Willamette Beats Pacific Nine in "Drizzle" Game

BRINGS 6 RUNS

Homer by Houk and Work of McMullin Factors In Big Game

By RALPH CURTIS The May day crowd at Willamette university was rewarded for its persistence in watching two and a half hours of drizzle baseball, by seeing the Willamette team come to life in the eighth inning and score six runs to beat Pacific university, Willamette's traditional rival, 13 to 9.

For two innings the Bearcats' chances looked mighty slim, after a series of hit and run plays in combination with the slippery ground around home plate had given the Badgers four runs in the sixth. and another was scored on King's three bagger and a wild pitch in the seventh, putting the visitors two runs

Rain was coming down pretty fast then, and the Pacific captain gently suggested that the game be called, but it continued the full distance. It appeared slow, because of the constant necessit supplying dry balls.

Poles Out Home:

Houk, third baseman, and Me-Mullin, relief pitcher, emerged as Willamette's heroes of the day. Houk poled out a homer over the center fielder's head in the third inning, and also drove in the winning run in the eighth with a hard driven single.

Ledbetter had been pitching good ball considering the condition of his arm, but after the Bearcats forged ahead and Led-better appeared badly fatigued in the ninth, Coach Keene sent in McMullin to relieve him. Ledbetter had walked one man. McMullin fanned the next one, and the second batter that faced him hit a line drive which McMullin speared and tossed to first for a double play, the runner having judged it a safe bingle.

Pacific scored two runs in the first inning on a walk, a single and Dreezen's three bagger. Willamette came back with three, accounted for by three free passes, a man. two bagger by Scales, Gill's single and Cardinal's sacrifice. teams scored two in the third, Houk's homer counting for one. Willamette got two more in the fourth, when Adams doubled, Ledbetter walked, and Deetz singled. scoring both of them.

Squeeze Plays Work Pacific got four runs on three hits and two squeeze plays in the

In the fateful eighth, Nelson of Pacific walked four men and a two base hit by Cardinal, a single by Houk and two misplays by the Pacific shortstop accounted for the six runs.
