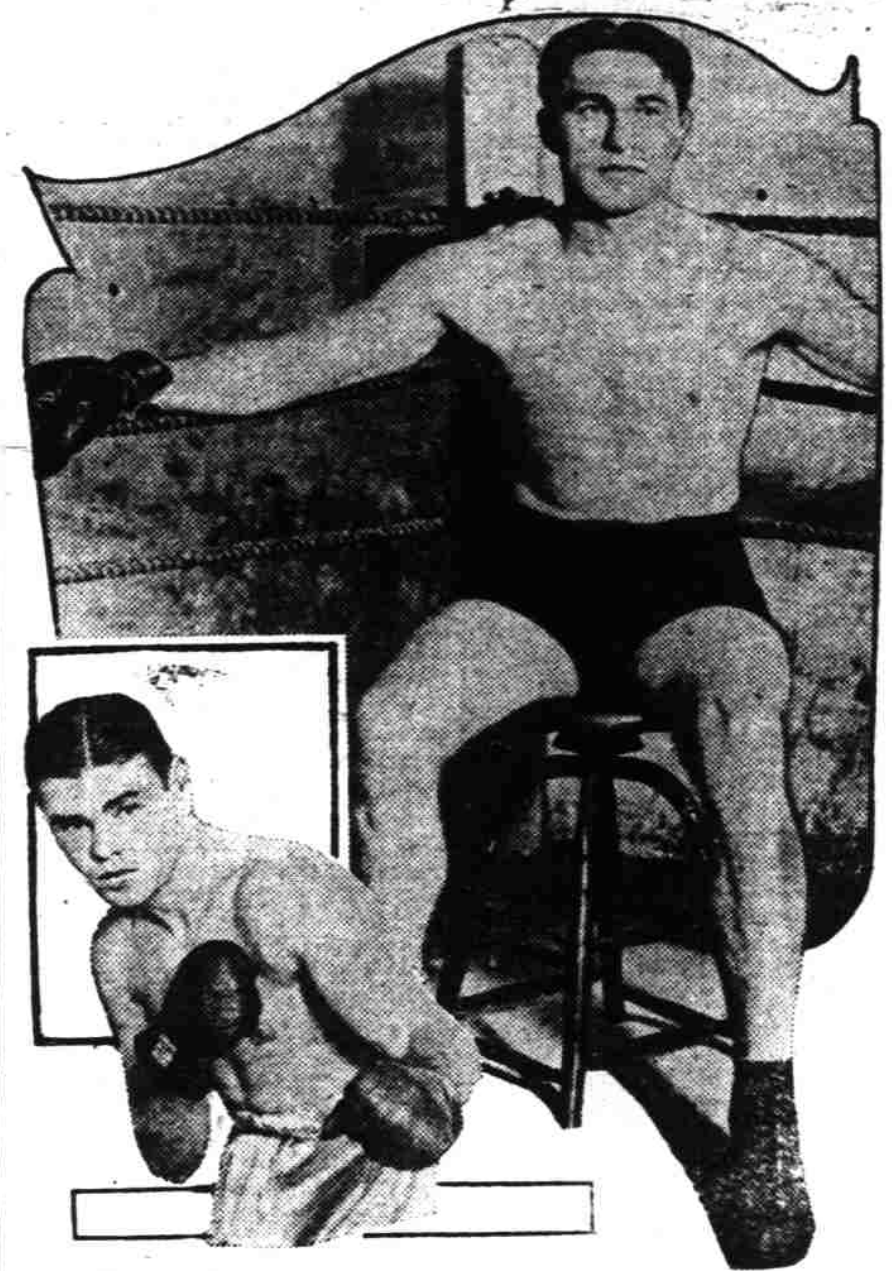

The Salem high school student body ledgers show a red of $46,87 for the 1928 football season, according to the February report of M. Davis, treasurer, just made public. The general cash fund shows a low balance of $196.39, the only funds available to meet emergencies.

The cash balance in the various student activity funds show favorably, although payment of several bills will reduce this. The Clarion newspaper has to its credit $149,02, with a reserve of $122.21. The Clarion annual is credited with $737.77 and a reserve of $339.91. However the publication bills will wipe out most of this. Basketball shows a profit of $296.47 and there is an untouched budget allowance of $150 for baseball and track.

The statement shows the student body has paid $285 on its pledge for the athletic field fence. The budget allowance for this item is $513. Debate this year cost the students $39.95, leaving $116.05 in the debate fund.

Marriage licenses were issued here Wednesday to Nicolas Schroeder, 46, and Dorothy Bradley, 31, both of Portland, and to Lloyd Wilson, 26, of 1984 North Commercial street, and Imogen Meattle, 18, of 412 North 21st street, Salem.

MICK TO BATTLE FOR TOM'S TITLE

Tommy Loughran, world's light heavyweight champion, taking it comfy and easy and not worried a bit about his battle in Chicago, March 28, with Mickey Walker, inset, world's middleweight king, who is after Tom's title, too.

STATE COULD SAVE ON SURETY BONDS

Reduction in Size Advocated by Homer Smith Before Rotary

The state of Oregon could make a considerable saving by reducing the surety bonds of a number of state officials, Homer H. Smith, Salem insurance man for 32 years, declared in a talk on "Suretyship" at the Rotary club luncheon Wednesday. The law requires of many of these officials a bond of double the amount of funds entrusted to them, Mr. Smith said.

One of the largest surety bonds ever paid in Salem, Mr. Smith stated, this being in the amount of $500,000. It was in the case of a state official who was not at fault except in that he deposited a large amount of funds in a small bank which subsequently failed. The surety company paid the bond in full and took over the state's interest as a creditor of the bank.

Suretyship Old Practice

Suretyship goes back in history to the earliest recorded civilization, Mr. Smith said, relating its operation among the Sumerians of ancient Babylonia.

He quoted King Solomon's advice, "He that is surety for a stranger shall smart for it."

Surety companies list 1500 different classes of surety bonds, Mr. Smith said. The public, he added, has no idea of the number of surety bonds which are paid without anything ever being known

SCHOOL WANTS TO KNOW REASON WHY

Principals of numerous high schools are being requested by the Salem high student body to give reasons why Salem high has become so unpopular and to suggest remedies. The letters are being sent to approximately a dozen schools including those represented by the strongest teams in the recent state basketball tournament.

The local students admit that they understand part of the unpopularity but assert that they see no reason for the major part of the enmity felt by other schools for their athletic teams and students in general. William Liljequist, Jr. is conducting the inquiry.

GIRLS SEEKING TO PREVENT THIEVING

The Girls' League of the senior high school Wednesday initiated measures designed to prevent looting of the girls' lockers in the basement. Petty thievery among the girls has been a problem for some time and the girls themselves have set out to remedy the nuisance.

Beginning next Monday, two girls will be on duty in the locker room each class period in the day. One girl will keep a record of the students who enter lockers, the locker opened and time, while the other will accompany the girl to the locker. In this manner an accurate check will be kept and it is anticipated will put an end to stealing. Miss Mabel Robertson, dean of girls and advisor to the league, is largely responsible for the new system, under which girls on duty will volunteer their services.

Each class will have charge of the guard duty for a week's period. Frances Laws, vice-president of the senior class, is chairman of the senior service week; Dorothy Moore, vice-president of the juniors, is permanent chairman for that group. A chairman for the sophomore group will be appointed shortly by Miss Cecil Kercher, class advisor.

Hoover's Views on Farm Relief to be Sought by Friends of Agriculture

WASHINGTON, Mar. 20.—(AP)—Congressional committees charged with formulating an administration farm relief bill will seek the cooperation of Secretary Hyde from whom they hope to obtain an outline of the views of President Hoover.

Chairman McNary of the senate committee already has invited the new head of the agriculture department to appear at public hearings which are to be started next week on a senate draft of the proposed measure.

Representative Dickinson of Iowa, one of the republican farm leaders in the house, called at the White House today with a request that Mr. Hoover have Secretary Hyde detail the views of the administration to the committee.

Party Plans Cited

Several other congressional leaders recently have discussed farm relief with the president and publications as to what occurred at these conferences led to the statement today at the White House that the principles of the agricultural relief program announced by the republican party were well known and no doubt would be formulated into legislation by the congressional committee.

It was reiterated that the president must maintain the constitutional relationship between the executive and congress and that he did not propose to write bills and impose them upon congress. When congress has prepared such bills he will be glad to discuss their details with house and senate leaders and whether they square with party pledges.

Message is Promised

The chief executive will set forth his views in a message to the special session of congress which will convene April 15.

It is expected that he will treat the agricultural subjects in much the way he did during his campaign. At that time he interpreted the Kansas City platform as one calling for federal aid in taking care of the surplus crops through a farmer-owned corporation.

Inclusion in the proposed farm bill of changes in the federal warehouse law to give the federal government a more rigid control over warehouse receipts and of a clause providing a minimum standard for canned fruits and vegetables was urged upon the president today by Representatives Mapes and Ketchum, both republicans of Michigan.

Legislation Incomplete

These proposals were embodied in measures passed by the house at the last session, but which failed to receive action in the senate.

The situation was described as dangerous. A fresh wind came up during the afternoon and little ripples lapping at the summits of the levees grew into waves which splashed up and over the retaining walls, eating them further away. A force of men was kept busy reinforcing the weakened sections with sandbags but if the steady rise continues there was little hope that the district will be spared.

Within the Lima lake district, comprising 20,000 acres of some of the finest farm lands in this section, farmers today began removing their livestock, grain and household furnishings to points of safety along the bluff several miles back from the river.

The Indian grave district levee also was straining from the onslaught of the rising river with but little hope of withstanding the pressure if the rise continued.

The South Quincy gardens, south of the city, including 3,000 acres tract recently improved with new residences, also was in a perilous situation. Many residents have removed their belongings.

The city of Quincy itself was in little danger from the flood waters.

FORGERY CHARGED

Accused of having raised a check from two dollars to $32, Dale Scraftford of Independence was brought into justice court here Wednesday. His mother, however, who wrote the two dollar check, upon questioning declared that it had been raised with her permission and approval. Upon further questioning it developed that Scraftford is accused of having written a small check on a Dallas bank where he has no funds. He was ordered held in the Marion county jail pending further developments.

WANER BROTHERS STILL HOLD OUT

Paul Waner, left, and his brother Lloyd, right, star outfielders of the Pittsburgh Pirates, are still holding out for a combined salary of $80,000. They originally claimed their services are worth at least half the $70,000 salary received by Babe Ruth.

Bob Myers Beats Jap Wrestler

PORTLAND, Mar. 20.—(AP)—Bob Myers, light heavyweight, defeated Tarro Miyake, Japanese Jiu Jitsu expert, two out of three falls in the main event of a wrestling show tonight. Myers took the first and third falls, winning the finale with a series of tying reverse headlocks.

The initial tumble was won in 45 minutes and 20 seconds with a chow mein special. Miyake took the second with a Japanese body slam in 12 minutes 3 seconds. Myers took the third in four minutes 21 seconds.

Police-Firemen Gymnasium Work Is Progressing

Work on the police and firemen's gymnasium on the third floor of the city hall is progressing rapidly. A locker room with 30 lockers, and a shower room are now being built. The equipment in the gymnasium, in addition to basketball and volley ball courts, will include punching bags, rings, horizontal bars and other items. A large amount of equipment was turned over to the city employees by the Y. M. C. A., and the rest will be purchased out of the fund raised at the recent benefit dance.

FOCH AND PERSHING SHARE LIKE HONORS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Mar. 20.—(AP)—Marshal Ferdinand Foch who died in Paris today, was one of the two honorary national commanders of the American Legion. The other is General John J. Pershing. Both were voted the title by the national Legion convention held in Philadelphia in 1926.

In 1921 Marshal Foch came to this country as a guest of the legion. He covered 20,000 miles and his journey led him through the eastern states, the wheat fields of the middlewest, the vast plains of Texas and the plantations in the south. His trip was climaxed in the national convention of the legion at Kansas City.

GAHLSDOFF SHINES IN NEW DIRECTION

Having demonstrated repeatedly that he can "hit 'em on the nose" for numerous successive strikes, Bill Gahlsdorf of the Nelson Druggists bowling team in the Club league delved into the finer points of the game Wednesday night and came up with a different sort of record; he picked up the 5-10 split three times, two of them in succession.
