PORTLAND, Ore., April 10.—(AP)—The Beavers made it two straight in their home park by defeating Hollywood again today, 3 to 2. Two home runs by Charley Bates, who went from center field to catch after the arrival of the new outfielder, Carl Frey from the Pittsburgh Pirates, constituted the major Portland offense.

Frey scored the other Beaver run in the third on his own double, a safe bunt by Conlin and Keesey's drive.

Hollywood became dangerous in the eighth, due to two walks by Ortmann with none out, and Casarella replaced the young left hander. He threw the ball in so fast that the Hollies were left stranded.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 10.—(AP)—With the score tied 2-2, Eddie Mulligan sent a scorching double down the third base line, which scored Christensen in the eighth inning, to give the San Francisco Missions the second game of the series with Seattle 3 to 2 today.

The contest was a pitchers' battle with Seattle's three and the Reds two hurlers. Andy House was charged with defeat although he pitched to only two men. He walked the first and permitted the second to single.

Hop Collard came to the rescue of the Indians and after fanning two men, let Mulligan crash out a double which gave the Missions the victory.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—(AP)—The San Francisco Seals, pitiful at the bat for the past two weeks, surprised the home town fans again today by trouncing Sacramento's Senators, 12-6, a worse beating than they gave the same team yesterday. The Senators started impressively with four runs and added another in the fourth to lead five to one. A fifth frame rally netted the Seals eight counters and they coasted home for an easy win. BAD BOYS OF AMERICAN LEAGUE

Three little boys who—all unruly—have already threatened the chances of their teams in the American league race, are Chalmers Cissell and Art Shires, shortstop and first baseman of the White Sox, and Harry Heilmann, Detroit veteran. Disgruntled conditions on the White Sox team, revealed by the suspension of Cissell and Shires, appear of a more serious nature than the suspension of the two men in itself. Heilmann's failure to enter into the new spirit at Detroit, under Manager Bucky Harris, may or may not presage more unpleasantness there.

SOLONS LOOM STRONG

Washington Depended Upon to Stop Yankees

FOOTBALL IS DEFENDED

BY ALAN J. GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK, April 10.—(AP)—It will be nothing unusual if the Washington senators justify their increasing strong support among the critics and develop into the principal threat to another victorious march by the world's champion Yankees.

Washington has been a jinx to New York teams to a greater extent than any other in recent seasons. The Senators broke up the first pennant winning streak of the Yankees in 1924, after three successes in a row by the men of Miller Huggins. In the fall of the same year Washington rallied to beat the New York Giants in one of the most dramatic of all world's series battles.

Walter Johnson, a hero figure in 1924, is now at the helm of the Washington craft that hopes to upset another Yankee winning streak.

Much the same situation exists now, as in 1924, with the Yankees in quest of four flags in a row and the Senators gathering over the fence with two on started the rally and drove Kuns to the showers.

ROOKIES GIVEN WORKOUT SOON

Delayed Game Played Sunday Between Regulars and Yannigans

It would have been possible for the Salem Senators to bring in an out of town baseball team for a game net Sunday, but Manager "Frisco" Edwards has decided to more speed will be accomplished by playing the "regulars" vs. "yannigans" game which was scheduled for last Sunday but omitted because the diamond at Olinger field was too wet for successful navigation.

This game will be played Sunday, weather permitting, in order to give the promising "rookies" who have been trying out, another chance to show their wares. Opening of the league season has been postponed until April 21, when Montavilla will play here.

Reports from Albany indicate that the club there will be reorganized and participate in the Oregon-Washington league race despite the reports emanating from there last Sunday that no team would be entered.

The announcement was made by "Red" Rupert, manager of the Aloes for several years, after a meeting to organize support for the team had been called and nobody attended. This was due, it later developed, to the fact that a wrestling card was scheduled for the same evening. Since Rupert, manager of the Aloes, is a business man, he has been behind the baseball program and indications now are that it will go through as originally planned.

NET TOURNAMENT ADVANCES SLOWLY

Some progress was made in the double section of the spring tennis tournament Wednesday despite the intermittent showers, when White and Minto defeated Thelsen and Curtis 6-0, 6-0. Harmon and Roeder won one set from Goode and Hobson, 6-3 before a shower cut short their match.

In the singles, Chambers forfeited to Hobson, who thus advanced into the semi-finals and will play Roeder today if weather conditions make it possible.

Buddy Myer Added
To Strengthen Infield
Johnson, different in type from Bucky Harris, nevertheless possesses the same faculty of inspiring his men. Old Barney knows his pitchers and has whipped the Senator staff into fine conditions. The addition of Buddy Myer, hard-hitting infielder; the successful shift of Oesie Blinze to shortstop and the brilliant work of two young outfielders, West and Barnes, all form contributing factors to Washington's bright prospects.

The cry against over-emphasis may still be heard where intercollegiate athletics are discussed, but seems to have become a trifle feeble, even where football is evolved.

Apropos of the situation, Glenn Frank, president of the University of Wisconsin, says:

"As America is at the moment, I cannot share the feeling of opposition to the hippodrome sort of athletic activities. They contribute to remain a devotee of a sport we learn in college."

Olympia Kid Sprains Back Leaving Ring

ROSEBURG, Ore., April 10.

(AP)—Knocked out of the ring in the fourth round to suffer sprained back, "Olympia Kid" Johnson, Olympia, Wash., was defeated here tonight by George Dixon, Portland in the main event of a weekly boxing card. The fight was scheduled for 10 rounds. Dixon weighed 155; Johnson 153.

Austin Pendergrast, Roseburg, and Orlando Farmer, Eugene, fought six listless rounds to a draw. Both weighed 145.

"Tiger" Dunn, Roseburg, and Bud Ramsey, Eugene, fought four rounds to a draw. They weighed 135.

BOY SCOUTS HOLD FIELD DAY SHORTLY

Field day for the Cascade Area Council of boys scouts will be held at Olinger field in Salem May 25, O. P. West, scout executive, announced Wednesday. General instructions for the event are being sent to all scouts of the two counties, Marion and Polk, comprising the area. An efficiency trophy will be awarded the troop showing the finest scouting spirit during the field day events. The program will begin promptly at 10 o'clock, when each troop will be inspected after it has been assigned a place to establish camp headquarters.

Following inspections, events will be run off in this order: signaling, knot tying relay, water boiling, first aid, wall scaling, tug of war, rescue race, Paul Revere race, fire by friction, signal tower race, archery and dressing race.

Officials for the big event will be announced as the date approaches. Troops will be scored as follows: first place, 25 points; second place, 15 points; third, five points.

Jarman Issued Permit to Build $30,000 House

April building permit figures were increased materially Wednesday when a permit was issued for the residence which is to be built for D. B. Jarman at 567 South High street. The figure given in the permit was $30,000, which includes only the general construction, omitting electric being and plumbing. The total cost of the home, including the value of the real estate, was estimated recently at $75,000. W. F. Wyatt has the general contract.

Programs Given Out for Oregon Day May Second

Suggested programs for the observance of Oregon Day, May 2, have been printed by C. A. Howard, state superintendent of schools, for distribution among the schools.

Teachers are urged, insofar as possible, to center all the activities of the day in the classroom around the theme of "Oregon." Service clubs also are requested to hold programs appropriate of Oregon Day.

Eleventh Day Brings Crew to Pennsylvania Town on Its Way West

WAYNESBURG, Pa., April 10.—(AP)—The eleventh day of pavement pounding today brought Pyle's cross-country pedestrians to this southwestern Pennsylvania town, with Paul Simpson of Burlington, N. C., leading the pack to the line. He jogged the Uniontown-Waynesburg installment of 33 miles in the transcendent hike in four hours, 46 minutes and ten seconds.

The second place finisher today was Troy Trimble, who came from Bakersfield, Calif., in order to walk home. He required five hours one minute and 45 seconds by Shank's mare from Uniontown where the blower entrants passed last night.

DRUGGISTS GAIN IN CLUB LEAGUE RACE

By winning three straight games from the Elks Cubs, the Nelson Druggists bowling team in the Club League Wednesday night advanced to within one game of the Western Auto Supply Co. quintet, which has been leading the league. Western Auto lost two games out of three to the Lions. The Reo Mates also improved their standing by winning three straight from Associated Oil.

In one of the best and closest doubles matches played at the Winter Garden this season, Hussey and Victor defeated Karr and S. Steinbock 1899 to 1879, a margin of little more than two pins per game for the five games. The scores were close in every game.

Saturday night at 7 o'clock Kantola and Stolker will bowl against Karr and Steinbock, and next Tuesday night at the same hour, Henry Barr and Homenway will meet Hussey and Victor.

TEXAS GUINAN SAYS SHE NEVER DRANK

NEW YORK, April 10.—(AP)—Texas Guinan, who started her 11-year stage career as a vaudeville performer and star in the early movie westerns and now is a night club hostess with a $1,000 a week guarantee, took the witness stand today to testify that the Saloon Royale is a nuisance it is none of her doing.

Giving the crowd in the federal court room where she is on trial the same broad smile with which she is accustomed to shout "Hello sucker," to the Saloon Royale's patrons, Miss Guinan told of her part in the city's night life, intermittently sitting at a bottle of perfume.

"Have you ever sold any liquor in the Saloon Royale?" her lawyer asked.

"I have never sold liquor in my entire life," she said.

"Did you ever take a drink?"

"I have never had a drink in my entire life."

"Did you know that liquor was sold there?"

"I did not."

"Did you ever see any liquor there?"

"Well, I saw what looked like liquor. People brought suitcases of liquor in and served it themselves."

Before the three prohibition agents testified to having bought champagne and whiskey in the night club, although not from the hostess herself.

The last evidence offered by the prosecution had to do with the Guinan contract with the Saloon Royale and the books of the night club. The contract showed that she was paid half of the net profits from all sources, with a guarantee of $1,000 a week, and the books revealed that her share occasionally amounted to almost $2,000 a week.

Miss Guinan's contention was that she was employed purely as an artist and was not responsible for any wrong doing that may have been done in the place by others. The contract and books were introduced to show that, though she was not a partner she did have a financial interest in the business in that she received part of the profits from all sources of revenue.

She said that James White, one of the agents who testified against her, had repeatedly sought to "take her out" and had sent her cards on several occasions. White previously testified under cross examination that he would not have known an orchid if he saw one.

SCHMELING TO FIGHT IN N. Y.

German Heavyweight is Expected to Return to U. S. This Month

NEW YORK, April 10.—(AP)—Despite the tangled condition of Max Schmeling's affairs, the young German heavyweight probably will return to the United States late this month to box Paulino Uzcudun, burly Spaniard, in a charity show staged by Madison Square Garden in the Yankee stadium June 27. Although Joe Jacobs, American manager of the latest ring sensation, declared today that Schmeling still was undecided about returning to New York, where the state athletic commission holds that Arthur Blow is his rightful manager, it was indicated that "Doc" Max would be permitted to engage the Spaniard under Jacobs' direction. Schmeling signed for the bout before leaving for Germany. The New York commission at that time allowed him to make his own matches, a permission since withdrawn.

BEARCATS STRESS BATTING PRACTICE

Batting practice has been stressed in the few outdoor sessions the Willamette university baseball squad has been able to get in between showers this week. The players are making progress in perfecting their style at the plate, but what they will be able to do in real competition is still an unanswered question.

The Willamette team will play the Oregon State College ball tossers two games this week, Friday and Saturday at Corvallis.

Ryder Cup Golf Team On Its Way

NEW YORK, April 10.—(AP)—With marked enthusiasm even in the face of a drizzling rain falling on their ship the Ryder cup golf team today sailed away for England to defend the international professional team championship.

All of the ten players making up the United States team left home with high hopes of victory over George Duncan's British outfit, "after a battle."

FRISCO BOUNCES ITS SOUTHERN CATCHER

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—(AP)—Officials of the San Francisco baseball club announced today that Fred Polvogt, catcher, will be returned to the Monroe, La., club of the Cotton States league. The Coast league outfit had him on option. His home is in Dallas, Tex. Bob Howard, with Boise last season, and considered one of the best catchers in the Utah-Idaho league, will join the Seals shortly. He was to report before the season started but was delayed because of his work as athletic director at Murray, Utah, high school.

RIVER NAVIGATION WILL BE STUDIED

PORTLAND, Ore., April 10.—(AP)—Directors of the Columbia Valley navigation board, composed of business men from all states tributary to the Columbia River, today voted a $50,000 budget and decided to start a thorough study of navigation possibilities in the Columbia river valley. Clyde E. Lewis, Portland, took office as new president.

Six vice presidents, who will compose the executive committee, were selected as follows: H. S. Rogers, Corvallis, Ore.; B. F. Price, Astoria; E. A. Cox, Lewiston, Idaho; James E. Akey, Pendleton; Phil Jackson, Portland.

Directors, named today who will serve for one year, are M. J. Crabb, Clarkston, Wash.; O. L. Price, Portland; F. R. Brown, Vancouver, Wash.; Truman Butler, Hood River; Henry Reed, Portland; two year: Rogers, Ewing, Jackson, Drake, C. O'Reilly, Portland; Akey, H. R. Richards, The Dalles; three years: R. E. Shepherd, Bromley, Idaho; Stone, Cox, Wesley Vandaveort, Longview, Wash., and Frank L. Shull, Portland.

Old Timer Here Sustains Injury In Sudden Fall

R. A. Witzel, 415 N. Cottage street, sustained a fractured leg at the hip when he slipped and fell at his home Monday. He is resting fairly comfortably but his injured leg will knit as Mr. Witzel is 83 years of age.

He came to Oregon from Georgia in 1854 and has lived in Salem and its vicinity since that time.
