Officers Will Be Nominated Today

The meeting of the Woman's club this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock is one of the most important of the club calendar in as much as the officers for next year will be nominated. According to precedent Mrs. Harry J. Weidner, vice-president of the club, will automatically become president. Mrs. A. L. Wallace, president, announces that this will be a full meeting and must begin promptly. All members of the board are expected to be present for the board meeting at 2 o'clock.

Another important part of the day's business will be the election of delegates to the meeting of the Marion county Federation of Women's club at Silverton April 25. Five delegates and five alternates will represent the Salem club in an official capacity. Other members, however, are planning to attend the conference.

Mrs. Seymour Jones and Mrs. C. K. Spaulding will report concerning the luncheon in Herndon at Portland last week. Mrs. Orr-Dunbar was formerly state president of the Federation. Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Spaulding represented the Salem club at the luncheon.

There will also be discussion of the state district work at the business meeting. At the last meeting of the state five club districts were marked off. Each district is to hold an all-day conference annually.

The program of the afternoon will be in charge of the department of a public education, of which Mrs. J. M. Devers is the general chairman. Mrs. George Rossman will review Bess Streeter Aldrich's book, "A Lantern in Her Hand," the luncheon which recently came from the Portland club where she was active prior to her coming to Salem. She recently read her interesting review of this book at a meeting of the Portland Woman's club.

Miss Ruth How, instructor in the music department at the state school for the blind, will sing a group of solos which will include "Eva Del Acqua's" "Villanelle." Miss How will be accompanied at the piano by Miss Helen MacArthur of the department of music at Willamette university.

Displayed on the financial secretary's desk this afternoon will be the 45 pictures mounted by club women. The pictures are all reproductions of paintings that have been accepted and hung in national art galleries.

Golden Legend Scheduled For Music Week

Mrs. Crawford-Newcomb Hostess

Carlos Marsters of the Portland Realty board spoke to an interested group of Salem folk Friday afternoon at the opening of the new Kingwood Heights tract as the tea guests of Mrs. Crawford-Newcomb at the newly completed hostess house. This is the first of a series of teas at which Mrs. Crawford-Newcomb will entertain at the hostess house.

The drawing rooms were bright with wild spring flowers gathered from the natural gardens of the tract. The tea table was centered with a lovely arrangement of peach blossoms in a jade bowl.

Mrs. John Werner presided at the tea table during the tea hour. Mrs. Crawford-Newcomb was assisted in the drawing room by Mrs. Marie Baker and Mrs. A. C. Couchman.

Miss Elizabeth Boylan, piano student of Miss Virginia Melton, recently won first prize at the high school musical contest. Miss Boylan played Chopin Etude Opus 25 Number 7.

Mrs. Alfred Vick will entertain the members of the Etoka club at her home at 1495 North Liberty street Tuesday afternoon previous to the annual inspection trip of Salem industries. They will visit the Salem Paper Converter.
