Thirty Salem Bowlers Enter Northwest Congress

KENTWORTH TO FIGHT BORDEN

Matchmaker Plant Picks Eugene Boy to Enter Ring With New "Find"

Motivated by insistent demands that Jack Kentworth, southpaw mauler who floored Red Hayes every time he swung a glove in their scrap here last Wednesday, be matched in a main event, Matchmaker Harry Plant went scouting down to Eugene Friday night, looked over the fighters in action there, and announced on his return that he had signed up Chuck Borden of that city to meet Kentworth here Friday night, April 5.

Borden appeared to be the pick of all the boys on the Eugene card. He outpointed Jimmy Robinson of Klamath Falls in every round and won a decision, showing a world of aggressiveness; and Robinson is no mean fighter himself, having fought in many sections of the northwest.

All Want Him Now
Portland and Eugene matchmakers are hot on the trail of Kentworth, but that lad says Salem gave him his chance and he's going to make this city his home. That left mitt of Kentworth's certainly made an impression on the fans Wednesday night, to say nothing of making a lasting impression on Mr. Hayes, who is recognized by every fan here as a tough customer. When Kentworth put him down for good in the second round, it was the first time in a couple of years that the customers here had seen him contended out. It hadn't happened since he was a mere novice.

Eugene Boys Billed
Matchmaker Plant hasn't announced the rest of his card but intimates that it will be largely a Salem vs. Eugene affair, several fighters from the Lane county seat being brought here.

The Cleghorn-Dixon bout which Plant had tentatively signed up, is still in the distance, as Dixon's injured hand will require several weeks of rest yet before it is ready for any hard usage.

TROJAN ATHLETES BEAT BEARS 95-36

COLISEUM, Los Angeles, Mar. 29.—(AP)—A track and field giant stalked over the cinder path and sawdust pits of this great bowl today, sounding a crushing 95 to 36 victory over California's "mystery" team as a threat to other teams.

Callison's Job Sought By Coaches

MEDFORD, Ore., Mar. 30.—(AP)—E. H. Hedrick, superintendent of Medford high school, said today the board "has a number of applicants for the position of coach," but that no action will be taken "until Prince Callison's name is definitely on the dotted line some place else."

Jenne Not Approached
In event Callison leaves there are, it is known, about a dozen applicants for the position.

Hedrick's statement said: "There is no grounds for the statement that the position of high school athletic coach will be offered to Eldon Jenne of Portland any more than there is for the statement that Knute Rokene will be employed. In fairness to these gentlemen it should be said that so far, neither has become a candidate and neither has been approached by the school board."

Ed Not Yet Received
"Personally, I regard Eldon Jenne as one of the outstanding high school coaches of the state, and we would be very glad to have him on the list for consideration should it develop that he cares to be considered."

"We have a number of candidates for the position, and when the time comes the board will elect a man, but it will not be until Prince Callison's name is definitely on the dotted line somewhere else."

A number of local business men during the state basketball tournament "felt out" Jenne relative to his acceptance of the Medford position, in event Callison quits. They reported Jenne regarded the proposition favorably but said nothing definite.

4 SALEM CYCLISTS ENTERED IN RACES

Salem will be well represented in the motorcycle racing events scheduled for the Gresham half-mile track Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Portland chapter of the Moose lodge, if plans now being laid materialize. Salem has two entries in the 21 cubic inch single races, and two in the 45 cubic inch sidecar events.

PRACTICE CALLED AT OXFORD TODAY

Olinger field being still too muddy for successful navigation, the Salem Senators baseball squad will work out at Oxford park this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Manager "Frisco" Edwards announced Saturday. He invites all local players who have any ambitions to play Oregon-Washington League ball this year to turn out and show their paces.

Practice will be confined principally to batting, Edwards emphasizes that he hasn't picked any team as yet, and that the local boys will be given preference, other things being anywhere near equal.

Announcement is made at Pendleton that the American Legion post will conduct an outboard motorboat regatta on the McKay dam reservoir during June.

(AP)—The Portland Beavers went on another wild baseball spree today and walloped the San Francisco Seals, 9-1. The Beavers were considered of undetermined power before the season but so far they have trounced last year's pennant winners in four games out of five. Curtis Davis and Lefty Gomez, two Seal youngsters, were the victims today with the Beavers piling up 13 hits. Jimmy Cronin, shortstop, led the attack with three hits out of five.

The Angels apparently sewed up the game in the eighth when Earl Webb rolled a homer under the left field bleachers guaranteed to score two runners ahead of him, but the deluge of Tribe runs to the following inning more than evened matters.

May Bring Tournament Here in 1931; Six Fast Local Teams Make Trip

Thirty of Salem's best bowlers will represent this city at the Northwest Bowling Congress at Vancouver, B. C., next month, according to the entry list already sent in by Virgil Stoliker of the Winter Garden, who is one of the directors of the northwest association.

All of these players are entered in five man team competition, doubles and singles, and their entry fees totaled $525. In return, the bowlers expect to bring home a large slice of the prize money from the tournament.

Salem delegates are also going to pull hard to bring the northwest congress to this city in 1931. Next year it is almost certain to go to Seattle, but Salem has a good chance of getting it the following year.

In case the tournament is brought here, it will mean that 1500 or more bowlers from all over the northwest states and British Columbia will spend several days in Salem. The facilities at the Winter Garden are adequate to handle a tournament of this magnitude.

Three Class A Teams
Six five man teams from Salem will compete at Vancouver; class A teams include Reo Flying Clouds, O'Leary's Legionnaires and the Man's Shop. Class B teams are Army & Navy store, the Elks Club and the Salem Sanitary Dairy.

The teams have been lined up as follows:
Flying Clouds: S. Steinbock, Fred Kay, Henry Barr, Earl Nelson and Mort Hemenway.
O'Leary's: Virgil Stoliker, C. Monson, Van Welder, C. Greenlaw and Bert Victor.
Man's Shop: Al Titus, C. Kerrison, J. Coe, L. L. Hall and Wayne Kantola.

Elks Club: Ed Pratt, J. Elliott, F. "ears, J. George and Don Young.
Salem Sanitary Dairy: C. Martin, E. Ostrin, Rex Lyons, George Nelson and E. Muller.

to withdraw at a meeting held in Salem Saturday.
Officials of the county league declined to discuss the situation; but said that Parrish junior high school of Salem had been admitted to the league. Mt. Angel high school also was a new entry. The schedule will be revised early this week, it was announced.

KICKING STRESSED BY W. U. GRIDDERS

Kicking and handling the pigskin is the principal activity of the few Willamette university football men turning out for spring practice. So many of the athletes are engaged in spring sports that the turnout for football is small, but the kickers and receivers are getting some valuable practice.

An especially promising candidate in this department is Keith Jones, tackle on the Salem high eleven for the last several years. He is developing into a punter of ability, getting plenty of height and distance even though he has not yet mastered a spiral kick. He also kicks off capably, and his ability along this line will help out the Bearcats materially next fall.

PORTLANDERS ARE BEATEN IN SALEM

The Salem Y. M. C. A. team, defeated the Roosevelt club of Portland 39 to 14 in a basketball game on the Salem Y floor here Saturday night. Morley, Phalanx center, was high point man of the game with 12 to his credit.

The lineup:

Phalanx (39)	(14) Roosevelt

Have You Faith in Your Dentist?

Faith in his Honesty of Purpose—
Faith in his Ability—
Faith in his Guarantee.

FAITH is a wonderful thing, a very necessary and comforting part of our existence. I never knew a man or woman who had "faith" who was very bad, nor one who lacked "faith" who was very good.

THERE'S something intuitive about faith—you seem to "know" things are so and people are true, even though all the world says otherwise. You see faith in the eyes of your dog—faith in the smile of a child—faith in the trust of a woman, and faith in the hand-clasp of your friends.

BETTER a man lose all than lose his faith in himself and his friends. The measure of success I have made in my profession I owe to faith. I had faith in myself, in my ability to serve the public well, and faith that my HONESTY OF PURPOSE, at LOWER PRICES would not confuse this office with the nameless irresponsible concerns who use cheap prices, merely as a "bait" or "lure."

People who must count the cost of dental work in these days of high prices should look for RESPONSIBILITY FIRST and price afterward.

If my very low fees were the only inducement I offered I should not expect, nor should I deserve, the patronage of the people who think for themselves.
