B. P. W. Dinner Event For Tonight

The Business and Professional Women's club will hold a dinner meeting this evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Knight Memorial church. The dinner will be served by the women of the church.

The hostess committee for the evening included Miss Amy Martin, Mrs. Ora McIntyre, Miss Grace Taylor, Miss Mona Yoder, Mrs. Mable Houston, Miss Ellen Hobson, and Mrs. Margaret Jorgenson.

The musical program will be provided by Miss Josephine Olson and Miss Margaret Eddy of Willamette University. Later in the evening there will be an interesting initiation service for a group of new members.

As this is the last meeting before the state convention at Eugene May 24-26, the delegates to the convention will be appointed at this time. Plans will also be made for attendance at the districtally meeting which will be held at Oregon City, April 27.

Evening Bridge Affair Saturday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Wicker entertained at a pretty three-table bridge party in their home on South Church street Saturday evening.

Bowls of hyacinths and tulips decorated the rooms.

After a few hours of bridge a lovely supper was served. The group included Mr. and Mrs. Ted Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Mudd, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Bedee, Dr. and Mrs. K. H. Waters, Miss Grata Glenn, Marvin Roth and the Misses, Mr. and Mrs. Wicker.

High score honors of the evening were awarded to Mrs. Mudd and Dr. Waters.

Stringer Betrothal Of Interest Here

Cards have been received by friends announcing the betrothal of Miss Helen Elizabeth Stringer to Mr. Ernest Gabriel Raas. Miss Stringer is the daughter of Mr. W. A. Stringer of San Francisco and a granddaughter of the late Rev. P. S. Knight and Mrs. P. S. Knight, well known pioneer residents of Salem. Mr. Knight was superintendent of the state school for the blind for a long period. He was a generation pastor of the First Congregational church and the Knight Memorial church; having been the founder of the latter, as well as the mission church near the Silverton highway. Besides this, Rev. Knight was instrumental in a number of building and other projects.

Mr. Raas was a member of the editorial staff of The Statesman.

Miss Rodgers will be Hostess at Bridge

Miss Zarilda Rodgers will entertain at an evening bridge affair for a number of the younger set at her home on South 23rd street Friday evening. A decorative color scheme of green and gold will be carried out about the drawing room.

Those who have been bidden to the affair are Alida Olsen, Caroyal Owen, Julia Creech, Dorothy Moore, Katherine Corey, Virginia Hesson, Margaret Drager, Virginia Holt, Margaret Wilson, Ruth Fick, Yvonne Smith, Maxine Myers, Dorothy White and Alice Rodgers.

The Sons of Veterans and their auxiliary will hold their regular meeting in the Women's clubhouse on North Cottage street.

Mrs. Gatte's Drama class will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon with Mrs. Carl Nelson, 960 E street.

The sewing circle of the Relief Corps will meet at the fairgrounds Thursday for an all-day long. There will be a potluck dinner.

Neighbors Report Interesting Convention

The Independence and Suver Royal Neighbors of America entertained at the annual Dowell convention April 22. The various camps represented at the convention were those of Dallas, Chemawa, Scotts Mills, Silverton, Peede, Salem and the hostess camps. There was also a visitor from Portland with work exemplified by the different camps with the state supervising deputy, Ida M. Mambin, instructing.

In the afternoon there was a large class adoption put on by the Dallas camp. The evening program which was open to the public included addresses, music, yells and contest files. Among the speakers of the evening was the district deputy, Beatrice Shadoin of Corvallis, district deputy, Sarah Peterson of Salem.

The World's a of Independence and Suver entered the convention with a large basket of flowers as a part of the program.

There were 38 delegates from Salem in attendance at the convention who reported an informative and entertaining time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bergeson entertained at a family dinner in their home Sunday afternoon. Daffodils and narcissus centered the dinner table where places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Harold Goheen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newburgh of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Scott, Jr. and Mrs. Charles Newburgh and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Bergeson.

All W. C. T. U. women who plan to attend the County Convention at Woodburn will meet at the Senator hotel. The bus will leave promptly at 9 o'clock.

The North Salem W. C. T. U. will meet at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Presnell, 589 Locust street.

Mrs. O. P. Thayer L'Heur Gaie Hostess

An attractive affair of Monday afternoon was the L'Heur Gaie luncheon for which Mrs. O. P. Thayer was hostess at the Elk's Temple.

The luncheon table was centered with a beautiful centerpiece of French marigolds between four tapers in gold.

Places were laid for the special guests, Mrs. Rosenbaum, Mrs. Hansen, and Mrs. W. H. Grabenhorst, Mrs. A. C. Nelson, Mrs. Guy Irwin, Mrs. E. E. Ling, Mrs. Bert Flack, Mrs. C. V. McKelvey, Mrs. Fred Williams, Mrs. Ross Bidwell, Mrs. W. H. Hogan, Mrs. R. H. Baldeck, Mrs. S. R. Dippel, Mrs. John Orr, Mrs. Frank M. Moore, Mrs. Grover Hillman, and the hostess, Mrs. Thayer.

Following the luncheon the group were entertained with a few hours of bridge. The high score award of the afternoon was won by Mrs. Orr.

Mrs. Mack Honored at Afternoon Affair

Mrs. M. N. Chapman and Miss Oda Chapman entertained at an informal affair Saturday afternoon for the pleasure of Mrs. Lora Mack of Los Angeles, who has been one of the most popular visitors in Salem this season.

Included in the guest group were Mrs. Ruben Boise, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. John H. Lauterman, Mrs. Henry Meyers, Miss Margaret Casper and Mrs. E. B. Lockhart of Hillsboro.

Mrs. Mack plans to return to her home in California shortly.

Son of Former Salem Resident Marries

At a quiet wedding in Seattle, Miss Esther Bayly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bayly of Monroe, Washington, and Lindsay M. Applegate, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Applegate of Walla Walla, were united in marriage April 14. Only the immediate relatives of the young people were in attendance at the ceremony.

Mrs. Applegate will graduate from the University of Washington in June after which she will join Mr. Applegate in San Francisco where they plan to make their home.

Mrs. Applegate only recently resigned his position in the engineering department in the University of Washington to become an assistant electrical engineer at the Presidio in San Francisco. He is the son of A. M. Applegate, who spent his boyhood in Salem and is the brother of the Misses Lillian and Pearl Applegate of Salem.

Among those who were present at the wedding ceremony were Mrs. A. M. Applegate and the Misses Dorothy and Katherine Applegate.

Miss Wrenn will Speak Of Oriental Travels

Miss Sarah Wrenn will speak to the members of the social afternoon club of the Eastern Star at its meeting in the Masonic Temple this afternoon. Miss Wrenn will speak of her personal experiences while traveling in Japan.

Mrs. Ida B. Olson is chairman of the committee in charge of the affair. Mrs. Olson will be assisted by Mrs. Ethel McGeart, Mrs. Myrtle Pierson, Mrs. Fannie Millard, Mrs. Ulva Morse, Mrs. Mable Moore, Mrs. Eva Hulse, Mrs. Elsie Harrison, Mrs. Grace Mickelson and Mrs. Bertha McMahan.

A. A. U. W. Nominates Officers for 1929-30

Nominations for officers of the Salem chapter of American Association of University Women were made at the luncheon meeting of the Association Saturday afternoon at the Gray Belle. The formal election will be held at the May meeting.

The nominations were as follows: Miss Beryl Holt, president; Mrs. Alice Bates Fisher, vice-president; Mrs. Milo Rasmussen, secretary, and Mrs. Karl Pease, treasurer.

The Willard Male Quartet from Monmouth and Independence will present a program at the First Evangelical church at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Albricht Brotherhood and the Philatheaan class.

Honoring Mrs. S. E. Jones who celebrated her 89th birthday anniversary Thursday, Mrs. George E. Allen entertained a group of friends at a 1 o'clock luncheon in her home on North 17th street Wednesday.

MILADY'S FOUNDATION GARMENTS AS IMPORTANT AS HER FROCKS

Milady's lingerie is quite as important as her gown. In fact, the success of the gown is largely dependent on the foundation garments over which it is worn. Now and then, underthings are pictured here. Reading from left to right they are: Printed celanese taffeta dance set, a lacy chemise and silk girdle, silk "toddys" with lace inserted negligee, and, at extreme right, a white and pink lace set with girdle and applique of lace.

Flack-Wright Dinner Saturday Night Affair

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Flack and Mr. and Mrs. David Wright were hosts to a group of friends at an attractive dinner and bridge party in the Flack home Saturday evening. At the dinner table Japanese quince was gracefully arranged between tapers that reflected the same shade.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Hamilton, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Grote, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bidwell and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Flack and Mr. and Mrs. Wright.

Following dinner the group was entertained with a few hours of bridge in the drawing room where daffodils formed a bright decorative note.

The W. H. M. society of the First Methodist church will hold its birthday dinner in the church parlors Friday at 6:30 o'clock. This will be a pot luck dinner at which the husbands will be guests of honor.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner are spending the week-end at their cottage at Neskowin beach.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Griffith entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baker and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger at their cottage at Neskowin beach over the week-end.

We gather from reports from Mexico that being a soldier in that country is somewhat safer than being a pedestrian in this country.—Albany News.

COULD NOT SLEEP NIGHTS

Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Fairhaven, Mass.—"I am taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during the Change of Life. When I feel nervous and run-down my husband gets me a bottle right away. It is a great help to me and I think that if other people would only take it when they feel all run-down and take it as the directions say, they would find it a great benefit. My worst symptoms were nervousness and tired feelings. I could not sleep nights and I was so nervous I would cry if anyone looked at me."—Mrs. ADA BESSE, 196 Washington Street, Fairhaven, Mass.
