Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Coulson, nee Frazier celebrated their Golden wedding at their home at Scotts Mills March 27. The bright warmth of the day made it a most joyous occasion. A large bundle of greetings from all parts of the United States expressed to them, as did many tokens, warm friendships. Their children, all of whom were at home for the day, are Mrs. Ethel A. Cox of Scotts Mills. D. D. Coulson of Newberg, E. Worth Coulson of Scotts Mills and Mrs. L. Earl Deane of Kribl, French Cameron, West Africa. The cheers of grandchildren who reside in Oregon mingled with those of grandchildren born in equatorial Africa and at the go en dinner those accustomed to ice cream were no better able to qually than were those from the land where ice cream is unknown.

The reception was held two evenings later at which time a host of friends and relatives ga-thered at the Coulson home to wish them bon voyage for another fifty years of happiness. An ap-propriate and entertaining program of musical and literary numlem, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Coulson removed to western Kansas, Early after the opening of the Oregon Friends colony in Marion county they came to this state where they have since resided and where they have taken their place in church and civic lif. The W. H. M. society of the First Methodist church will meet on Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors for a tea meeting. Mrs. G. H. Alden will preside at the business session. Mrs. A. S. Hisey will have the devotions and the lesson will be presented by Mrs. C. G. Doney and Mrs. W. E. Kirk. The Lenten offering will be received at this meeting. received at this meeting.
