Yank Aviators Are Freed Upon Rebel Charges

TUCSON, Ariz., May 10.—(AP)—The dismissal was ordered late today of federal charges against four American aviators, formerly flying with the routed Mexican rebels, who had been held for violating the neutrality laws. The dismissals were made upon the motion of the United States district attorney's office. The aviators, who had been held on the charges by federal authorities were R. H. Polk, of Nashville, Tenn., Pete Stanley, and W. L. Mitchell, of Big Springs, Texas, and W. L. Fields of Los Angeles, Cal.

VISIT PARENTS
STAYTON, May 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fehlen are here from San Francisco visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fehlen. They are on their way to London, England, where Mrs. Fehlen's mother lives.

Scallops are Charming

PATTERN 1692
Statesman The Practical Pattern This jolly little model for a dainty little girl is quite different from the usual frock, and would be ravishing made in pastel shades of organdie or dimity. The frock is extremely simple, with two box pleats effecting graceful fullness. The square neck line is very becoming, especially when finished by an adorable, scalloped collar. Binding the scallops in a deeper shade is charming. Design 1692 would be lovely in pale shades of yellow, pink, blue, green or orchid and trimmed with deeper or contrasting color in the scallop binding. May be obtained only in sizes 2, 4 and 6. Size 4 requires 2 3/4 yards material, 36 to 40 inches in width. This model is easy to make. No dressmaking experience is necessary. Each pattern comes to you with simple and exact instructions, including yardage for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed. Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of fifteen cents (15c) in coins carefully wrapped or stamps. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, style number and size wanted. Our new spring and summer fashion book will be sent upon receipt of ten cents in coin. Address all mail and orders to The Statesman Pattern Department, 243 W. 17th street, New York City.

Engagement Told At Evening Party

Mrs. John Orr entertained with a lovely announcement party for her daughter, Miss Charlotte Orr, Friday evening at her home on Oxford street. The guest rooms were beautifully decorated with a profusion of spring flowers in celebration of the wedding date of June 16 at which time Miss Orr will marry D. Gordon Simpson, of Albany. Mr. Simpson is a member of the Kappa Kappa Phi fraternity of Albany college. Miss Orr is a Beta Chi of Willamette university.

Guests bidden for this party for Miss Orr were Miss Jessie Boyd, Newberg, Miss Flora Brown, Miss Margaret Brown, Miss Janice Fawk, Miss Viola Keller, Miss Dorothy Brant, Miss Barbara Chapman, Mrs. Dora Wallace, Mrs. Caroline Simpson, Mrs. Carl Emmons, Mrs. Ross Bidwell, Mrs. Bert Flack, Miss Louis Alken, Miss Roby Laughlin, Miss Florence Powers, Salem, Portland guests, Miss Jean White, Miss Elma White, Miss Grace White, Miss Beatrice Lockhart, Dallas guests, Miss Oella Friar, Miss Margaret Friar, Miss Marjorie Jackson, Miss Ethel Jackson, Miss Iona Emiler, Mrs. Lawrence Smith, and Mrs. Victor Williams.

Interesting Program At Industrial School

Mrs. Martin Ferry assisted by Mrs. W. J. Minkewitz gave an interesting program at the girls industrial school Wednesday night. Mrs. Frank Breckenridge was the accompanist. The Rev. Martin Ferry spoke briefly and interestingly upon the influence of music. Several numbers, both instrumental and vocal, were presented by girls of the school and were very pleasingly done.

Salem folk motoring out for this evening were Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mrs. Effie W. Dunlap, Mrs. I. L. McAdams, Mrs. S. M. Endicott, and Mr. Frank Breckenridge.

This program was sponsored by the institutions department of the Salem Woman's club.

Hospital Auxiliary Takes Active Part

Salem will observe "hospital day" with a special appropriate program at the Salem General hospital Sunday. The hospital auxiliary will take an active part in the plans as they are planned. Mrs. William Dancy, president of the auxiliary and Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Homer Smith, Mrs. Charles Robertson, and Mrs. Kenneth Powers will assist Sunday afternoon.

In cooperation with the auxiliary the Elsinore theatre will give five per cent of all its Sunday door receipts to the hospital fund and the Capitol will do likewise with Monday's door receipts.

"Blue Triangle" Is Postponed

The pageant "Blue Triangle" which is being sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. and produced by the Girl Reserves of Salem under the direction of Mrs. W. J. Minkewitz, and which was to have been given this afternoon in Willson park as a good music week, has been postponed on account of too many activities which required the time and attention of the girls participating.

The pageant will be given May 25 in Willson park and will be all the better for the added drill which will have been given for it in the meantime.

St. Paul's Guild To be Entertained

The Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal will be luncheon guests at the country home of Mrs. Margaret LaFurgy for its next regular meeting which will be Tuesday, May 14.

In case of inclement weather which would make the longer journey difficult, Mrs. John Roberts will be hostess.

The Salem Drama league will meet Wednesday evening, 8 o'clock at the Gilbert Studio, upstairs at 147 No. Commercial. Mrs. Monroe Gilbert will speak on "The Road to the New Theatre."

ALWAYS KEEPS IT ON HAND

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helps Her So Much

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"I was just completely run-down. I had tired, heavy, sluggish feelings and I could not eat. I was losing in weight. I read so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and what a good medicine it is, that I started taking it. I have taken eight bottles of it and I feel like a new woman. I am improving every day and I am sure am able to eat. I am willing to answer any letters asking about the 'Vegetable Compound.'"—Mrs. ELLA RICHMOND, 21 Chestnut St., N. S. Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mrs. Allie Parkinson, formerly of Salem but now of Portland, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Fultz for a few days. She will visit in Camas, Washington, before returning to Portland.

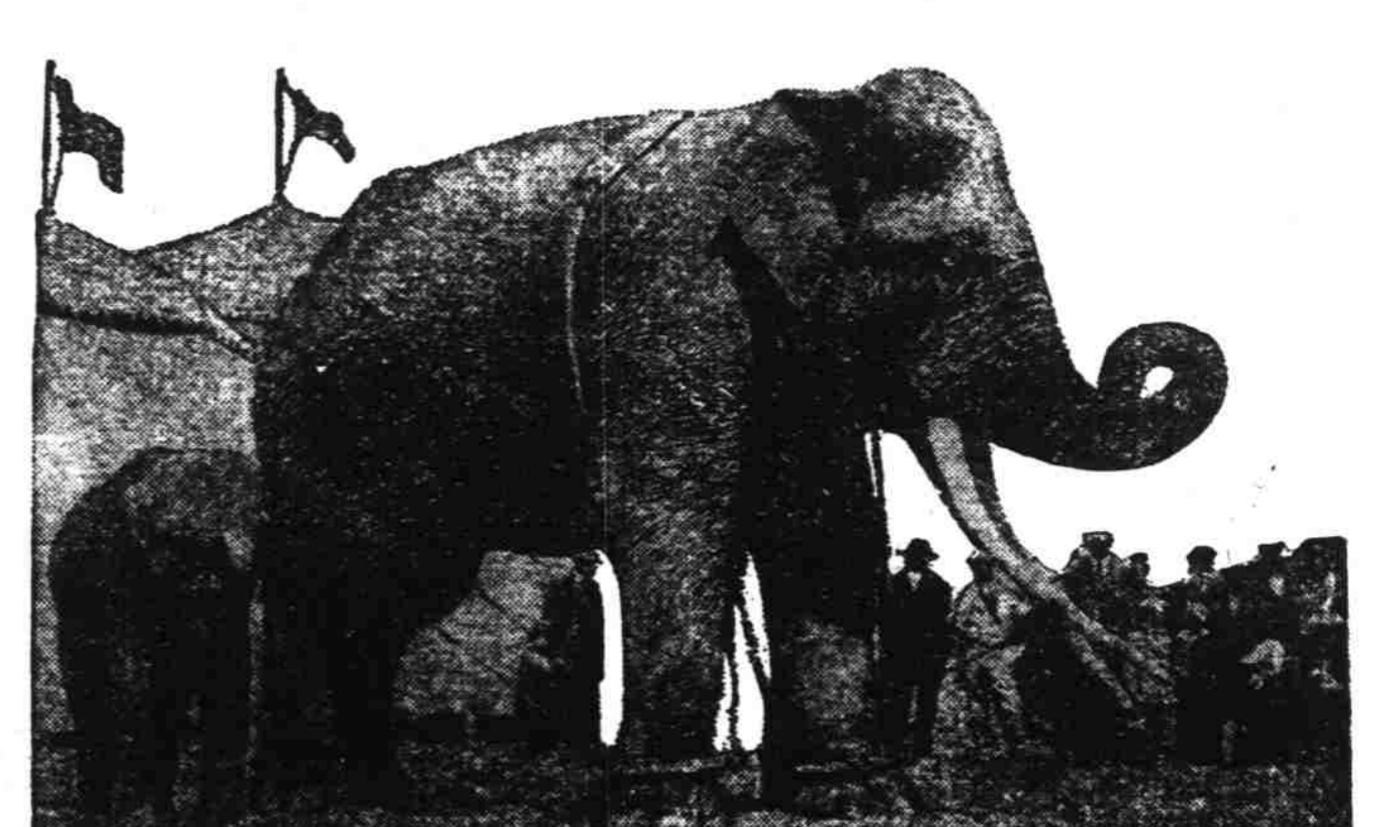

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mase, N. Capitol street, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a young son, Richard Dale, May 8. Mr. Mase is a member of the state printing office staff.

The Ecclesiae club will entertain at Lausane hall Monday evening
