

BRITISH REFUSE TO BACK WORLD COURT

House of Lords Votes Down Option Clause of Statute by 26-19 Vote

LONDON, May 2.—(AP)—The house of lords, after brief debate today, rejected 26 to 19 a motion submitted by Lord Cecil inviting the house to express the opinion that the time had arrived when Great Britain should sign the option clause of the statute of the world court.

By this clause, states recognize the compulsory jurisdiction of the court, namely the right of one party to summon another before the court.

The Lord Chancellor, expressing the government's inability to accept the motion, said it was hoped the time would arrive when it would be possible for the British empire to accept the compulsory jurisdiction of the international court with or without a reservation designated to protect the special position of the empire. The present moment, however, in the dying days of the old parliament and in the face of resolutions of the imperial conference of 1926, and the urgency of the problem of the United States arbitration treaty with Great Britain, could not be considered a proper time.

Lord Cecil has argued there was no reason why Great Britain should not agree to accept judicial settlements by the international court in view of her enormous interests in all parts of the world.

The Lord Chancellor rejoined that it would not be desirable to refer to an international court a dispute between the home government and one of the dominions or between two of the dominions. It was this aspect of the situation, he said, which necessitated reservations but the point as to what matters should be submitted to arbitration had not been discussed with the dominions.

BLAKELY RETURNS TO CONFECTIONERY

Transfer of the Gray Belle, well known Salem confectionery from the management of Claude Belle was announced Wednesday, John Blakely of San Francisco taking over the establishment as proprietor.

In assuming control of the confectionery here Mr. Blakely returns to Salem after an absence of 16 years, having worked there in 1913 with a local establishment. He expressed himself as delighted to be back in the city which he said his wide travels had convinced him was one of the finest in the nation.

Mr. Blakely said that he would shortly install several articles of new equipment with which to make more effective the service offered by the restaurant.

Claude Belle, who under the transfer retires from the proprietorship of the restaurant, established the business in 1914 and has been continuously active in it since that time. Mr. and Mrs. Newton Smith, also active in the business for many years, will no longer be connected with the establishment. They stated Wednesday that a vacation for a considerable period was their immediate plan after which they were not certain what work they would follow here. Their home is in Salem and it is probable that they will reside here where their plans for future occupation are completed. Mr. and Mrs. Blakely have both removed to Salem and are to make their home in a local apartment.

FRATERNITIES WIN IN CAMPUS VOTING

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 2.—(AP)—The entire fraternity ticket was successful in the annual student election today, taking every office from president of the student body to yell leader, against the opposition of the "Independents."

Tom Stoddard of Modoc Point defeated John Anderson for the presidency, 1389 to 797.

Richard Horn of Falls City was elected vice president, receiving 1144 votes to 890 for Walter Norblad of Astoria and 328 for Harold Kelley of Portland.

For secretary, Beatrice Milligan of Eugene won from La Wanda Fenlason, Portland, 1372 votes to 899.

Winners in other contests were: senior women on executive council, Florence McNeerney, Portland; junior man on executive council, James Dezendorf, Portland; yell leader, Charles Reed, Oregon City.

Arthur Scheeni of Medford was made editor of the Emerald. This office is appointive, at the hands of the executive council. Serena Madson of Junction City was appointed editor of the year book, Oregonian.

HELEN WILLS WILL BE TAKEN TO COURT

LONDON, May 2.—(AP)—Helen Wills, America's tennis queen, will be presented to Queen Mary on May 9 by Mrs. Ray Atherton, wife of the American charge d'affaires. As Miss Maude Hummel, Mrs. Atherton was a widely known golfer, competing in the British ladies' championship and other big tournaments.

Mrs. Atherton's position in the court ceremonies is due to the absence of Mrs. Charles G. Dawes, whose husband is to be the new ambassador from the United States. Besides Miss Wills seven other American women will be presented at the first court of the season at Buckingham palace, and at the second court on May 10 eight additional American women will be introduced.

Confectionery Is To Start Up Soon

A new confectionery, lunch counter and card room is to be opened late this week or the forepart of next week in the Capitol theatre building with Harry Ralph, owner and proprietor. Ralph formerly maintained such an establishment in the Oregon building but when a long time lease was given there to the Metropolitan stores, Inc., Ralph was forced to obtain a new location.

WAGES BOOSTED
SALT LAKE CITY, May 2.—(AP)—A wage increase of from 3 to 5 cents per hour for approximately 2,000 employees of the Denver and Rio Grande western railroad was announced today by L. M. Griffiths, general chairman of the association of mechanical crafts, helpers and apprentices.

Texas has produced another horned toad mystery. One was found on the roof of the eight-story federal building at Corpus Christi.
