

IRENE STURGIS HONOR WINNER

Average of 95 Per Cent is Taken by Brooks Girl in Last Two Months

BROOKS, Apr. 4.—(Special)—The Brooks public school has just completed examinations for the two months period. The results show that Irene Sturgis made the highest grade for the entire school having an average of 95 per cent in all her studies.

The following pupils made the highest average in their different grades: In Principal Wayne Harding's room, eighth grade: Miss Bessie Aspinwall made an average of 93.6 per cent; Frank Rigzi 92 and Everette Ramp an average of 92 per cent in all their studies.

In the seventh grade, Tommy Ogra made 94 per cent and Irene Sturgis 95 per cent; sixth grade, Bobby Ramp 94.2 per cent. The intermediate room which is taught by Miss Letta Wallace, the following pupils made the highest average in the different grades. In the fifth grade, high averages were made by Leo Tschida, 90 per cent; fourth grade, Minnie Ogura 94 per cent and Lorraine O'Neill 91 per cent; third grade, Dorothy Nelson 93 per cent and Frank Tschida 91 per cent.

In the primary room which is under the supervision of Miss Doris Wood the highest averages were made by Edna LaFlemme, second grade, and Neva Ramp, Flynor Fuller and Maxine McKnight, first grade pupils.

The Climbers' club, which consists of the upper grade pupils of the Brooks public school and is under the supervision of Principal Wayne Harding and intermediate teacher, Miss Letta Wallace, has elected their officers for the next six weeks as follows: Kraid Ashbaugh, president; Frank Rigzi, vice president; Albert Harris, secretary and treasurer. The officers will hold office six weeks. Monitors are appointed each week. For this week Yard monitors are Martha O'Neill and Vivian Jonah; health monitors, Harry Loomis and Elliott Fuller; bell monitor, Bobbie Ramp; desk monitor, Albert and Curtis Coffindaffer.

There are three new cases of mumps in the Brooks school this week. Addie Colyer, Frank Tschida and Beulah Otto are absent from school on account of mumps. Theodore Lowery has been absent from school on account of mumps is able to be in school again.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlavy were: Mr. and Mrs. William Alsop of Gervais, Miss Ellen Hackitt, Miss Lena Rigzi and Miss Maxine Phillips, Miss Lela Aspinwall and Mrs. C. K. Ogura. C. F. Starr of Independence was also a caller at the Dunlavy home Sunday.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

Robert Glover, an employe of the Southern Pacific company has been transferred from Salem to Portland, and took up his new duties Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Aspinwall and daughters Misses Bessie and Hatie Aspinwall of Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cozel and Miss Lyle Nyhart of Amity, and Mrs. John Kelley and baby, motored to Tillamook where they were Easter Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jones and son Roy Jones of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Jones and daughter Lois Joan Jones of Pringle were recent guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Aspinwall and family.

Mrs. Monroe Ward has been in Salem the past week helping care for her little granddaughter, little Beverley Mar who has been very ill.

BOOTH FAILING
LONDON, April 4.—(AP)—The health of General Bramwell Booth, deposed commander-in-chief of the Salvation army, is failing fast, his daughter, Catherine Booth, told the Associated Press today.

WOODBURN FACULTY IN PLAY FRIDAY

"Fifty-Fifty" Stars Ronald Burnett and T. P. Otto in Limelight

WOODBURN, April 4.—Ronald Burnett and T. P. Otto take the lead parts in the faculty play, "Fifty-Fifty," a three-act comedy, to be given in the high school auditorium Friday evening. The performance is for the benefit of the Wobiscan fund and replaces the annual Hi-Jinx.

Other parts in the play are taken by V. D. Rain, Ray O. Wolf, Milton Gralapp, Miss Helen Washburn, Miss Virginia Mason, Miss Laura Ruggless, Miss Helen Andrews and Miss Ava Conner.

The cast is being coached by Mrs. Ruth E. Rhoten, Mrs. Maude Mocheil has charge of advertising and business, and Mrs. Helen Guiss and Miss Pearl Emery are in charge of properties and costuming.

The struggles of two young artists to achieve fame are cleverly shown in this comedy. Mistaken identity, love, and thrills have their part in the plot which eventually ends happily.

EVENDON HEADS WOODBURN CLUB

Sportsmen Eligible When Dues of One Dollar a Year Are Paid

WOODBURN, April 4.—Fred G. Evendon was elected president of the Woodburn Rod and Gun club at its first meeting Tuesday evening in the city hall. Other officers elected were Lyman Shore, secretary-treasurer; Ralph Kocher, first vice-president; Sylvester Aicher, second vice-president; and Earl Gibbens, third vice-president.

All sportsmen will be eligible to membership upon payment of dues of one dollar for the year. About 20 men were present at the meeting Tuesday, but it is planned to arouse enthusiasm among others before the next meeting to be held May 7 in the city hall.

The first act of the club will be the sponsoring of a moving picture of wild animal life being issued by the state game commission. The film will probably be shown at the high school in the near future.

MONMOUTH PEOPLE ATTEND WEDDING

Mrs. Floris Newton Bride of Charles Walker at McMinnville Home

MONMOUTH, April 4.—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Derby and daughter, Birdine, attended at McMinnville Saturday evening, the marriage of the former's sister, Mrs. Floris Newton to Charles Walker, both of McMinnville, which occurred at 8:30 o'clock at the Christian

'Nights of Saw Horse' Have Election; 'Mac' McGuire Heads Group at Fruitland

FRUITLAND, April 4.—The

Nights of the Saw Horse, card club, had their fourth annual election Saturday evening at the home of P. J. McGuire. "Mac" McGuire was elected president, Guy Fagg, vice-president and John Hamm, secretary and treasurer. After an enjoyable evening of cards a light lunch was served.

Leon Brown and family took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Fordard of Salem Sunday. In the afternoon they accompanied their children to the annual Easter egg hunt at the fair grounds.

P. R. Coulson is erecting a new chicken house in which he intends to house about 300 white leghorn chickens. Edward Hinton is assisting him with the carpenter's work.

A number of people enjoyed a very nice evening at the old time dance held at the Crystal Garden hall Saturday evening. On returning a midnight lunch was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Quinns.

A family reunion was held at the home of George Keeling Sunday at which 25 relatives were present.

"Bill" Brinkley and his mother motored to West Salem Sunday evening to visit his sister, Mrs. Ben Williams who has recently returned from La Grande. She has been visiting friends and relatives there.

church parsonage. Rev. E. F. Van Slyke officiated before a small group of relatives, using the ring service.

A reception was held later at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. R. E. Derby. Assisting about the rooms were Misses Agnes Peterson, Mina Redmond and Birdine Derby. Mr. and Mrs. Walker will reside in McMinnville where he is affiliated with the Spaulding Lumber company.

Campfire Stage Project

The Campfire group of Oregon Normal School committed itself to carry into effect a birthday project this year of raising potted plants, which when they reach the blooming stage were to be distributed among the sick. Bulbs were purchased and planted, each member being in charge of two plants. Recently the array of colorful cheer was presented to the state tubercular sanitarium by Misses Mildred Crain, Billie Baxter and Elinore Halliday of Oregon Normal school.

Mrs. Velma Smith was hostess for a delightful Easter party Saturday afternoon, at which several out of town friends who were home for vacation were present. Guests were: Mrs. Velma Johnson

Pierson, Mills City; Miss Mabel Johnson, Portland; Miss Florence Heffly, Portland; Mrs. George Walker, Portland; Miss Josephine Heffly, Portland; Mrs. F. M. Roth, Mrs. David Riddell, Mrs. Leighton Smith, Mrs. Walter L. Smith, Mrs. U. G. Heffly, Mrs. Carl Iverson, and Mrs. A. H. Craven. Dainty refreshments reflected the seasonal note.

Browning-Keliher Rites Interest Chemawa Friends

CHEMAWA, April 4.—The marriage of Miss Esther Browning, of this place and Ford Jones Keliher of Canada occurred last week in Salem. Miss Browning is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wirt G. Browning, prominent citizens of this place. The bride is a former student of Salem senior high school, and is prominent socially, and in lodge work.

Mr. and Mrs. Keliher will reside in Salem.

NOBEL PRIZES IS INDEPENDENCE TOPIC

Mrs. G. G. Walker Named New Head of Woman's Club in City

INDEPENDENCE, April 4.—The Woman's club met Tuesday afternoon in their club house and had an interesting program.

Mrs. H. E. Robinson read a paper on the "Nobel prizes." Mrs. J. E. Hubbard read a paper entitled "The Immigrant of Ellis Island."

Miss Robard, teacher of the first grade in the training school had her pupils present the playlets "Goldie Lock," "The Three Bears" and "The Covered Wagon" after the program, an election of new officers took place. Those elected were: president, Mrs. G. G. Walker, vice pres. Mrs. M. C. Williams, second vice president, Mrs. F. G. Hennigan; secretary, Mrs. R. M. Walker; treasurer, Mrs. A. H. Thomas. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. William Quarter and Mrs. George Cohrs and Mrs. W. R. Day.

Doctors O. G. McConnell and George C. Knott attended the medical meeting at the Marion hotel in Salem Tuesday evening.

Mr. Ralph Parker, manual training teacher in the high school is recovering rapidly from the operation which he underwent for appendicitis in the Salem hospital ten days ago.

Pat McConnell, youngest son of Dr. O. G. McConnell has recovered from an illness of two days. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Ranton made a trip to Salem Tuesday afternoon accompanied by Rev. L. H. Willard and family of Monmouth.

Peter Kurrie has been busy this week repairing the roof of the house which was destroyed by fire last week. His wife, Mrs. Kurrie is the owner of the house. Mr. W. G. Grant has been doing carpenter work in Amity the last week.

Read the Classified Ads.

SALE OF NEW WASH FROCKS

Every One Guaranteed Tub Fast
Faultlessly Made — Fine Fitting — Newest Styles

"Spic & Span" 98c
"Sunny Sue" $1.79

The Wash Frocks that will be the talk of the town when women see them and then see the price. They'll hardly believe their own eyes when they note the quality and styling embodied in this huge assortment Gingham, Dimities, Voiles, Linens and other spring materials in hundreds of new patterns and colors.

BLOCH'S GOLDEN RULE STORE

Around the Corner from Doc Lewis' Drug Store

Spring Display

Deauville Sandals

REG. U.S. PAT. OFFICE

Deauville Sandals step into the mode as Spring's smartest style. Fashioned in delightful color combinations, they are correct for sport, street and afternoon. "T-Strap" and oxford models are equally popular.

The Price shoe Co.
135 Liberty St. Salem, Oregon