

Red Millet, Ring Comedian, Billed For Ten Round Go Here

HUBBARD YOUTH IS COMPETITOR

Fight Fans Will be Treated to Funny Stuff Thursday Night at Army

Trust Harry Plant to get on the track of a real ring sensation the instant he appears. Ever since Wesley "Red" Millet met fans' tongues wagging in Portland with the combination of side-splitting comedy antics and serious fistic prowess, Plant has been angling for his appearance in the army ring here.

Now it is an accomplished fact. The army youngster who has caused all of Portland's sport writers to trot out their best adjectives is billed to meet "Spud" Murphy of Hubbard, who has a sense of humor combined with an indomitable fighting spirit himself, here next Thursday night. Wild Foes Indulged In By Portlander

According to those Portland scribes, Millet uses some of the most grotesque poses and gestures ever seen in the ring, but they have a purpose. Millet has adapted to the fistic game, the principle established by Ty Cobb in baseball that if the other fellow never knows what you're going to do next, you have him at a big advantage. While Millet is going through his queer mannerisms, if his opponent doesn't double up in mirth just as the ringriders do, at least he's at a loss what to do about it.

Forty Fights Passed Without Mishap

"Some chap may hit me on the nose when I am doing this, but so far I have gotten by pretty well," Millet explained to one writer.

He is a youngster, yet has had plenty of ring experience; about 40 fights. He was amateur champion of his class for two years at Salt Lake City.

Spud Murphy has always made a hit with the fans here by his nerve and aggressiveness, and this ought to make one of the best main events of the year from the spectators' standpoint. The matchmaker is lining up preliminaries of corresponding merit, and expects to give the fans one of the biggest shows of the season next Thursday night.

SALEM HUNT CLUB PLANS ON OPENING

Friday night, May 17, was set as the tentative date for the opening of the Salem Hunt club, at a meeting to that organization, held Friday night at the chamber of commerce.

President Douglas McKay was in the chair, but told the club a press of Legion work would necessitate his resigning. Election of a new president will be deferred until the next week, when it is hoped a larger turnout will be had. McKay expressed considerable pleasure at the growth of the club to 150 members in the comparatively short time it has been under way.

A committee, to be named later, was authorized to make plans for the "open house" event, and another committee will be appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws.

The management of the airplane company is very desirous of seeing the new Salem airport completed as the present airplane field is poorly drained and is too small to be satisfactory as a landing spot.

Salem Club Takes St. Mary's High 3-2 Here

PITCHER'S DUAL IS FAST AFFAIR

Beechler's Three Base Clout Paves Way for Winning Run by Local Team

A mighty three base bingle in the sixth inning by Beechler paved the way for Salem high school's baseball victory over St. Mary's high, 3 to 2, in an exceptionally close pitchers' battle Friday afternoon, the first inter-high school ball game ever played on Olinger field.

Van Cleave, Salem high pitcher, and Woodard, indolent moundsman for St. Mary's, both had opposing batsmen at their mercy except in the last half of the second and the first half of the third inning, when both teams scored two runs, and in the sixth, when Beechler's golf swing ticketed a fast one for deep center field. Backe came through with a single after two were out, to score Beechler for the winning run.

Van Cleave's Two Bagger Sets Pace

Van Cleave put his team in the lead with a two bagger in the second which scored Backe and Sequin. The visitors tied the score their next turn at bat, Coleman and Wyffel denting the rubber as they got a base on balls and three singles.

In the ninth the locals cut short a promising rally with a neat double play.

New Field Showing Up Well in Use

Two high school games played on Olinger field this week have proven the truth of predictions made last summer when plans for the new athletic field were first announced, that it would be the best arranged plant of its kind anywhere in the northwest, for all sports but especially for baseball and football.

The Salem Senators, by acquiring a three year lease on the use of this field for their regular games, have taken advantage of the excellence of this arrangement and attendance at the Oregon-Washington league contests here this year is expected to be enhanced as a result.

All seats in the grandstand as well as those in the temporary bleachers recently erected, afford a full view of the playing field with perfect safety assured at the same time, since fine wire screen has been placed across the entire front of the stands. Home plate will be directly in front of the middle of the grandstand.

The diamond is laid out in such a way that there will be no "sun field" where outfielders may lose sight of the ball against the sun. The right fielder will have a little trouble, late in the afternoon, in seeing what is going on around third base, but none in following fly balls. The batter and catcher will be looking toward the sun, but it will be too high to bother them in seeing pitched balls.

Followers of the Senators will have their first opportunity to judge the advantages of the new park, Sunday when the Longview team comes here for the opening game of the Oregon-Washington league schedule.

JORY RESTS WELL AFTER BAD BURNS

Roland Jory, member of a pioneer Marion county family and resident of the Liberty district, was reported last night as "doing nicely" following treatment for severe burns he suffered Thursday when flames from explosion of a can of distillate seared his body and one hand. He, with Roland Seager and W. H. Dorman, was burning brush in his orchard when the accident occurred. Had it not been for Seager and Dorman, Mr. Jory might have been fatally burned. Seeing his plight, they rushed to him and shortly put out the flames. He is at a Salem hospital.

WILLAMETTE TEAM PLAYS LINFIELD 9

The opening game of Northwest conference baseball in Salem will be played at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon on Sweetland field, when the Willamette Bearcats meet the Linfield Wildcats. Judging from the limited information about Coach Silke's team from McMinnville, it will be a hard fought contest.

Coach "Spec" Keene of Willamette hasn't announced who will do the writing for his team, but the remainder of the lineup is fairly certain. Ed Cardinal will be behind the bat, and the infield will include Scales at first base, Adams on second, Gibson or Trachsel at short and Hook on third. In the outfield field choices will depend on whether the opposing pitcher is right or left handed, possibilities being Gill, McGinn, Deets, McMullen, Welch and Roundtree.

Pauline Findley, captain, will play No. 1 against C. P. S. and her sister Edith, No. 2; Doris Steele has been designated as No. 3, and Margaret Morehouse, who won a letter last year, will be No. 4.

The men's team going to Corvallis includes Ivan White, No. 1; Jack Minton, captain, No. 2; French Hagemann, No. 3; Kenneth Litchfield, No. 4; Wesley Roeder and Alfred Hiaworth, whose ranking with respect to each other has not been determined.

All members of the men's team excepting Roeder are lettermen and it is considered the strongest team Willamette has developed in a number of years. Last year the O. S. C. team defeated the Bearcats twice, but had a hard time doing it on both occasions.

BOWLING MEET DETAILS FIXED

First Handicap Event of Its Kind Ever Staged Here to be May 4-5-6

Plans for Salem's first handicap bowling tournament were announced Friday by the Salem Bowling association, which has appointed Fred Karr to have full charge. The event will be staged at the Winter Garden alleys May 4, 5 and 6.

Events have been arranged for five man teams, doubles teams and singles players. A bowler may play two five man teams if he is a regular member of both in league play, but he must elect which of his scores will count in the all-events competition.

Two-thirds handicap will be allowed, with 175 designated as scratch. A number of attractive prizes have been hung up, including some in which the conditions are unusual and will create a lot of additional interest.

Karr has urged all bowlers to compete in this tournament in order to make the first attempt along this line a success and assure more of them in the future. The entry list has already been opened.
