Her dressing gown may be of velvet, harmonizing with her gown. Two nightgowns are sketched, the one on the right covered with a chic bed jacket.

Movie Fashions

Uniforms for women are largely out of date. But the smart sweater and separate skirt might be termed a uniform for the college and business girls as well as for sports, if the models were not so diversified. Alice Adair, from Oklahoma, now in the movies, is "easy to look at" in this chic suit.

LOS ANGELES MAN STEALS OWN GIRLS

Police declare Howell seized the two girls as they neared the school and placed them in his automobile after which he sped south enroute, they believe, to California. Police along the route have been requested to take Howell into custody.

Peter's Adventures

WILD GOOSE EXPECTS THE WORST

PETER tried to encourage the poor Wild Goose.

It certainly is too bad that you had such a dreadful accident, although if you hadn't told me, I never should have believed that a warm wind could hurt anybody," said the boy.

"I always supposed that it was the wintry breezes that the birds did not like—that it was those they flew south to get away from.

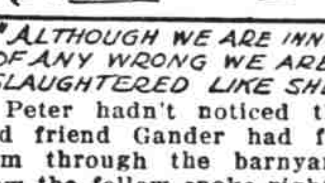

"But, cheer up, old chap, the worst is over. When the day is really here you will feel much better. I dare say in another hour or so you will feel rested enough to take to your wings again. Suppose you are a few miles behind the rest of the flock. You will catch up to them in time, and that is really what matters, after all."

The Wild Goose looked at Peter and sighed.

"As I said once before, you mean well," said he. "But there isn't a speck of use in telling me not to worry. I can't help it with all I have on my mind. Wouldn't you feel downhearted if every minute you expected a crowd of Two-Legs to steal upon you while you were helpless and shoot you with their bangstick?"

"Why should you expect a dreadful thing like that?" The boy was startled.

"I expect it because it always happens when Wild Geese are brought to earth. I don't know why it never fails. Unless, perhaps, it is only when we are weak and helpless that the Two-Legs

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters M.D.
Author of "Diet and Health" and "Diet for Children."

Reducing by Exercise Alone
"Dear doctor: About five years ago I reduced 45 pounds in about eight months by using phonograph records for exercising. I was supposed to diet along with the exercising, but I did not follow the diet. However, I did cut down on my bread. But after losing 45 pounds, I was still about 30 pounds overweight, and I could not reduce any more, no matter how much I exercised. Now I write you an authority on reducing, who told me that if one found he could reduce no further, it showed he should get take off any more, and that 193 pounds was probably as low as I could ever reduce.

I had weighed 238 pounds at the beginning, and was about 26 years old, height 5 feet 9 1/4 inches. I am now 32 years old and weigh 248 pounds, having gained back all I lost, and then some. Do you think it is possible for me to reduce to, say, 165 pounds? Please let me know what you mean by maintenance diet?"

"MRS. L."

"Will you please tell me what will heal an old operation wound, which has opened? It has healed up mostly, but it drains, and I have tried everything to heal it. A scab will form over night, and on touching it, it will break open and drain."
MISS A.

Have the wound examined, Miss A. It may be possible that there is a little bit of foreign matter there. Perhaps some material was used in sewing the wound which was not absorbable and it escaped the attention of the surgeon when he removed the stitches.

Climbing

First, Ziegfeld picked her for his "Fles." Next, she was chosen for "Rio Rita" and now Warner Brothers will present her in the movies. Dainty Agnes Francy is climbing; helped by clever dancing and seldom equalled beauty.

Miss Francy says: "I don't believe in overlooking anything which helps add to your attractiveness. I am most particular about my hair and so many friends compliment me on its softness and lustre that I am sure my method of caring for it is right. Nearly all the girls I know here in New York are using it, now. It is so easy. All we do is put a little Danderine on our brushes each day, we dress our hair. It makes my hair easy to dress and holds it in place wonderfully. It has gotten rid of my dandruff. It keeps my hair and scalp so comfortable, that I don't shampoo half as often as I did before. And best of all, it gives my hair a softer, more silky and lustrous appearance than anything I've ever found."

Danderine quickly removes that oily film from your hair; brings out its natural color, makes it fairly sparkle! Dandruff usually disappears when you use Danderine. Waves, "set" with it, stay in longer. It's delicately fragrant, isn't oily; doesn't show. It's economical. The 35c bottles will last several weeks. All drug stores recommend and guarantee it.—adv.
