All members are urged to come and bring something for the kitchen.

The Lincoln, McKinley, Leslie Parent Teacher association will meet Tuesday evening at Leslie school. The evening has been planned by the acting president. Mrs. Floyd Utter, in such manner, as through a unique program to bring out the need and work of the P. T. A. This program will take the form of a mock trial and it promises well.

Not long since it was announced that a scholarship would be awarded to the girl of Leslie school who won the most votes from student body and faculty alike for having the most constructive school spirit. It was hoped at that time that some one would offer a like scholarship for a boy. Now the Lincoln, McKinley, Leslie P. T. A. has taken up the matter and are working hard on the idea to offer such a scholarship. It is highly probable that the scheme they are trying may be accomplished. Dr. Floyd Utter and Dr. B. F.
