Salem Hunt Club Organization Planned

Salem is to have its own riding club with the perfecting of the Salem Hunt club organization. The need for such an organization has been felt for quite some time among Salem sports lovers, and it is expected that the details of the organization will be complete within a week if the keen interest manifested last week maintains its pace.

Due to the fine cooperation of the State Fair board, the club has the advantage of one of the finest pavilions in the state in which to drill and hold classes.

Within a week at least two classes have been scheduled for every day of the week but Friday. The schedule has been arranged as follows: Monday, 4:30 o'clock, W. U. women; Tuesday, 4:30, W. U. women, 7:15, younger business women, and a mixed class from Ladd and Bush bank; Wednesday, 6 in the morning, business men and women, 4:00, High school boys and girls, 7:15, High school teachers; Thursday, 6:00 in the morning, business men and women, 6:30 in the evening, younger business women; Saturday, 9:30, older children; Sunday: cross country ride from 8 to 10, and an afternoon ride for advanced riders.

Miss Jean Loyd of the East Gilliam academy of Portland is in charge of the class arrangements and is also an instructor. James F. Dryden who instructs and has charge of the horses will be assisted over the weekends by Captain Alfred Kelley of Portland.

The tentative organization which has thus far been in charge is headed by Rich Reimann as chairman. He is assisted by R. E. Kittridge as secretary and Miss Elsie Egan as assistant secretary. Sometime this week a board of directors will be elected by the election of one representative from each class group.

Interest among the university students has been so keen that plans are already being made for drill teams which will be chosen from the two, and probably three, classes to take part in the State Fair next fall.

Salem People Attend Flonzaley Concert

Among the Salem people who plan to attend the Flonzaley String Quartet concert at Portland Monday evening will be Miss Frances Virginia Melton, Miss Helen MacMillon and Mrs. Warr n Powers.

The Flonzaley Quartet which is one of the finest, if not the finest, of its kind in the United States, is making its farewell tour after having been together for the last 25 years.

The Lafalot club met at the apartment of Mrs. Stanley Burgess at the Glendora Tuesday. Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon.

The club members who were present are Mrs. R. B. Woodrow, Mrs. Fred C. Gordon, Mrs. Byron Othus, Mrs. Vern Suko, Mrs. Donald J. Madison, Mrs. Lester Scholten, Mrs. R. O. Knott, Mrs. Hal A. Wiley, Mrs. Roy S. Madsen. There were two additional invited guests, Mrs. N. L. Leven and Mrs. Stanley Lainsou.

First prize for the afternoon went to Mrs. R. D. Woodrow, and second to Mrs. Roy F. Magee.

Debutante Knows Plane

Miss Olivia (Skeeter) Mathews of Dedham, Mass., a 19-year-old relative of General Charles P. Sumner, is seeking a pilot's license in tests at East Boston airport.

Mr. Paulus Addresses Salem Arts League

The Salem Arts League meeting in the city library enjoyed an illustrated lecture on "Flowers" given by Robert Paulus Tuesday evening. Mr. Paulus showed a large number of pictures of the rare and beautiful flowers that abound about the grounds of flower-loving Salem folk. Mr. Paulus also showed pictures of wild flowers which he has found in the various parts of Oregon along highways and rivers and in valleys. The pictures were all in unusually fine colors, especially those of the new processed natural colors.

Previous to the lecture Mrs. F. G. Franklin described the pictures that have hung in the gallery of the Del Monte hotel at Monterey, California, with which she became familiar during her residence in California. Among the works which Mrs. Franklin described were those of Martinez, Keats, Peter, and Neuhouse.

Willamette Lodge Bridge Benefit

The Willamette lodge country club will sponsor a benefit bridge at the clubhouse Saturday afternoon. The committee in charge of the tables includes Mrs. Ernest Peterson, Mrs. Lou Grote and Mrs. Kari Kuehl. Mrs. A. E. Utley and Mrs. M. C. Petters will have charge of the tea rooms.

Invitations have been issued by the Daleth Teth Gimel sorority (Independent Women's society) for a tea which will be given between the hours of 3:30 and 5:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at Lanes hall. The tea is in honor of national officers of the organization who will be here to install the Willamette chapter. Miss Marion Morange is in charge of the affair.

Women's Glee Club Appearing Tonight

The Women's glee club of Willamette university will appear in concert this evening at 8 o'clock in the Waller hall chapel. This is the annual home concert which will be given for the first time in many years in the historic university chapel.

Among the Salem girls who are with the club are Josephine Albert, Lillian Scott, Doris Clarke, and Grace Henderson.

Professor E. W. Hobson, dean of the university school of music, and director of the club will direct the group this evening.

The program for the evening is as follows:

University Couple Announce Betrothal

Of interest in university circles is the announcement of the betrothal of Evelyn Hartung to Clyde Zeller, which was made to Miss Hartung's sorority sisters at the Delta Phi sorority Wednesday evening.

Miss Lillian Scott sang "Love's Old Sweet Song," after which a large hope chest was brought into the room, and upon being opened disclosed little miniature hope chests filled with candy and containing a picture of the engaged couple, which were given to each of the guests. A simultaneous announcement was made at the Alpha Psi Delta house, where ice cream and cake were served.

Miss Hartung is a daughter of Mrs. E. E. Gilbert of this city and a prominent member of the junior class, while Mr. Zeller, who is teaching at Finley, Washington, was a member of the class of '28 and affiliated with the Alpha Psi fraternity. He was prominent in athletics while on the campus, being a four-year letterman in football.

Besides the members of the sorority the honor guests for the occasion were Mrs. E. E. Gilbert and Miss Betty Mae Hartung, mother and sister of the bride-elect.

The date for the wedding has not been announced.

Salem Artisans Will Entertain Portlanders

The Artisans will meet at 8:00 o'clock this evening in the Fraternal temple. Plans will be made at this time for the Artisan meeting, April 25 for which a large group of Portland Artisans plan to be present. In the Portland group it is expected that there will be a number of the high officials of the lodge.

The Jolly Eight Bridge club met recently with Mrs. Ed Kelson. Among the members present were Mrs. W. Sloper, Mrs. W. Albright, Mrs. Everett Rutherford, Mrs. Ed Phillips, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. N. O. Bales, Mrs. May Lewis, Mrs. Ed Kirtson. Later in the afternoon refreshments were served. High score went to Mrs. Everett Rutherford and low to Miss May Lewis.

Mother of Eight Boys

"I read an ad in the newspaper and I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I will recommend this medicine to any woman who is in bad shape like I was. I used to get so tired after a few hours' work that I was even afraid in my own house in the daytime. I didn't care if I lived or died. I have given birth to eight boys and I feel strong right after, since I have taken the Compound."

—Mrs. Maud Meyer, 400 E. 13th Street, Dubuque, Iowa.

WaterSpar Enamel Varnish as Lacquer

The Weller Hardware and Paint Store has a new method of selling paint which goes a lot farther than price per gallon. This plan includes a remarkable cost chart which shows how much surface cheap paint will cover in comparison with quality paint, such as Patton's Sun-Proof, how long each can be expected to last and what is the difference in cost for five years between cheap and quality paint. It is an astonishing chart.

Gobbler Returns

The words had scarcely left the boy's mouth when a great commotion arose. "Cluck! Cluck! Cluck!" "Quack quack!" "Woof! Woof!" "Moo-oh-oh!" "Cock-a-doodle-do!"

The Hens, the Geese, Mother Pig and her children, Molly the Cow, bold, boisterous Billy Goat, Gobbler pushed his way through the friendly crowd.

Mr. Cock-of-the-Walk — all the barnyard folk appeared to be much excited about something. Even the Horse, usually as calm as a summer's morning, gave a shrill neigh. Suddenly above the clucking and quacking and squeal-

Willapa Mill to Build Pulp Plant Is Latest Report

Preliminary work looking to the construction of the 75-ton Willapa Pulp & Paper mills between Raymond and South Bend, Washington, is scheduled to start this spring, according to company officials. The first step of the construction program consists of driving from 1500 to 2000 piling for the foundation. The sub-contract for driving the piling was let early in February to the Willapa Construction Co., the general $800,000 contract having been awarded last December to the Swenson Evaporator Co.

No delays in completing the mill by early fall are anticipated, sufficient stock having been sold to insure uninterrupted financing it was announced.

ful had happened to you, and here you are, and looking as healthy as ever." Turkey Gobbler heard the boy's voice and at once came hurrying to Peter's side, pushing his way through the friendly crowd that surged to greet the returned wanderer.

"Yes, I am here, all right, although at this time a day ago I didn't think I would be. I came mighty near finding myself without a head. Let me give you a bit of advice, friends! Don't believe everything you hear and don't trust everybody you meet." "I never do," said Gander, before the boy could speak. "Are you perhaps referring to the Turkey that led you and your wild friends past the fence the other morning?"

Does Statesman Advertising Pay?

The first ad run Wednesday, April 10th, in the Oregon Statesman brought so many requests for interviews by conservative investors that we were unable to accommodate all.

We therefore respectfully request that appointments be made at the Hotel Senator so that none will be disappointed.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters M.D.

Author of "Diet and Health" and "Diet for Children"

Cod Liver Oil and Vitamins C. wants to know why cod liver oil contains vitamins, when the original source of vitamins is in the green plants, and the cod is eating a deep sea fish.

The cod stores up the vitamins in its liver, in a roundabout way. C. There are plenty of sea weeds and plants known as algae, in the sea; tiny creatures called plankton, floating on the upper stratum of the sea, eat these algae. In turn, are eaten by squids and mollusks, which in turn, are eaten by the fishes, especially cod fish. So the vitamins of the sea plants are finally passed on to them.

Children, as a rule, don't like cod liver oil and they do like cream. (I remember one mother wrote me that her baby was normal in every respect except that it liked cod liver oil.) I understand that cows do like cod liver oil, and it is the custom now among some dairymen—I have read—to give cod liver oil to them in the winter. This increases the amount of cream and vitamins, especially A and D. So eventually, perhaps, we will give the cod liver oil to the cows and let the child get its vitamins from the cream.

"My mother is suffering from cancer of the upper lip," said the doctor. I consulted about two months ago told me that owing to her advanced age—she is about 82—he can do nothing to relieve her. He said that this form of cancer is the least painful, but I know my mother suffers very much and she says the lumps in her lip are very sore. Some friends suggested home remedies to dry them up, but they do not seem to work. Is cancer listed among the communicable diseases?

There is no home remedy that will dry up, or have any effect on cancer in any way. T., except, perhaps, to make it worse.

We disagree with your doctor who says that your mother is too old to have any treatment. Radium or x-ray, but especially the radium is very successfully used on skin cancer, and there is no age limit to its use. You live quite near to New York City and I advise you to take your mother to the New York Skin and Cancer hospital, at 301 East Nineteenth street.

No cancer is not communicable. Skin cancer is very successfully treated now, so I still have hopes for your mother, unless her condition has gone on too long. If you want more information on cancer, write to the American Society for the Control of Cancer, 25 West Forty-third street, New York City.

"Is it true that pork is unfit for human consumption? If so, please tell me why?" W.

Pork is just as wholesome a food as any other meat, if the animals are housed well and cleanly fed. Sometimes pigs contract trichinosis from eating trichina infected rats. If they do, they also become contaminated, and unless there is competent meat inspection this meat can get on the market; and if eaten in uncooked state, the embryos which are curled up in the muscle fibers are freed and migrate to the muscles and other organs of the consumer. Therefore, pork should always be cooked very thoroughly and never eaten rare. This applies to all pork products—sausages, etc.—for trichinosis is a serious disease. Pork is higher in fat than any other meats, and those who have delicate digestions may have to avoid it.
