Salem Bowlers Return to This City Carrying Many Honors From N. W. Contest

Broad grins were worn by all of Salem's bowlers who were entered in the Northwest Congress at Vancouver, B. C., on their return from that city Monday with numerous honors won and others in prospect when the tournament is ended.

Henry Barr was one of the outstanding winners. For a time Sunday he was the all-events champion in the commercial class with his score of 1610, but a Tacoma man named Dempsey finally passed that mark. Barr and Mert Hemenway took second place in the commercial class doubles with a score of 1073.

The O'Leary's Legionnaires, who took the lead in the open team competition Saturday night, with a score of 2732, were still ahead at latest reports Monday, but this event continues through this week and there remains considerable opportunity for some one to nose them out.

UNITED STATES IS HELD WORLD POWER

"From the time our Constitution was struck off, the United States has been a world power," declared Edward L. Mead, former director of the World Peace foundation at Boston, in an address at Willamette university, Monday. "All the national constitutions written in modern times have been modeled after our own. It is in such ways as these, not by the sinking of a half-dozen second-hand Spanish battleships, that the United States has become a world power," Mr. Mead declared.

Mr. Mead said he considered Washington, Jefferson and Franklin the three greatest American statesmen because they were primarily statesmen of peace. He stated further that peace and freedom have always grown together.

America was not kept out of the League of Nations by the desires of the majority of the people or by a majority of the senate, but merely by narrow-minded partisanship, Mr. Mead averred. "The majority of the house of representatives may declare war, but where it takes a two-thirds vote of the senate to ratify a peace treaty."

Mr. Mead is travelling throughout the Pacific coast region making studies of American relations with orientals and other foreigners.

VISITORS AT MEET WILL NEED ROOMS

Salem hotels are offering splendid cooperation to the Salem Real Estate association in the matter of promising availability for the some 500 delegates who are expected here to attend the annual meeting of the Northwest association July 21, 25 and 26. A. C. Bohrsmeider, chairman of the housing committee, reported Monday following receipt of a letter from T. W. Zimmerman, executive secretary of the northwest group. It is possible the local hosts will have to prevail upon Salem people to take care of a small percentage of the outsiders expected. However, efforts are being made to secure hotel accommodations for all.

KELSO LEADING BALL CIRCUIT

LONGVIEW, Wash., April 22.—(AP)—Kelso's Timber Wolves vanquished Longview's Forest Rangers, 6 to 4, in the opening game of the Oregon-Washington Baseball league here Sunday.

The Rangers got away to a brilliant start in the opening stanza with three runs on a walk and doubles by Harris and Lepick, but went to pieces in the third, giving Kelso four counters on two bobbles, three walks, a wild pitch and a double by Taylor. Sparkling catches by Harold Smith and Anderson and Renitrow of Kelso were features.

Before the game Mike Price, Kelso, who leaves soon to umpire in the Mississippi Valley league, was presented with a floral horseshoe. Players and officials of the Longview Soccer club, champions of the Longview Soccer league, were introduced and also presented with a floral piece, both contributions being from admiring fans.

Only one game was played in the Oregon-Washington league Sunday, the game here between the Salem Senators and Longview being called off on account of rain and wet grounds, and a similar fate overtaking the Albany vs. Mt. Scott game at Albany.

Manager "Frisco" Edwards of the Senators has not been notified whether the next game against Longview will be postponed on account of the opening game, or against Longview, its scheduled opponent for the second Sunday. In either case the game will be on the home grounds, and preparations for the opening game will be continued. Opening day prizes for the ball players will be offered by local business houses, it has been announced.

Because of the rain and the condition of the grounds, it was not possible to hold practice Sunday, although several of the players were on hand.

Billy Sullivan, Sr., was over from Newberg and told the Senator manager that Billy, Jr., would be home from college about June 1, and would be ready to join the Senators at that time. He didn't know whether Joe, his older son, would be available this summer or not. Billy played first base for the Senators for the last two seasons, and Joe a part of each season.

Tom Turner, manager of the Portland Beavers, will be in Salem late this week and Edwards hopes at that time to sign up a game here for some Monday soon when the Beavers would otherwise be in the city.

WHITE WINNER OF NET MEET

Hobson Defeated in Straight Sets in Final Match of Tournament Here

Ivan White emerged as winner of the singles in the Salem Tennis association spring tournament when he defeated Herbert Hobson 6-2, 6-0, 6-4 in the final match last week end. White also figured in the doubles victory, he and Jack Minto winning from Hagarth and Hagemann, 6-0, 6-4, 2-6, 6-4.

The spring tournament proved a success despite the handicap of bad weather which caused the matches to be strung out over more than two weeks instead of being finished in three days. There were 15 entries in the singles and seven doubles teams and fast tennis was played considering the brief time in which practice was possible.

As was previously announced, the association will limit use of its courts to paid up members now that the courts are in better shape. Dues may be paid to Ivan White, secretary, or to French Hagemann, Ralph Curtis or Jack Minto.
