Mrs. C. K. Logan Is P. E. O. Hostess Thursday

A very pleasant afternoon meeting was that enjoyed by the members of chapter G, of the P. E. O. sisterhood at the home of Mrs. C. K. Logan, Judson street, Thursday.

The guest rooms were beautiful in the color scheme of yellow, white and purple. Spring flowers from the rocky and yellow tapers caught the color scheme. This same combination was used in the refreshments which were served at a late hour by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. F. W. Lange and Mrs. Gardner Knapp.

At the business meeting plans were made for a no-host luncheon meeting for which Mrs. A. T. Wain will be hostess at her home on Jefferson Road, May 2.

Special Japanese Set For League Play

Miss Marjorie Walker, whom the Salem Drama League is presenting in the one act play "Cherry Blossoms" tonight at the Nelson auditorium, has an excellent background from which to draw upon for her work tonight. She is a graduate of the Ellison White school of Portland and following that time spent several seasons touring with that chautauqua circuit. For the past three years Miss Walker has coached the junior plays of Willamette university, and last year was director of the Salem Drama League during its hard year of being sponsored and organized. Miss Walker is reported as being a versatile artist both as a vocalist and pianist. Lazar S. Samoiloff, a noted New York teacher gave her the name of the "girl with the golden voice."

Miss Sarah Wrenn has planned and executed an extremely clever Japanese stage setting for "Cherry Blossoms."

"Ashes of Roses" in which Miss Margaret Burroughs is being presented has the intriguing appeal of the old English play. Miss Burroughs has been working with Miss Walker in the directing of these plays.

Banquet Honors Church Choir

The church choir of the First Methodist church is honored each year with a banquet. The annual banquet for this year was given Tuesday evening in the church dining room at 6 o'clock. Sharing the honors with the choir was the basketball team of the church.

Those in charge of the arrangements for this affair were the music committee, the official board, and the ladies of the general aid who prepared and served the banquet. Mrs. E. P. T. Hill, Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, Mrs. Mary Boshen, and Mrs. Walter Pennington were in charge of the table decorations. The color scheme of lavender and yellow was very effectively used for the tables and in flowers about the dining room.

Brief speeches were made by B. E. Sisson who gave the address of welcome, Ronald Glover, A. A. Schramm, and Prof. E. Hobson, who is the director of the choir. Covers were laid for 75 guests.

The annual spring informal dance given by the senior ballet classes of Mrs. R. L. White's school of the dance will be an event of the early next week. This dance will be also celebrated in honor of Mrs. White who will leave soon for Chicago.
