White Shrine Has Impressive Public Installation

The very impressive and beautiful installation ceremony of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, Willamette Shrine No. 2, was celebrated in the ceremony room at the Masonic Temple Monday night.

Previous to the installation in the regular business meeting Miss Grace N. Babcock, outgoing worthy high priestess, was presented with a beautiful pair of silver candlesticks, a gift from her officers in token of one of the most satisfactory and happy years that the lodge has enjoyed under any high priestess. Mrs. Neimeyer made the presentation speech, and during the presentation Mrs. Susan Varty accompanied by Mrs. Marie Flint McCall sang "Garden of Your Heart." Following this Judge Coshov presented Miss Babcock with a jeweled past priestess pin, a gift of the Shrine.

During the installation which followed, Mrs. Percy Cupper sang and a male quartette gave some beautiful numbers. Following the installation refreshments were served in the banquet room. This part of the program was in charge of Mrs. Merle Ramp and her committee.

The flower girls were Miss Opal Hodge and Miss Pauline Livsey of Woodburn, and little Miss Edna Sumner of Salem. Mrs. D. X. Beecher has charge of the profusion of flowers which were presented.

Miss Grace Babcock and Judge O. P. Coshov presided during the installation. The other installing officers were:

Winifred Herrick, worthy chaplain; Chlo Cashatt, worthy herald; Mirnie McMiller, worthy scribe; Edna McElhaney, worthy secretary; Margaret Montgomery, color guard.

New officers installed for the year 1929-30 were:

To Build Up Young Wives

"I was in a run-down condition after a miscarriage and it left me awfully weak. I could not eat enough and I could not work. A friend told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got good results from it. I took four bottles and have gained eight pounds. You may use this letter as a testimonial if you value it."—Mrs. Joseph Caladapro, 192 Florida Avenue, Amsterdam, N. Y.

Friday Night "Y" Program is Unusual

Professor J. S. Roberts will have charge of the Friday night program at the Y. M. C. A. this Friday and will present four of his students in unusually pleasing numbers.

Miss Doris Ross, Miss Helen Benner, Miss Gretchen Thlesen and Miss Frances Laws will play solo and ensemble numbers from Macdowell, Litz, Rubenstein, and Leschetizky. The concluding number will be especially fine. This is to be an ensemble number with the four girls at two pianos in the overture to "Oberon" by Weber.

Mrs. J. A. Bernardi will entertain the Westway club of the Woman's Benefit association in her home at 484 South High street Thursday afternoon. Members are requested to bring thimbles and scissors.

Miss Gusie Niles, who has been in the Salem General hospital for some time past following a serious major operation, is again at her home convalescing in a very satisfactory manner.

Capital Debutante

Among the pretty Washington debutantes is Miss Florence Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Meyer. Her father is a member of the war finance corporation.

Sunday Breakfast for Miss Hazel Cook

Mrs. Inez Meyring entertained with Sunday morning breakfast at her apartment at the Hazeldort Sunday morning in honor of Miss Hazel Cook. Miss Cook has just come to Salem to take the place of Mrs. Biehn who is leaving the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company at Salem to take a new position in Portland.

An out-of-town guest for the breakfast party was Miss Irma Rodda of Portland.

Mrs. Ralph Cooley will entertain the South Circle of the First Christian Church in her home at 888 North Summer street Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Cooley will be assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. L. Headrick.

The business meeting of the afternoon will begin at 2 o'clock after which there will be a program and the usual social hour.
