

ON THE SCREEN THIS WEEK

ADVENTURES MANY IN MAKING PICTURES

Barthelmess and Compson in Adventures at Sea for "Weary River"

Richard Barthelmess and his leading lady, Betty Compson, have had many cinematic adventures in the last two pictures of the First National star, "Scarlet Seas" and "Weary River," the latter drawing large crowds to the Elsinore theatre.

For "Scarlet Seas," Barthelmess and his leading woman lived aboard a windjammer off the coast of Catalina Island, spent days in a lifeboat adrift at sea and all manner of ocean-going experiences, but in "Weary River" they returned to civilization with its night life, cabarets, apartment houses, prisons, etc.

In "Scarlet Seas" their characterizations were rugged and picturesque, in "Weary River" they come closer to the average man and woman, delineating more familiar types. The story is brimful of action and keeps moving from start to finish. For the first time Richard Barthelmess is heard on the Vitaphone and the character he portrays both sings and plays the piano.

The story of "Weary River" is from the original by Courtney Ryley Cooper and was adapted to the screen by Bradley King. It was directed by Frank Lloyd and contains a cast including George Stone, Raymond Turner, William Holden, Robert O'Connor and Louis Natheaux.

On the stage Fanchon and Marco "Varieties" offer a variety of high speed entertainment headed by many well known artists. A special bargain matinee is announced for Monday.

DAVEY LEE HIT IN CAPITOL'S PICTURE

Child Natural Without Any Affectations Traceable to Most Prodigies

Davey Lee is said to be the greatest screen "find" in years, and the Warner Brothers are congratulating themselves. The child is natural, with none of the affectations of most theatre prodigies; he is amusing and winsome; he acts, talks and sings with a most ingratiating charm and a refreshing lack of camera-consciousness.

The lines Davey is given to say are immaterial. When the youngster puckers up his face and says anything at all from "Kin F depend on that" to his prayers and then when he stands right up and sings "Sonny Boy" in a manner that one won't forget for a long time, the audience is his forever.

Manager Frank Bligh of Bligh's Capitol announces that "Sonny Boy" will open an indefinite engagement starting today.

Other features on the bill are four very wonderful Vitaphone vaudeville acts, consisting of Davey Dreyer, famous composer and noted variety star who, with Nora Schiller will render a few of his latest tunes, Bobby Folsom, musical comedy and vaudeville star who will offer a distinctive act in the form of a narrative song. She will make the house roar, with her line of chatter and song. The black face team of Walter Weems and Ed Gar will present a little comedy act that is a riot.

As the feature act on the bill, Larry Ceballos, will present his latest revue, the serpentine girls, and a number of stars will appear on this revue.

ASSESSOR VISITS ZENA

April 20.—Fred Holman, county assessor of Dallas, his wife, Mrs. Holman and their son Sammy were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Barker of Zena.

Classified advertising in the Oregon Statesman brings results.

At the Elsinore Today

Richard Barthelmess in his first walking picture, "Weary River"

CRAWFORDS VISIT FATHER'S BEDSIDE

SPRING VALLEY, April 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Doune Crawford and daughter Gladys motored to Portland the forepart of the week, where Mrs. Crawford and Gladys will remain indefinitely at the bedside of Mrs. Crawford's father, J. C. Zinser, who is seriously ill at his home. Little hope is given for the recovery of Mr. Zinser, who is suffering from effects of heart trouble and artery trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Zinser resided in Spring Valley a number of years but sold their farm, which is known as the Oak Knoll farm, in small ten acre tracts and moved to the city where Mr. Zinser's health began to fail. Their many friends here hope to hear of an improvement in Mr. Zinser's condition.

Private E. Ray of Camp Lewis, Wash., was a visitor at the home of friends in Spring Valley during the past week. This is the first furlough the young man has had since his enlistment. He arrived at the home of his brother Elmer C. Ray near Dallas about two weeks ago and is on leave until the middle of May. Private Ray formerly was in the cavalry at Monterey, but since October has been in the infantry, stationed at Camp Lewis. His work is driving trucks and tanks. The Rays are well known here where they lived for many years, and attended the Spring Valley school.

PARTY GIVEN FOR INTENDED BRIDE

VALSETZ, April 20.—One of the most charming social events of the season was given Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Ross in honor of their daughter Vesta, who is to be married soon to Charles McArthur of Vernonia, Ore.

The guests were Mrs. W. Webber, Mrs. Levi Green, Mrs. Lafferer, Mrs. George King, Mrs. Bill Carver, Mrs. Lester Green, Mrs. Archie Brown, Mrs. Anna Davis, Mrs. Stoltenberg, Mrs. Henry Patton, Mrs. Robert Massie, Mrs. D. Lafferer, Mrs. Jim Carver, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Don Bloyd, Mrs. J. Morris, Mrs. Grace Wickland, Mrs. Coy Morris, Mrs. M. Moan, Vera Massie, Louise Brown, Hazel Gardner and Vera Massie.

The evening was spent playing games and practical jokes. About 11 o'clock the guests were served dainty refreshments at the home

SALEM WOMEN ARE GUESTS AT HOPMERE

Mrs. Bruce Jones Gives Missionary Society Use of Home

HOPMERE, April 20.—Mrs. Bruce Jones entertained the Clear Lake Missionary society and the Evangelical Missionary society of Salem at her home near Hopmere recently.

The president opened the meeting with a scripture reading, and Mrs. Polling made the opening prayer. Discussion of the lesson by Rev. H. R. Sheuerman, Rev. Poling gave a talk on the early work of the Evangelical church in the Willamette valley. Vocal solo by Mrs. Earl Bransen. Mrs. Clara Collard, who is 80 years old, gave a very interesting talk on how and when the first Evangelical church was established in Mission Bottom, having been the first to have an Evangelical church and even older than Salem's Evangelical church. A leaflet reading, by Mrs. Reese Jones. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Lizzie Massey and Mrs. V. Boyd.

in the group were: Mrs. G. N. Thompson, Mrs. J. A. Remington, Mrs. Hulda Maves, Mrs. J. Ulrich, Mrs. Nancy Armstrong, Rev. and Mrs. C. G. Poling, Mrs. Arthur Rex, Mrs. A. Helficker, Mrs. A. Burgess, Mrs. Ida Beroley, Rev. and Mrs. Layton, Mrs. L. L. Thomson, Mrs. Jacob Vogt, Mrs. A. Caughley, Mrs. Lucy St. Clair, Mrs. S. P. McCracken and Mrs. S. D. Cooley all of Salem. Mrs. Fred Hammond, Mrs. Alex Harold, Mrs. Paul Giroud, Mrs. Charles Beckner, Mrs. Roy Smith and daughter Estelene Smith, Mrs. J. C. McFarland, Mrs. Lizzie Massey, Mrs. Rudolph Truschell, Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Sheuerman, and daughter Opal Sheuerman, Mrs. Guy Smith and daughter, Betty Jean Smith, Miss Ester Truschell, Mrs. Reese Jones, Mrs. Ear Bransen, Miss Flora Schlag, Mrs. Dutoit, Mrs. Clara Collard, Miss Marie Harold, Mrs. Theodore Stolk, Mrs. Amos Smith and Mrs. V. Boyd, Mrs. Bransen and the hostess, Mrs. Bruce Jones.

The monthly meeting of the Sunday school board was at Mrs. Massie's home April 17. The meeting was called to order at 7:30 by Mrs. Mixer, Rev. Bailey, the chairman, being unable to attend. Minutes of the previous meeting and report of the treasurer were read. It was decided the Sunday school prepare a Mother's day program. A committee of three was appointed. Mrs. Massie, chairman, Mrs. Wiggins and Mrs. King. The boys class is to be divided into two groups.

A quilting bee was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Massie. The quilt was put in the frames about 9 a. m. Mrs. Mixer, Mrs. Frost, Mrs. Lester Green, Mrs. Webber, Mrs. Westman, and the hostess enjoyed a pot luck lunch at 12:30. Several more ladies, who could not come for the day, helped in the afternoon. Everyone had a real good time and the quilt was completely finished.

The children of the eighth grade held a sale of home made candies and made $4.57. They are raising money to buy a present to present to the school when they graduate June 14.

STAYTON CAMP FIRE PUTS ON PROGRAM

STAYTON, April 20.—Ookya, the younger group of Camp Fire Girls, is putting on an entertainment at the high school auditorium on Saturday night. Mrs. R. G. Wood is guardian and is directing the cast. A three-act play "Spruce Cone and Birch-berry" which is written especially for Camp Fire Girls will be presented also a 2-act play "Renting the Pickaninnies."

Stayton is one of the towns in the Cascade baseball league along with Mt. Angel, Woodburn, Donald, St. Paul, Selo, Lebanon and Cloverdale. Fourteen games are scheduled, beginning Sunday, April 28th. Stayton team will have a practice for try-outs on Sunday, April 21 at 2 p. m.

JUDGE WALKER SETTER MONMOUTH, April 20.—Judge Arlie G. Walker who has been ill for the past 10 days with influenza, is improving but is still confined to his bed, according to information obtained Wednesday by H. G. Black, county clerk. Mr. Walker expected at that time to be in Dallas April 22 to start the April term of circuit but was not certain. The term was scheduled to open April 8.

Line Strikes Valsetz Man; Death Looms

VALSETZ, April 20.—Coming from Portland and arriving here Tuesday night to work in the logging department, Floyd Christy only worked two hours when he was struck with at trip line, the line hitting him on the head. He was rushed on a speeder to Hoskins. From there an ambulance took him to St. Vincent's hospital in Portland. His chances for recovery are very slight. Mr. Christy is about 30 years old.

Charlie Aldrich has returned after being in Vader, Washington for nearly three months, where his wife is receiving treatments for rheumatism. Mr. Aldrich will remember in Vader for several weeks yet. She has been ill since about the middle of Dec. 23.

Bert McConnell sprained his right ankle while at work the other day. Although not serious he is compelled to take a few days rest.

Prof. Stanwood and County School Superintendent Josiah Willis spent 2 days visiting the school. They drove in as far as Hayden's ranch.

After being here 10 months, Dr. Sargent is going to Sheridan, Ore., where he will remain indefinitely. Dr. Harris of Spokane, Wash is taking charge of the medical office.

The J. O. G. Bridge club met with Ellen Wright Thursday. A pleasant afternoon was spent. Letta Lawson winning first honors and Pauline Powell received the small prize.

200 ATTEND MEET OF STAR IN WOODBURN

Oregon Grape and Narcissus Attractive in Decorations of Hall

WOODBURN, April 20.—Over 200 were present at the district meeting of Laurel chapter, No. 113, O. E. S. of Canby, Gervais chapter, No. 118, O. E. S. of Mollala, and Evergreen chapter, No. 41, O. E. S., of Woodburn, in the Masonic temple Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Bess Setters, worthy grand matron of Oregon, made her official visit of inspection at the time. Other officers present were Mrs. Theresa Castner, past grand matron, Mrs. Minnie Wolf White, associate grand conductor, and Mrs. Violet Castner, grand marshal. All the officers addressed the representatives of the four chapters. Mrs. Setters' talk being the principal one.

The meeting room was attractively decorated with Oregon grape and narcissus. A feature of the decorating was the special lighting on the five points of the star.

Each chapter contributed a share in the work of the evening. The session was opened and closed by the officers of the Laurel chapter, escort work was done by Orchard chapter, balloting by Gervais chapter, and the conferring of degrees upon four candidates by Evergreen chapter.

During the work special solos were given by A. L. Strickland, Mrs. V. D. Bain, and Miss Elita Lytle. After the ceremonies, Mr. Strickland, and Miss McIntyre sang a vocal duet, accompanied by Mrs. Strickland on the piano. Pearl Stevens, past matron of Gervais chapter, presented Mrs. Setters with a beautiful gift on behalf of the four chapters present. Bouquets of flowers were also presented to the worthy matron and the officers with her.

Refreshments were served in the banquet room after the business meeting by Mrs. B. H. Grubb, assisted by Mrs. H. M. Austin, and Miss Myrtle Fikan. Mrs. Wayne Gill, who was in charge of the decorating and tables, was assisted by Mrs. Floyd Massey, Mrs. Elburn T. Sims, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Fred Holcomb, and Mrs. Ivan C. Beers.

It was decided the next meeting would be at Scotts Mills. Officers who were elected are: Marie Dunning, president; Josie Hartman, vice president; Mamie Wooster, secretary treasurer all of Scotts Mills except Mrs. Hartman who is from Silverton.

The Woodburn were invited to take part in the social event of the evening and the presenters a beautiful bouquet of flowers to the ladies organization in the afternoon as did also the Silver camp.

Mrs. G. G. Carbray—president of the Woman's club of Independence and Mrs. Mattison visited the Oak Point club Thursday afternoon.

Farm News The auction sale which was held last Saturday by Mr. I. W. Compton and his sister Mrs. J. G. Standard brought pleasing results. Between 700 and 800 people were there. Mr. Compton offered 13 purebred Jerseys for sale, the prices for which they sold ranging from $55 to $140. Mr. Compton and Mrs. Standard exchanged property here for a store in Warrenton and are expecting to leave here soon.

The girls junior class of the Methodist Sunday school entertained the boys class of the same age in the basement of the church Friday evening. About 14 were present at the party.

The evening was spent playing games. Miss Trula Grant, the teacher for the girls class aided by some of the girls served refreshments. Mr. Wiley Grant is expected to leave here soon.

The girls junior class of the Methodist Sunday school entertained the boys class of the same age in the basement of the church Friday evening. About 14 were present at the party.

The evening was spent playing games. Miss Trula Grant, the teacher for the girls class aided by some of the girls served refreshments. Mr. Wiley Grant is expected to leave here soon.

Read the Classified Ads.

Giese-Powers Dissolution Sale Brings Greatest Values in Used Furniture We Must Vacate in 8 Days

The Landlord has notified us through his attorney we must be out of our Exchange building by May 1st or have a lawsuit. So out we go. Prices cut to move our entire stock of used merchandise regardless of cost. Remember only 8 days left. If we have what you want you can buy it at practically your own figure. A visit to our exchange department will convince you.

TERMS :: Even at These Close-Out Prices :: TERMS Giese-Powers Furniture Co. 371 Court St. Salem, Oregon

ELSINORE TODAY-Tomorrow-Hurry HEAR HIM SING AND TALK Richard Barthelmess WEARY RIVER His marvelous Baritone voice doubles the thrills that his wonderful singing gives you

Now Playing CAPITOL Starts Today Continuous Shows Daily 2 till 11 See him! Hear him! IF YOU LIKED DAVEY LEE YOU'LL LOVE HIM THE SINGING FOOL YOU'LL LOVE HIM SONNY BOY NO RAISE IN PRICES