

Look Them Over! They're Candidates for Honors as "Miss Salem" in the Statesman-Elsinore Beauty Contest, Held Tonight and Friday

Yvonne Smith

Juanita Powell

Mary Carrier

Ruth Gillette

Vetele Arnesene

Leona Gardiner

Louise Lanke

Helen Turner

Anne Maruny

Clarice Dow

Girls, 15 of Them, Ready for Style Revue Tonight at Theatre

Winner in Contest Here to be Decided Upon Friday Night and "Miss Salem" Title Will Be Conferred; Chance for Galveston Trip

Fifteen of Salem's prettiest young ladies, bedecked in spring's newest and finest outfits, are ready for tonight's contest at the Elsinore theatre when three impartially selected judges will have their first opportunity to size up the candidates for representing this city in the state-wide elimination contest at Portland early in May.

This noon at the Elsinore a rehearsal is to be held and each of the contestants will go through the paces preparatory to a fine showing tonight.

All day Wednesday the telephone was ringing at the theatre with the young ladies calling up to inquire about final details. "Shall we wear our new spring coats? How much makeup will be permissible? Is it satisfactory if we include a dance step with our appearance?" These were some of the queries which kept the Elsinore management busy.

Many of the girls have been sponsored by local business firms but those who have not, will enter the contest on exactly the same basis as candidates of some special store.

The Galveston winner, chosen from candidates from more than a score of states and 10 cities in the United States may be "Miss Salem" the management of the local revue pointed out Wednesday. The girl chosen here Friday night will go to Portland and in an elimination there, may win state-wide honors.

The public will not only view the beauty contestants but will have opportunity to see the final showing of D. W. Griffith's attraction, "The Battle of the Sexes." No advance in prices has been made by the theatre which offers the combined beauty show and picture at the regular admission charge.

CHECKING HEALTH DATA
SILVERTON, April 10.—Final arrangements and checking up of requirements for students to enter the county "Heralds of Health" contest, are being done this week in the nurse's office in the Eugene Field building. All final reports must be in the office of Mrs. Fulkerson, not later than April 10.

2 WOMEN QUALIFY IN SWIMMING TEST

Two members of the junior life-saving corps for the women's swimming classes in the Y. M. C. A. pool passed their senior tests and have received the awards. Mrs. Ethel Niles and Helen Ralph are the new wearers of the badge. A corps of six girls is assisting Mrs. Elizabeth Rowley with instruction and supervision of the swimming. This group is being trained for life guard work on summer vacation trips and is reported to be as expert as professional life-saving corps. Members of the corps are Anoka Coates, Helen Ralph, Eileen Moore, Louise Kramer, Eleanor Wagstaff and Elizabeth Holcomb.

Giese-Powers
Dissolution Sale

The Greatest Furniture Event Ever Announced in Oregon

Full Coil Spring Day Beds

All full coil springs with special reinforced top. Mattresses covered with high quality art cretonne in various colors.

- $52.50 Day bed. Dissolution Sale price $41.75
- $49.50 Day bed. Dissolution Sale price 37.75
- $46.50 Day bed. Dissolution Sale price 34.95
- $36.50 Day bed. Dissolution Sale price 29.75
- $30.00 Day bed. Dissolution Sale price 21.95

COME IN TODAY--See these to appreciate their value--YOU'LL FIND HERE A BIG SAVING ON HIGH GRADE FURNITURE.

Giese-Powers Furniture Co.,
371 Court St. - Salem, Oregon