

The Day's News in Pictures

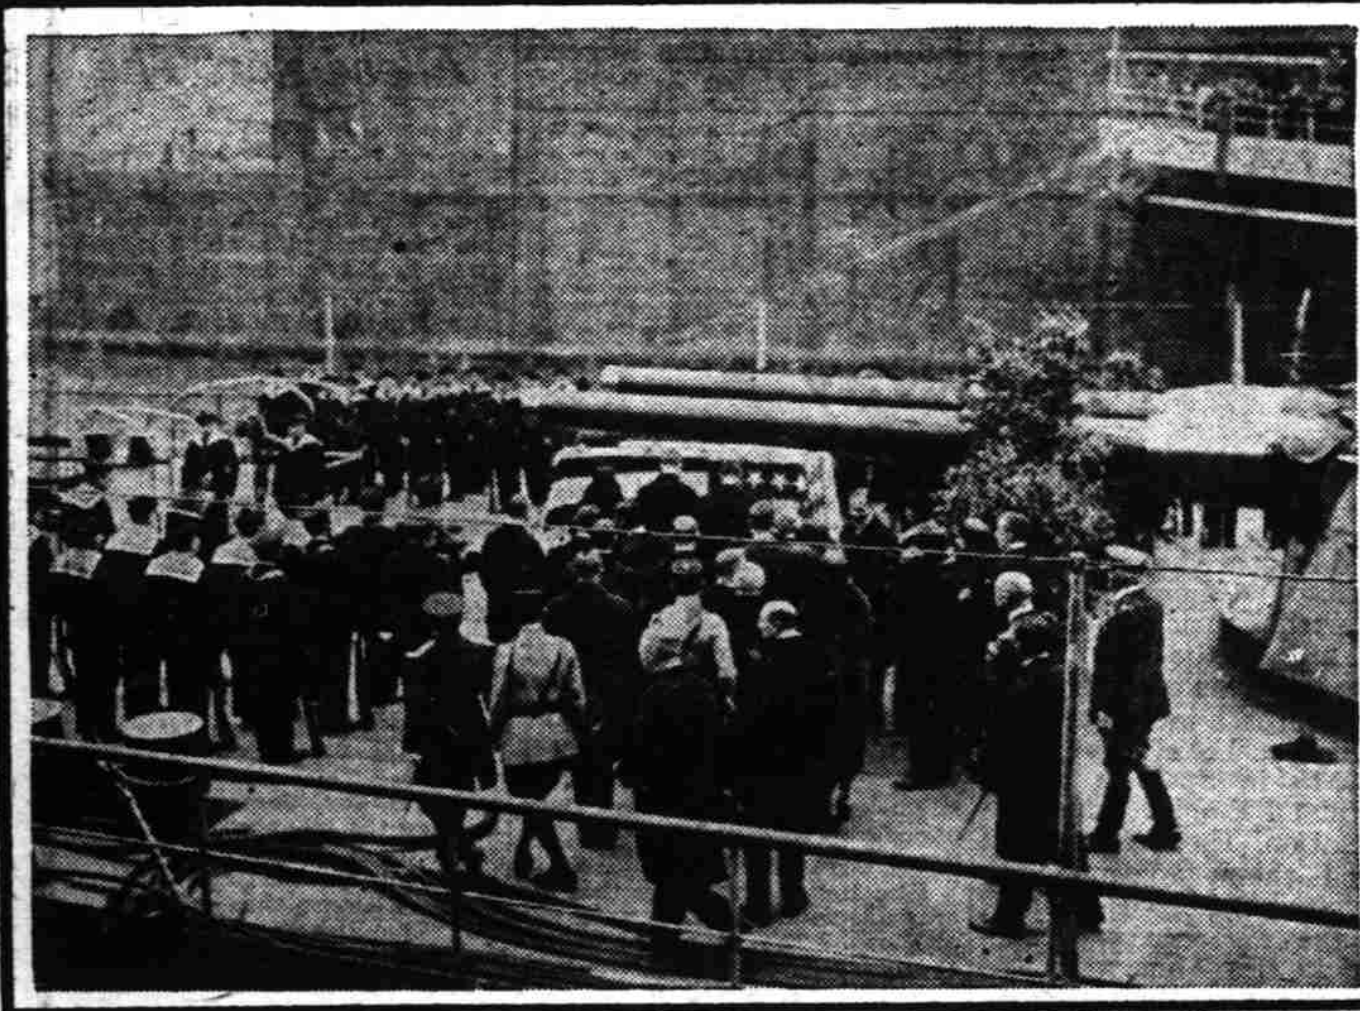

INTO THE ROPES went Bushy Graham, of Utica, N. Y., when he ran into hard right of Kid Chocolate, Cuban featherweight, in second round of their brawl in New York Coliseum, which ended when Referee Jack Dorman awarded the fight to the Kid in the seventh round on a foul.

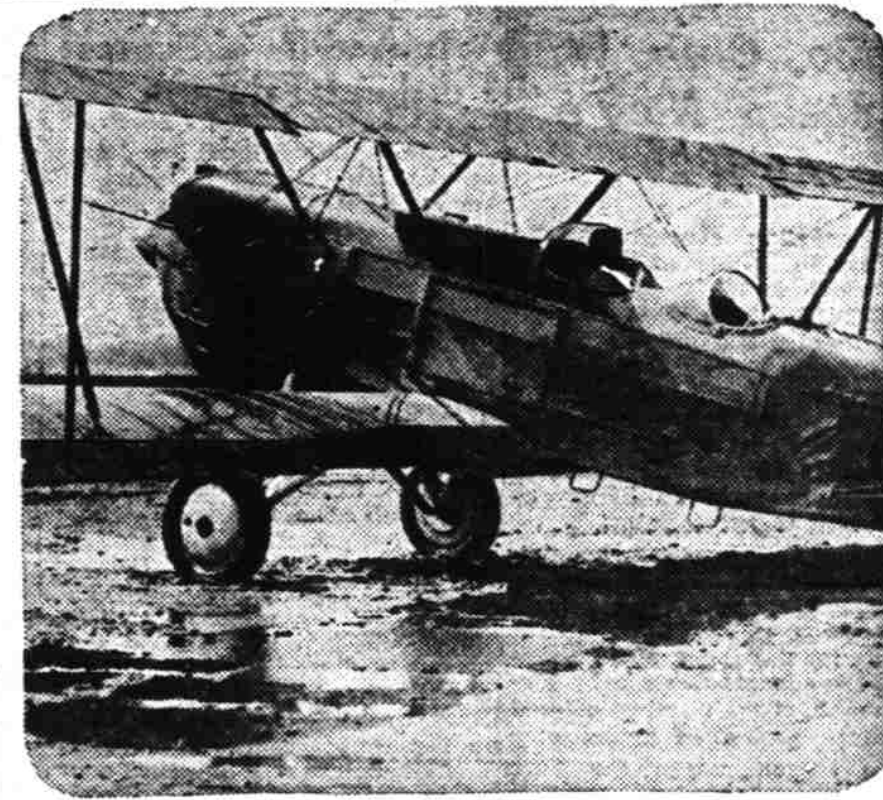

RULING AS QUEEN after hard fight to establish her status at Washington social and diplomatic affairs, Mrs. Edward E. Gann, sister of Vice-President Curtis, wins place of honor at first notable dinner in capital, banquet given by Don Carlos Davila, Chilean ambassador, in honor of Dom Ramirez, Chilean minister of finance. Notables are shown seated as follows: 1, Mrs. Gann; 2, Ambassador Davila; 3, Senora De Telles, wife of Mexican ambassador; 4, Andrew Mellon; 5, Curtis; 6, Senora Davila; 7, Secretary of State Stimson; 8, Mr. Gann; 9, Senator Royal S. Copeland; 10, Secretary of Interior Wilbur; 11, Supreme Court Justice Harlan F. Stone, and, 12, Ambassador Velarde of Peru.

REMAINING LOYAL. Mrs. Roscoe Campbell, of Elizabeth, N. J., shown above with Prosecutor Abe J. David, stands by her husband, H. Colin Campbell, who has confessed to slaying another "wife," Mrs. Mildred Mowry, and burning her body on a road near Cranford, N. J. Below is Campbells' two-year-old daughter, Sally Lou.

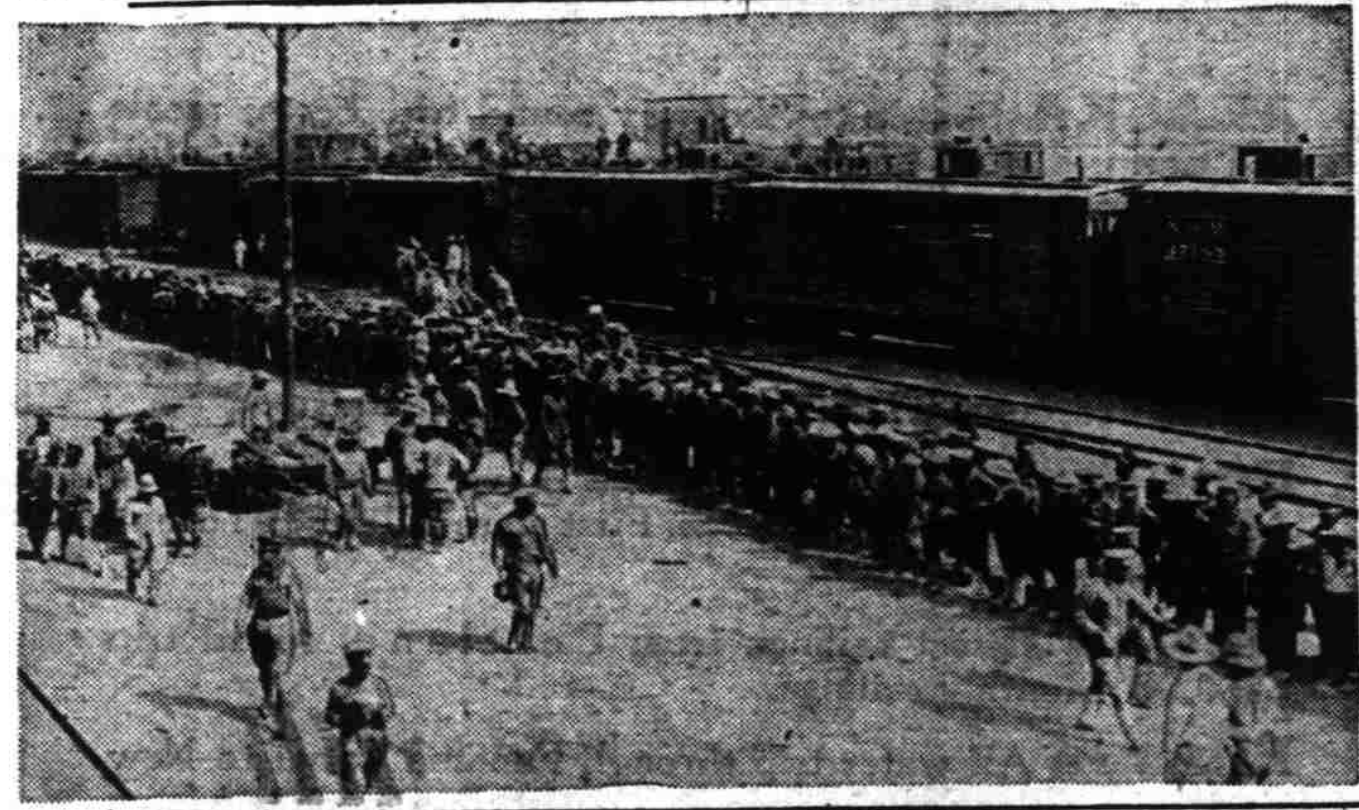

HERRICK RITES aboard the French cruiser Tourville as body of late Ambassador Myron T. Herrick arrives in New York from France. Mr. and Mrs. Parmalee Herrick, Sr., son and daughter-in-law, and their son, Parmalee, Jr., are shown beside flag draped casket with government and New York officials behind them.

LINDY'S LATEST FIGHT, the saddest of his career. Photo shows Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh in plane in which he flew to New York to meet French cruiser Tourville bearing body of his friend, late Ambassador Myron T. Herrick, from France. Herrick was first important American to greet Lindy at end of his memorable flight to Paris.

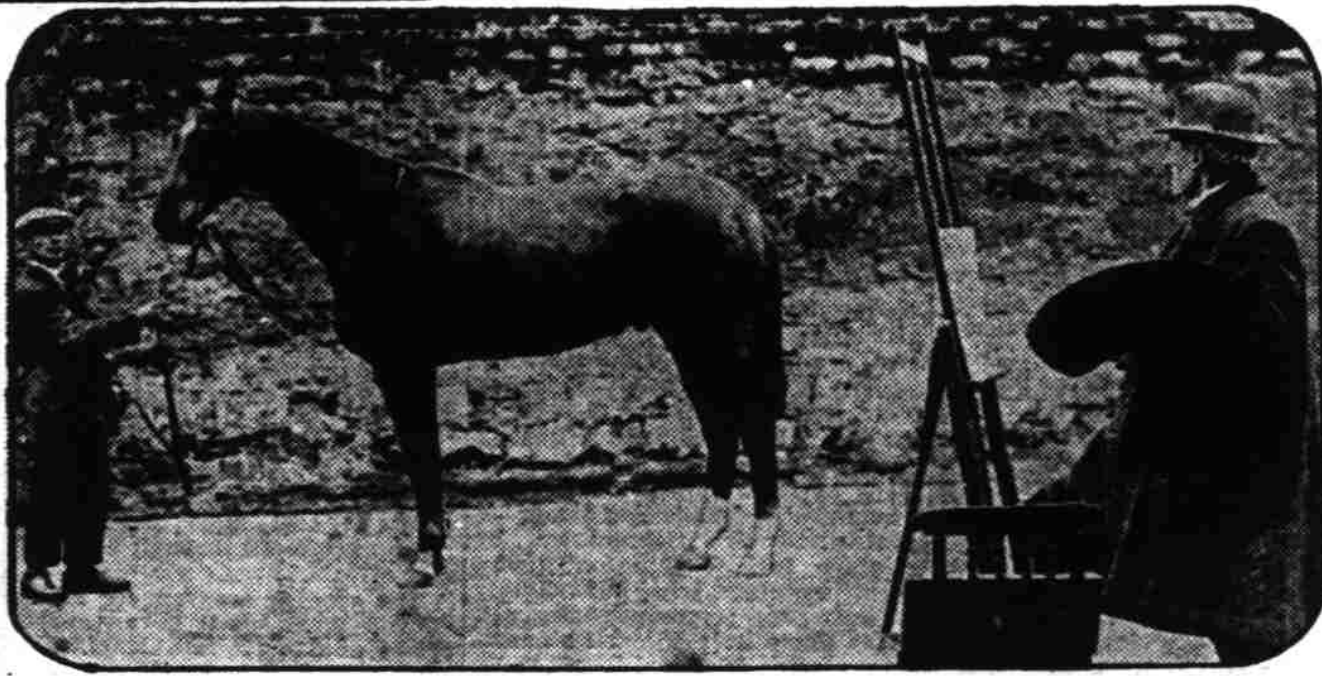

NATIONAL CHAMPION AGAIN is Mrs. Leon Schoonmaker, of New York, who regained fencing title she held in 1925 and 1929 by dethroning Miss Marion Lloyd, 1928 champion.

WAR RUINS AND PRISONERS become every-day sights in fighting sectors of Mexico as federals sweep rebels back. Above is railroad station at Jimenez all but destroyed by heavy artillery fire. Below, 2,000 captured rebels lined up by federals at Jimenez.

ARRESTED AS VAGRANT, Charles Henry Dawson, 63, of Oakland, Cal., was discovered to be owner of $25,000 and considerable property of which he had no knowledge. Dawson told Los Angeles authorities he thought he had signed a quit claim deed in favor of his wife when she was committed to an asylum and then he had disappeared to forget his troubles. Investigation proved estate was still his.

POSING FOR HIS PORTRAIT, Gregalach, winner of Grand National race in England, is painted at Newmarket stables by Lynwood Palmer, noted artist.

TURNING HIS PARLOR into a factory, Peter Lepiczer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has built an airplane in it. Peter and some of his family are seen in the cockpit of the "home-made" aircraft.

OWNER AND MANAGER of a Los Angeles airplane company, Mrs. T. J. Kelly also conducts a flying school. She is shown with her son, M. F. Kelly, her chief pilot.