

Silverton Music Week Opens With Program on Sunday

COMMUNITY TO JOIN IN EVENT

Church and Schools Make Announcements; Variety Is Keynote

SILVERTON, May 4.—In commemoration of National Music week, opening on May 5, Silverton will observe the event with special music in all of the churches on Sunday, and with several programs during the week.

Sunday morning, the primary department of the Methodist Sunday school will give a ten o'clock concert in the basement of the church, with Mrs. Edson Comstock directing. Piano solos will be rendered by Geraldine Edmister, Walter Smith, Howard Chandler, Janet Comstock, Richard Nelson, Marjorie Hubbs, Margaret Langley, and June Baker. Little David Crabtree and Marion Hubbs will each sing. All children appearing are under nine years of age.

To Play For Hospitals

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings special programs have been arranged by the committee in charge of Music week. On Thursday evening, which is reserved for radio night, Harbo Thompson, steel guitar instructor, and three pupils will play for the patients of the Silverton hospital.

The Monday evening program will include numbers by students of Mrs. Gertrude Cameron, Miss Henrietta Plameth, St. Paul school of music, Miss La Riche's studio, Miss Love's studio of Salem, Lillian Petri of Corvallis, and William Hobson of Salem.

May 7 Artists' Night

Tuesday night, May 7, known as artists' night will include numbers from: Esther Towse, Mrs. W. S. Tate, Laverne Riche, Mrs. Alvin Legard of Salem, and Martin Dorrler. Accompanists for Tuesday evening are Mrs. Edson Comstock, Mrs. Gertrude Cameron and Miss Esther Towse.

Wednesday evening has been chosen for Community night. There will be selections by the high school orchestra, a proclamation by Mayor L. C. Eastman, group of songs by the high school glee club, reading by Rodger Comstock, "The Music Week Ode," selections by the community choir, three numbers by W. R. Tomison, bagpipes.

Mrs. Zella Parrish will sing a group of songs which have been composed and lyrics written by a Silverton composer, Mrs. Estella Morley. Harbo Thompson's quintette will give three numbers.

Sup't Robert Goetz will talk on the "Development and purpose of Music week."

Special assemblies will be held in the schools during the week. On Friday evening the girls glee club will present a musical cantata.

With the exception of the cantata on Friday evening, these concerts will be free to the public. No collections will be taken.

Hayesville Will Clean Weeds From Old Cemetery

HAYESVILLE, May 4.—Hayesville cemetery, at this place, is scheduled for a thorough cleanup and beautifying on Thursday, May 16 in an all-day campaign—with lunch and hot coffee for everybody at the church here.

Many of Oregon's oldest and best beloved pioneers rest in this hallowed spot beneath the shade of the evergreens.

Clara Bow Favored by Most Fans

Clara Bow, Brooklyn's greatest gift to the motion picture public, has just been voted the favorite cinema star of 2,700 theatre owners and managers in all parts of the United States. The survey was conducted by a trade magazine, the Exhibitors' Herald and World, and results were just made public.

Colleen Moore, leader in the balloting last year, when Miss Bow placed second, now herself in second place. Lon Chaney was voted the most popular masculine star.

Clara Bow's fan mail receipts have long marked her as the most popular film star with the public. She gets on an average of 35,000 letters each month and more by thousands than any other star of the stage or screen ever received in the history of the entertainment business.

Her latest production, "The Wild Party," is a vivid, dashing film of unrestrained, flaming youth and the scenes were laid in the college campus and class-room of an exclusive institution. It is an all-talking film.

"The Wild Party" is the current attraction at the Elsinore.

The story upon which the play is based was written by Warner Fabian, author of "Flaming Youth."

Fredric March, young, dark-haired stage star, plays the leading romantic role opposite Miss Bow in "The Wild Party."

Fanchon & Marco vaudeville more bold-faced on the stage with five acts of fast moving entertainment.

Music, Art Mixed On Dallas Event

DALLAS, May 4.—A very interesting musical demonstration and art exhibit was presented by the music and art departments of the Dallas schools Friday afternoon. 'SHOW BOAT' APPEARS HERE

Florenz Ziegfeld, Producer of Famous Follies, Says Production is Good

"Show Boat," Universal's million dollar production of Edna Ferber's novel of the same name, an dith which is combined the musical hits and stars of Florenz Ziegfeld's stage success, will be the attraction extraordinary at Bligh's Capitol theatre for the week starting Wednesday, May 15.

Coming direct to Salem from road show triumphs in the east, and with one hundred per cent endorsement of press and public to its credit, "Show Boat" has been unanimously proclaimed as the most perfect talking-singing production to reach the screen since the advent of sound in pictures.

Tells Heart Story

Telling as it does a heart interest story of the old floating river, "Show Boat" is said to blend drama, pathos, romance, action, comedy, suspense and spectacle into perfect entertainment for the masses and the classes.

Laura La Plante appears as Magnolia, while Joseph Schildkraut appears opposite as Reval, the gambler-actor. Other principals in the cast are Orla Harlan, Emily Fitzroy, Jane La Verne and Neely Edwards.

Helen Morgan, Jules Bledsoe, Anna Jemima and the musical plantation chorus appear in a special movie-tones prologue to "Show Boat," and sing such numbers as "Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man," "Here Comes the Show Boat," "Hey Feller," "Bill" and "Old Man River." The numbers are also used in the musical score to the picture, while Laura La

Plants also renders several vocal numbers

"Show Boat" is a road show attraction, and takes two and a half hours running time. It is announced. Despite this fact, the usual Capitol admission tariff will prevail. Frank Bligh states.
