Miss Georgia Albee has been added to the grade school staff which is also complete. The hold-overs at both the Westside and Eastside schools are Mabel Ballard, Myrtle Clark, Margaret Davidson, Ruth Holt, Nellie Muir, Lola Newman, Mary Scollard, and Fern Wadsworth.

PRATUM VOTES FOR NEW SCHOOL HOUSE

PRATUM, April 12.—The largest number of votes probably in the history of the district school were cast Tuesday evening when 75 Pratumites voted on whether the school district should or should not issue warrants to the amount of not exceeding $60,000, to finance the building of the new school house which was decided on at a meeting two weeks before by only one vote; at that time the vote was 31 in favor and 30 opposed.

At this meeting it was hoped by the side favoring the new building that enough voters who had opposed it at the first meeting would after thinking it over take enough pride in the appearance of their community to have changed their mind and cast their vote in favor and make easy going in favor of the new building but those who held this illusion were mistaken, when it proved that those opposed had added five to what they called their "party" but when the votes were counted it showed a gain of six votes in favor of the new building giving them a majority of two votes.

Another meeting will be held in the near future when plans and specifications will be decided on which kind of plans and construction will be used—in the new building.

Mrs. Sarah Reeves, 93, is Laid to Rest at Jefferson; Plains Crossed in '47 Days

JEFFERSON, April 11.—Death called Mrs. Sarah Reeves at her home in Jefferson April 4 after a long life-time of 93 years. Funeral services were held in the Methodist church Saturday afternoon with Rev. Edward Terry officiating.

Mrs. Reeves was born in Missouri June 8, 1836, and at the age of 11 crossed the plains with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Harrison.

On arriving in Willamette valley her father took a donation claim between Salem and Jefferson, where they resided for a number of years.

She was married to Bartley Reeves November 19, 1854, and in 1860 they moved to California where they resided until 1870, when they returned to Oregon, and resided on their farm three miles northwest of Jefferson. Her husband, Bartley Reeves, died August 18, 1883. She remained on the farm for a number of years and then moved to Jefferson.

11 Children Mothered
To Bartley and Sarah Reeves were born 11 children, of which three sons and three daughters survive. They are E. E. Reeves, Mrs. Sarah Roland and Ray Reeves of Jefferson, Mrs. Susan Lyles, Mrs. May Shoemaker and Frank Reeves of Salem. She also leaves 19 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren, besides many relatives and friends.

The pallbearers were Shirley Roland, Guy Roland, Clinton Reeves and Wayne Shoemaker, all of whom were grandsons of the deceased. Interment in the Jefferson cemetery.

The hostesses for the meeting, Mrs. Margaret E. Edges, Mrs. Dodge, and Mrs. C. C. Cammack, served refreshments after the program.

FREEZE DOES MUCH DAMAGE TO BLOOMS

DALLAS, April 12.—Freezing weather Saturday night and previously has killed 50 per cent of the cherry buds before they had gotten open, according to N. L. Guy, who has made a close examination of his orchard in the Elsinore district.

Mr. Guy states that this does not necessarily mean that half of the cherry crop is killed, as there are ways many times more blossoms on the trees than ever set.

The more advanced buds were mostly killed though.

Mr. Guy stated that the damage appears to be the same in all varieties. He found conditions similar in Dallas, but has not been out to examine other orchards as yet.

The other fruits such as prunes, pears, and other fruit have not been damaged as yet, but unless there is a decided change in weather they too will be in danger shortly.

Lincoln Resident Is Seriously Ill

LINCOLN, April 12.—S. D. Wilson, formerly of Salem but now living on the Springer place, was taken very suddenly ill last week and a doctor was called who diagnosed the case as serious liver trouble. Wilson is slowly improving.

Miss Georgianna Briggs, teacher of Lincoln school was quite sick but is able to be in school again. The camp is located about forty miles from Silverton, in the foothills of the Cascades.

Road Changes Are Being Made Along Side Lake Labish

PIONEER, April 12.—C. A. Hoover, local patrolman, is supervising road construction on the Bingham road east of Brooks. The plan is to make the Bingham road run along the edge of Lake Labish until it joins the road that goes past C. La Flemme's. As this piece of road will go through timber, it necessitates considerable blasting. The county has a specialist on the job to supervise the blasting. Besides the dynamite man and the patrolman, there is a crew of four men. At present the construction is being carried on near the residences of Charles Mendenhall and Carl Johnson.

CHICKENS, NEWLY PURCHASED, LOST

Fire Destroys Brooder and 150 Baby Chicks in Fruitland Blaze

FRUITLAND, April 12.—"Val" Gerig has recently bought 150 baby chicks. After carefully taking care of the chicks that evening he retired only to wake up the next morning and find that his baby chicks and the new chickenhouse were completely burned. The fire was undischarged by anyone until the next morning. The cause was believed to have started from an oil heater that was being used for the heating of the house.

Boyd Milhousy, who has been absent from school for the last two weeks, has just returned to his school work. Mrs. Forgard, principal of the school, has reported that the attendance has been exceptionally well for the amount of sickness that has been through the community.

"Nick" Gerig and family have recently returned from a business trip to Albany. He also visited with his nephew who is in the theatre business there.

Mrs. A. A. Harmon is expected to return to her home in this community sometime this month. Her health is so that it will be necessary for her daughter to accompany her. Physicians say that in a short time she will be completely well. She is in Nebraska at the present time.

Orders 500 Chicks
Mr. Egler has recently ordered 500 baby chicks. With his present flock of 200 white Leghorns he expects to increase his present profit a great deal.

Fred Gerig and Guy Weaver are leaving Sunday for the Brighton Bush river near Detroit where they will go on a two days fishing trip starting this Monday. Carol Runner and Russel Butler are expected to accompany them.

SILVERTON WINNER IN HIGH CONTESTS

SILVERTON, April 12.—Silverton contestants in the Marion county bookkeeping contest walked away with first, second, sixth and twelfth places. Phyllis Waidner, a sophomore, won first place, Evelyn Daxling, a sophomore, second, Evelyn Loe, a junior, sixth, and Orval Larson, a senior, twelfth.

In the typing contest, the junior division took third honors, and in the team work, the senior division took second. The class in which they were competing.

The students who were chosen as contestants were: Violet Herigstad, Irene Morley, Jola Burch, Gene Eilenburg, Esther Korch, Marie Gregerson, and W. E. Daxon. Evelyn Daxling and Miss Violet Crofoot accompanied their students to Salem.

BROODER BURNED AT PRATUM IN MORNING

PRATUM, April 12.—At 4:00 o'clock Sunday morning Val Gerig awoke and saw his brooder and contents go up in smoke. Only two days before he had placed 160 chicks in the brooder. Heat was supplied by a small oil stove and stove pipes were used to distribute the heat through the brooder.

It is thought that the high wind at that time blew open the door on the heating plant giving too much draft and causing the stove to over heat.

Members of the Junior League Christian endeavor officials boosting the state convention which will be held at Salem in the near future were at the Mennonite church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dixon and family visited Mrs. Dixon's brother Mr. Harvey Wing and family in Newberg Sunday. On their return home they received word that Mrs. Dixon's father had suddenly ill and was taken to a hospital in Seattle.

Charles Cady, president of the Hayesville district was a Sunday school visitor here Sunday morning.

Birthday Event Enjoyed at Home of Pioneer Folks

PIONEER, April 12.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brown spent Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hoover. The occasion was in honor of Mr. Hoover's birthday. The evening was enjoyed playing cards.

Mrs. L. W. Riches of Salem spent the week-end in Silverton attending to her property here. She was the guest of Mrs. Adamson during her visit.

SILVERTON, April 12.—Monday morning, at the assembly in the high school for the boys, Warren E. Crabtree gave 50 lantern slides showing the manufacture of Portland cement. This and the talk which was given with the pictures, were held in connection with the agricultural classes, where boys are given instruction in building farm structures.

FAT RABBIT CLUB MEETING HELD UP

Hazel Green Folk to Have Wiener Roast April 19 is Last Decision

HAZEL GREEN, April 12.—The Fat Rabbit club found it necessary to change the date of their wiener roast from April 12 to April 19.

Mr. and Mrs. John Faist of Portland are visiting their brother L. F. Faist on the Bechtal farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wampler and children Clinton and Marlan, Mrs. G. W. Davis and children Helen and Sanford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Davis of Scotts Mills Sunday. The visitors were helping Mr. Davis celebrate his birthday.

Miss Hulder Strippling, who has been visiting in Hazel Green, Edna McRae of Stayton, is now a guest of her sister, Mrs. Elmer Minch of Riverside Drive.

The school program will be at a later date because so many pupils have been out of school on account of sickness. The following pupils have been sick: Leonard Faist, Frank Lucanbeal, Symio Mio, Emil Yada, Charlotte Van Cleave, Kenneth Luckey, Edna Rutherford, Eda and Laura Miles, LaVerne Catlin, Margaret Dunigan, Vera Wan Cleave.

If you please, these Looney's, G. G. Looney lives north and east of Salem instead of Jefferson. Recently the notice of our Rabbit club was credited to Jefferson, also article this week about Jersey meeting at C. J. Stupfel's farm near Chemawa.

NEEDED ROAD BEING PUSHED TO FINISH

Clear Lake People Happy That Narrow Stretch is Widened

CLEAR LAKE, April 12.—A badly needed piece of road construction is being done on the Clear Lake-Quincy road in front of the Alex Harold place. The county has made a fill to widen the road, and cut down the hills. As soon as the weather permits, place will be graveled. As the road at the bottom of the hills was formerly too narrow to allow cars to pass, it has been the scene of several minor accidents. During foggy weather last December, William Colard and Robert Massey had a head-on collision at this place.

NEW SEWER DALLAS TO BE UNDERTAKEN

DALLAS, April 12.—The city council voted this week at a special meeting called to hear remonstrances on the construction of the proposed Uglow avenue sewer, to proceed with the construction of the sewer. Bids will address to be submitted on Monday, April 29.

The proposed sewer will run from Mill street to connect with the Maple street trunk sewer, and divert the sewage now flowing into the old septic tank into the new tank on Miller avenue. It was proposed by the health and police committees on intimation that the state board of health would condemn the old tank as a menace to the public.

The remonstrance against the sewer, bearing about 70 signatures, was presented to the council.

COUNCIL TURNS DOWN REMONSTRANCE; BIDS CALLED FOR BY APRIL 29

JEFFERSON, April 12.—The Eastern Star lodge met Tuesday evening for their regular meeting in their lodge rooms in the Masonic hall. A large number of members of the Stayton and Turner chapters were present. Initiatory work was done and three new members were taken in. At a late hour refreshments were served. Next Monday the local chapter will attend the district meeting at Albany.

Mrs. D. Y. Hamill had the misfortune to cut her hand quite badly while opening a jar of fruit. Dr. Van Winkle returned from Salem Sunday where he has been recovering from a recent operation.

Rev. H. E. Close will address a community meeting at the Christian church Friday evening at 7:45 p.m. The address will be illustrated with pictures.

Out of town folks who attended the Sarah Reeves funeral services Saturday afternoon were: H. C. Roe of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Roland of Roseburg, Mrs. Virgil Rowley of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Carrie Boland, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Looney, Mr. and Mrs. John Sigmund and Ralph Thompson of Salem.

DALLAS, April 12.—The W. O. W. held a formal dance at their hall Wednesday. There was a good crowd. The lodge will hold another dance April 23.

WOMAN SICK THREE YEARS

Helped By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Little Rock, Ark.—"I was sick for three years after my last baby came. I could hardly walk and could not eat nor sleep as I should because I was so nervous. I took seven bottles of the Vegetable Compound and used that number of bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and I am feeling just fine. I have a large family and do the work for all. Your Compound made me a well woman, and I have a happy home now. I always try to keep a bottle in the house and I tell everyone about it."
