Combined Chorus Gives Splendid Program

An outstanding concert of music will be given this evening in the Grand theatre by four singing organizations of the city. The American Legion auxiliary glee club and quartet, the Salem Lyric singers and the Elks club chorus. The chorus will appear separately and combined. The final numbers on the program will be the assembled group of singers forming a mixed chorus of more than seventy voices.

The American Legion auxiliary glee club and quartet established a reputation at the Medford state convention last August by winning the competitions in the choral contest. This group of singers includes many popular soloists of the town. Mrs. R. W. Wyatt, Mrs. Frank Libburn, Mrs. D. J. Bove, Mrs. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Walter Zieglers include the most talented young ladies of the town who are not members of any other singing organization and who have met each week for the pleasure of having practice in part singing. This group also includes a number of solo voices. Nava Cooley, Ruth Stermer, Mary Lee Scott, Elizabeth Clement, Claudia Bunton, Benetta Edwards, Jewell and Mildred Gardner, Mary McCrone-Hughes, Harriet Adams and Lucille Cummings.

The Elks chorus includes twenty select men's voices that practice regularly under the direction of Mr. Robertson. This group has appeared for the various social functions of the Elks lodge and is a favorite in musical circles. This cause represents the only men's chorus in the city.

The program for the evening will include many interesting chorus numbers that have not been heard before in Salem. The combined ladies' chorus will sing, "Learn to Love Jesus" Bach, "On the Steps of Grechinnoff" and "The Heavens Are Telling" Haydn.

The combined ladies' and men's choruses will sing "Ah Sweet Mystery" Herbert, "Go Home" Dvorak, and "Unfold Ye Portals" Gounod.

Directors for the concert are Miss Lena Belle Tartar and R. H. Robertson. The accompaniment will be played by Miss Lucille Cummings. Mrs. Beatrice Skeen and Mr. Clarence Wenger.

Reception Will Honor Returning Regent

Mrs. Homer Goulet, regent for the Chemeketa chapter of the D. A. R. will be honored with a reception in celebration of her return from Washington, D. C., where she has been attending the national conference in company with her sister and state regent, Mrs. Clyde Apperson, so it was decided in the Monday meeting of the D. A. R. at the city library.

Mrs. Russell Miller will be hostesses for this affair. No definite date has been set as it is not known when Mrs. Goulet will arrive.

Further business plans made were for a cooked food sale to be sponsored May 18.

During the program hour Mrs. Molly Hill Stiles spoke concerning the history of music and several musical numbers were given in honor of music week.

Daughters of Veterans Install New Tent

The department of Oregon, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War have added a new tent to their number by making twenty tents in the state. This new tent was installed in the city of Corvallis, Saturday evening, May 4, by the department president, Miss Marie Bennett, of Portland. Miss Bennett is a former Salem girl, having been a stenographer in the office of former Governor Olcott.

The new tent started with 33 members. These members were secured through the efforts of Mrs. J. W. Entress, past department president and Mrs. C. N. Needham, president of the Salem tent, who have made numerous visits to Corvallis to help the organization.

The newly elected officers were installed by Miss Bennett assisted by the following Salem tent members: Mrs. J. W. Entress, Mrs. Laurine Stow, Mrs. Tyler Morley, Mrs. Margaret Ringle, Mrs. Kathryn Ewings, Mrs. E. A. Windisher, Mrs. Paul Bales and Mrs. E. E. Bergman. Mrs. I. D. Bennett of Brooks was also a guest. There were a number of the members present from the tents at Albany and Eugene to add interest to the occasion. A banquet was served at the tent. The new tent was started on the way to a very successful year. The installation of this tent makes the organization more strongly entrenched in the western part of the state, as there is now a tent in each of the larger cities from Portland south to Astoria and Marshfield. This is the third new tent during the term of Miss Bennett, the other two being at Newberg and Beaver-ton.

Stunt Night is Plan for B. & P. W.

The Business and Professional Women's club is planning a "stunt night" for its next meeting, May 16, at the Women's club house. Each committee is to originate and present a stunt, under the direction of its chairman.

The chairman will be responsible for the following: Mrs. Blanche Isherwood, publicity committee, Miss Grace Taylor, nomination committee, Mrs. Emily Howard, membership committee, Mrs. Grace Gilliam, headquarters committee, Miss Olive M. Day, program committee, Mrs. Phibe McAdams, finance committee, Miss Grace Hendrickson, emblem committee, Miss June Phillipott, education and research committee, Dr. Mary Purvine, cooperation committee, and the chairman for the new program committee, Miss Amanda Schwabauer.

The evening will be under the general charge of the hospitality committee whose chairman is Mrs. Susan Varty.

The annual Mother and Daughter banquet sponsored by the Men's Council of the First Methodist church will be held in the church parlors Friday evening. The executive committee composed of Messrs. U. G. Holt, J. B. Cray and B. H. White with a program committee of ladies, Messdames A. A. Lee, J. M. Cane, R. C. Glover and Miss Sutherland, will have had general charge of the evenings plans. The ticket and invitation committee includes: Messdames W. M. Pennington, Mary Walk, E. T. B. Hill, and R. N. Alsen. All mothers and girls who are members or friends of the church are eligible to attend this banquet.

Mrs. E. Carlson Has Informal Afternoon

Mrs. Emil Carlson entertained with an informal afternoon at her home on North 4th street Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Carrie Fowle and Mrs. Teresa Kriese, the latter a popular member of the Silverton high school faculty who will be leaving early in the summer for California. Mrs. Fowle has just returned from California, where she has been visiting for some time.

Spring flowers among which iris and tulips predominated made attractive decorations for the guest rooms. Mrs. Carlson was assisted in serving at a quiet wedding performed by Rev. Norman K. Tully, at the Presbyterian manse. The bride was attended by her brother, William Blevin, Mrs. William Blevin, her sister Miss Sarah Blevin, Habeeb Mossawir and Miss Norma Dietrich.

The bride is a graduate of the Gervais union high school and of the Capital Business college of Salem. The groom, a graduate of O. A. C., is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Hamlin, of Albany, Oregon, and is employed in the U. S. postal service here. Both are prominent in the church and Sunday school activities of the Presbyterian church. They will make their home in Salem.

Salem Hunt Club Plans Formal Opening

The hard work of the members of the Salem Hunt club is beginning to tally and they are now getting all ready for a grand opening to be held at the state fair ground stadium May 17.

Special drills are being worked out with daily practice under the guidance of "Jimmy" Emmons, the riding master whose work is proving so successful that even hording is planned for the opening night. The kiddies class, too, is planning a special number or two for their contribution to the evening entertainment.

There will be individual riding exhibitions, some of which are being perfected in the horsemanship practiced in the cross country rides on Sundays. Enthusiasm among the riders seems to indicate an enjoyable time for all concerned at this opening event.

"China" will be the lecture topic for the regular meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. There will be lantern slides to illustrate the discussion. A social hour will follow at which time Mrs. R. H. Robertson will be soloists. Anyone will be welcome for this afternoon.

Belated information has it that Miss Jennie Thompson was quietly married to Tom M. Tatham April 6. Mrs. Tatham is a Salem high school graduate and well known in the younger circle. She is now connected with the University Guild.

The Salem Daughters of the Nile will hold an all-day meeting Wednesday. Hostess for this meeting are Mrs. Mesta Liljequist, Mrs. Lettie Lewis, Mrs. Cora Laughlin, Mrs. Emma Bombeck and Mrs. Alice Hoff. Members are requested to bring sandwiches.

Mrs. G. A. White motored to Portland Monday to attend the last meeting of the season for the Army and Navy League. This last meeting was celebrated with a picnic at the home of Mrs. Henry Aiken of Riverdale.
