

CONTEST HELD PROBABLE NOW

House and Senate at Outs on Export Debuture Plan; Committees Differ

While the details of the house measure will not be made public until after it has been considered by the full committee, it is known that it would create a federal farm board and place at its disposal a revolving fund to be used in making loans to cooperative marketing agencies and stabilization corporations that would be set up to meet marketing emergencies. The measure as now drafted does not include the debenture or similar plan. It probably will be laid before the full house committee tomorrow.

Tentative Draft of Section is Ordered
The senate committee has ordered a tentative draft of a section providing for the incorporation of the debenture plan into the McNary bill. Chairman McNary of the senate group said the committee was awaiting word from President Hoover before voting on either the section or the bill.

Among the senate committee members who declared for the debenture plan was Senator Caraway, democrat, Arkansas, who said the visit of a senate subcommittee to the White House yesterday left no doubt "in the minds of many" that President Hoover has "no definite farm plan."

Senators Norbeck of South Dakota, Norris of Nebraska, republicans, and Hefflin of Alabama, democrat, said the debenture plan ought to be given a trial while Senator Capper, republican, Kansas, declared he believed the plan should be given the most serious consideration and that he had been impressed with the showing made in its favor.

VIETNAMESE IS NOW 'MISS SALEM'

(Continued from Page 1.) skirt much longer in back, and with trimming of silver lace. A lace cap with a large lace bow at the back was the finishing touch of the garment. The winner last appeared in a severe black bathing suit.

Roundly Applauded
Generous applause was given all the contestants. The girls were first seen grouped about a Buick sedan. The audience was heavily in the appreciation of the spectacle of the girls dressed in lovely gowns, largely for evening wear, but some sport outfits. In the later display, when the girls were bathing suits, the different colors and styles, some plain and some with the back-out back, made an interesting array.

A ball will be given tonight at the Mellow Moon in honor of Miss Salem. The other contestants will be special guests, and the public is invited. The dance is given as a compliment by the contest committee.

When Miss Arnesene was asked "how it felt to be the winner," she replied that she was "awfully surprised and did not really expect to get the honor."

HERRICK'S BODY TO RECEIVE HIGH HONOR

French Cruiser Will Reach American Shores With Ambassador Today

NEW YORK, April 12.—(AP)—The French cruiser Tourville, bringing back to his home land the body of Myron T. Herrick, American ambassador to France, was off the coast tonight while representatives of his own and the French nation gathered to pay him honor.

Arrangements were made to have the body under constant escort from Nantucket light shoals, about 200 miles from New York, until it is buried in Cleveland, the ambassador's home city.

The American cruisers Marblehead and Cincinnati were ordered to meet the French warship at Nantucket and escort it into New York harbor where it will be received tomorrow morning by representatives of the French and American governments and New York City who will be aboard the city tug Macon. At quarantine they will go aboard the Tourville and proceed to a pier in the Hudson river.

On passing Fort Jay on Governors Island in the upper bay, the Tourville will fire the national salute of 21 guns which will be returned by the fort. French and American flags will be at half-mast. As the coffin is removed from the Tourville the guns of the fort will fire 19 guns, the salute to an ambassador.

The body will be carried on an army caisson from the pier to Grand Central terminal for the journey to Cleveland, and during its progress through the streets a full regiment of infantry, the officers and crew of the Tourville, and three companies of American Bluejackets will form a guard of honor. An officer and a guard of honor of eight noncommissioned officers of the army will stand guard over the coffin in a special car on the journey west.

LINDBERGH ARRIVES TO HONOR HERRICK

CURTIS FIELD, N. Y., April 12.—(AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh arrived by air today to pay his respects to the man who was his hero after the famous Lindbergh flight to France—Myron T. Herrick, late ambassador to France. Arriving in a fog and drizzling rain that made the earth invisible at 200 feet, the Colonel made a perfect three-point landing, wheels while flying here and was equally uncommunicative about his wedding plans. He said that what he might do tomorrow—fly down the bay to meet the French cruiser bearing Ambassador Herrick's body home or go down in the city's official tug—was for the committee in charge of the arrangement

'Seventeen,' High School Play Is Hit

French Cruiser Will Reach American Shores With Ambassador Today

By B. L.
"Ye gods! To think that a man going on 18 couldn't even have a dress suit!" Thus spoke Leonard Shafter in the part of Willie Baxter, Tarkington's hero of "Seventeen" in the Technic club production at the Salem high school Friday evening.

The high school cast was quite successful in catching the spirit of Tarkington. Almost everyone has seen the play, produced at least once, but it is indicative of the finish in this presentation that well-known lines took on new interest. Cecil McKercher directed the play.

Between acts the high school orchestra under the direction of Lena Belle Tartar, a number of pretty good curtain acts, and costume dances by Elizabeth Waters, "went over" to the audience. Included in the cast were Jean Astridge, Fred Blatchford, Rose Peterson, Ellis Harris, Valma May, Lois Wilkes, Ben Terusaki, Fritz Amman, Joe King, Virgil DeVoe, Lucille Downing and Grace Holman.

PUPILS IMPROVING IN POSTURE, WORD

Muscular defects of Salem grade pupils have been improved three per cent since February, shows the third posture check of the school year, just completed, by Grace S. Wolgamott, director of physical education in the grades. While much has been accomplished since the previous check on February 1, the director hopes to reduce the percentage before school closes June 7. The last check shows 71 girls and 81 boys, or 152 pupils representing 6.3 per cent of the enrollment, need additional correction.

200 Persons Vainly Attempt Rescue; One Lad Drops Hundreds of Feet

The group, which included Paul Hutchinson, former University of Idaho football star, climbed to the top of the mountain this afternoon. When the edge of the peak tore away, they all slid to the ledge, where they caught hold of jutting rocks. Harold Stiffenson, one of the Boy Scouts, lost his grip and plunged to his death several hundred feet below.

JANNINGS SINGER ROLE AT CAPITOL

Emil Jannings stages a surprise by singing operetta songs for "Sins of the Fathers" which will be the next attraction to open Sunday at Bligh's Capitol theatre.

"Sins of the Fathers" marks Jannings' fifth American made picture, with the added feature provided by synchronizing his voice to eclipse his past performances in view of the fact that the musical score and sound effects give the performance added dramatic power.

Dr. Hugo Riesenfeld, for years recognized as the leader of all motion picture composers, has given the picture musical treatment. The Paramount orchestra of 75 pieces was used to record the music arranged by the famed director, and Irving Talbot conducted.

ELSINORE SHOW HIT; BROADWAY REVEALED

Crowds packed the Elsinore Friday for the showing of "The Broadway Melody" which lived up to the reputation established by the advance notices about the production. With Charles King, Anita Page and Bessie Love in the title roles, the play moved swiftly and with all the accompaniments of music, dancing and talking to give the production the atmosphere of the "Great White Way."

SCOUTMASTERS BEGIN TRAINING

62 Men Turn Out for School Opening Night; Executive Very Well Pleased

With 62 Polk and Marion county men turning out for the first class in the scoutmasters' training school which got under way Thursday night, O. F. West, new county executive for Cascade Area council, declared himself very pleased with the showing and the enthusiasm evidenced. The training school for scout leaders is being held each Thursday night at the senior high school gymnasium for a period of 12 weeks.

Organization was effected at the first meeting, with six patrols and their leaders as follows: Beavers, Ralph Purvine; Coyotes, T. D. Pomeroy; Pigs, Roy C. Brady; Bears, J. M. Campbell; Bearcats, Donald Douris; and Bob Whites, Gordon E. Tower. The class is conducted as well as possible like a real boy scout troop, with Mr. West as scoutmaster, Don Earl assistant scoutmaster, Rex Sanford, senior patrol leader and Frederick Edmundson, scribe.

Germany's Creditors Agree on Sum to be Demanded as Debt Solution

(Continued from Page 1.) The new allied demand is roughly one billion dollars less than the $25,000,000,000 which the Germans originally offered at the Versailles peace conference and not one-fifth of the grand total of $125,000,000,000 asked by the allies before the conference opened. However, it is, at least, more than three times as much as the German low offer of $7,500,000,000 in January, 1923.

DAWES GROUP ENDS ITS JOB

Neither Morgan Nor Young Is Called

Neither Owen D. Young, chairman of the second Dawes committee, nor J. P. Morgan himself, however, been called upon to criticize or approve the allies plan. Mr. Morgan will not be present when the figures are laid on the table before Dr. Schacht tomorrow. He is going to Venice to meet his yacht Corsair for a short cruise in the Adriatic with the archbishop of Canterbury, and his place will be taken by Thomas W. Lamont.

Mr. Young probably will call for discussion of the plan and give the floor first to Dr. Schacht, who is expected to ask for two or three days to study the figure.

PARENTS ARE FETED BY SCHOOL PUPILS

Pupils of the first grade at Washington school entertained their parents and several invited friends Friday afternoon when they presented "The Birds of Killingworth," a three-act playlet written by the teacher, Miss Lita Waters, from the theme of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's poem of that name. The program was given as the conclusion of a six or seven weeks' project and was well received by the parents.

SAFEGUARDS TO BE REQUESTED

Members of City Council Not Anxious to Adopt New Bus Franchise

T. L. Billingsley, superintendent of the transportation company, declined to make any statement other than to deny statements made locally that there was a "joker" in the draft of the proposed franchise.

The company has simply stated its position, has distributed copies of the franchise it desires to members of the council and to prominent business men and will leave the decision to the council, Mr. Billingsley declared. It has no intention of quitting the local field, but merely wishes to be put in a position which will permit it to avoid a steady financial loss.

The company went "in the red" to the extent of $10,644 in 1928, Mr. Billingsley said.

REALTOR SUES FOR FUND ALLEGED DUE

Property of many thousands of dollars value was sold for James A. Reynolds by V. Bergman and the Homer D. Foster Realty Co., but not one cent remuneration has been given either party, Edward Trapp alleges in a complaint filed in circuit court Friday. Trapp has taken over the claims of both defendants and asks $750 in Bergman's behalf.
