

Hubbard is Crowded for Program on Music Week

PUBLIC QUITE WELL PLEASED

Credit Given Teachers of Schools; Music Value Is Stressed

HUBBARD, May 11.—The hall was crowded to capacity Thursday night when the Hubbard school presented a program which was well received and which represented the spirit of music week.

Mrs. L. A. Beckman and Prof. J. R. Bidgood were on the committee of arrangements. Much credit is due Mrs. Phyllis Finnigan for the fine program. Mrs. Finnigan, teacher of English in the high school, directed the group singing for all of the grades except the first grade which was under the supervision of Mrs. Lorena Duncan, teacher.

The junior band, which was organized about two months ago, made its debut with a demonstration of the methods in beginning band work. The very creditably played several short selections.

Prof. J. R. Bidgood gave a talk on the subject "Why we Teach Music in the School," in which he stressed three reasons: training of the more talented, development of musical appreciation in the less talented, and to stimulate the child's interest in the school work.

Orchestra is Homer. The high school orchestra was presented with a pennant by H. C. Mack as a token of appreciation of their service to the community of Hubbard and of the esteem in which he held the boys and girls comprising the orchestra.

The Camp Fire Girls, some dressed in their ceremonial gowns, others in their white middie, black ties, and blue skirts, according to rank, sang "Burn, Burn" and "Mamma Moon." With the darkened hall and the imitation fire on the stage this number was very impressive.

Marion McKenzie pleased the audience with the solo, "My Alice Blue Gown." Readings by Wilma Dick and Betty Brown, a minstrel by Ruth Junnikel and Marjory Rick, a piano duet by Robert and Murill Beckman and a violin solo "Il Trovatore" by Gungadene Bidgood were greatly appreciated.

Pleasing piano solos were played by Margery Wolfer, Frances Bralle and Margery Rich.

The high school klee club sang two selections which were heartily applauded.

'UNCLE BUDD' HONORED SUMMONED BY DEATH

Years Filled With Interest for Brooks Man

BROOKS, May 11.—Funeral services for a Nicholas Marrian Riddiger were held on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, at the Pioneer cemetery north of Brooks, with Rev. D. George Cole of Brooks officiating. Interment will be in the Pioneer cemetery.

Nicholas Marrian Riddiger was born in the State of Missouri, February 14, 1856. He was a son of George Riddiger of Backenridge, Mo. Crossing the plains by wagon train, he arrived in Brooks in 1858.

Making this community his home since that time, he has gathered about his memory a large group of friends, among whom he has for years been known as and called endearingly "Uncle Budd."

About five years ago "Uncle Budd" was bereft by the passing of his brother John. When his sister-in-law, John's wife, moved to a distant place, Uncle Budd was left with no closer relatives in this community than his great niece and nephew. Since that time and during his recent illness, until his later condition made it necessary to remove him to the hospital, he has been living with one of his friends, a former employer, Robert Cole.

Mr. Cole's tender and devoted care of Uncle Budd in his declining years and during his last illness, is but one illustration of the loving respect and appreciation with which Uncle Budd's friends held him in esteem and do now cherish his memory.

Always Was Welcome. Mr. Riddiger was always welcome wherever he went. Favored indeed was the home that received Uncle Budd. He was rich in friendship and character. Honesty was said to hold the stage-center of his life, and one who knew him well and learned to love him said that he had never known Uncle Budd to take the name of the Lord in vain.

He was in love with life and was alert to his surroundings, and when his failing eyesight began to blur and shut out a large portion of the present, his memory rich in experience and wisdom was want to come up with wonderful tales of other years. His eager listeners lived over with him the good old days back in the "show me state" when Uncle Budd was a boy.

Riddiger All Pioneers. The Riddiger family is a family of pioneers and adventurers not afraid to face new conditions nor strange places, their courage and fearlessness has taken them in many different directions, so that today they are scattered to many parts of the country. Few of Uncle Budd's relatives are to be found close at hand. He denied himself a family and many of the rich joys of life that we hold so dear, by remaining single all of his days, but his was not an empty life. He was always doing something for someone, continually ministering to folks. Many there are to testify that life's burdens were often lifted and made lighter and easier by some thoughtful, kind and generous assistance from Uncle Budd. And so if the names of his close kin are few, it is made up for by the multitude of friends who mourn their loss and rejoice in his victory. For as the fearless pioneer he ever was, he has now unafraid gone on to that place of rest in the land of bliss where his earthly toll shall have ceased.

Wollard Store of 1866 Origin, Ends Long Business Term

SILVERTON, May 11.—When the J. Wollard Co. Inc., general store in Silverton was closed this past week, one of the oldest organized incorporated firms in the state passed into history.

The store, which was established by John Wollard in 1866, received many mentions in Homer Davenport's own book "The Country Boy." Since Mr. Wollard's recent death, his daughter, Mrs. Addie Van Valkenburg has managed the business, and recently sold all remaining stock to Olds, Wortman and King Co. of Portland. The empty store building will be for rent.

Called to Vancouver, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Gates were called to Vancouver, Wash., Monday on account of the death of Gates' mother, Mrs. Helen Gates, age 66 years. The last services for Mrs. Gates will be held in Vancouver, Wash., May 11, as the other son whose home is in the east could not arrive sooner.

A stork shower was given Mrs. Gerry Worth at the home of Mrs. Lawson Thursday evening. Invited guests were Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Ray, Mrs. Horn, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Jim Carver, Mrs. Newt Davis, Mrs. Coy Morris, Mrs. Harold Bullis, Mrs. Jerry Morris, Mrs. Dick Leffler, Mrs. Ted Davis, Mrs. Hautze, Mrs. Marquis, Mrs. Erickson, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Sanders, Mrs. Frazer, and Pauline Powell. Various games were played during the evening. A few prizes were awarded. The prize for the twisted answers was won by Mrs. Horn. Old time saying prize went to Mrs. Worth. The lowest score was winner in slangless game which was won by Mrs. Ryan.

Visiting at the home of Levi Green are Mr. and Mrs. Clair Brown of Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ogle of Independence visited their daughter, Mrs. Stoltenberg, recently.

Mrs. Bert Babbs and Mrs. Joe Neize have returned from a short sojourn in Salem. Their infant daughters, Nancy Jean, Babbs and Janath Neize are doing nicely. Mrs. Wingo of camp one is in Salem receiving treatments.

RAIL MISHAP IS VALSETZ 'JONAH'

New Hours in Effect for Day and Night Shifts at Big Sawmill

VALSETZ, May 11.—Owing to the outgoing freight having a minor mishap between See Kay and R. L. Tuesday afternoon, the evening train which is due here at 5:50 p. m. did not arrive until 3 a. m. Wednesday. This caused a delay in the delivery of mail and newspapers.

Starting Monday, May 13, the day shift at the saw mill will work from 7 a. m. to 4 p. m. The night shift from 5:30 p. m. to 2:30 a. m. These hours will probably be in effect until fall.

A two table bridge party was given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Stoltenberg. Georgianna Green, Ruby Farrer, Grace Wickland, Vesta Ross, Mrs. Dixon, Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Ross being the guests. Cut prize was won by Mrs. Dixon, Vesta Ross won high honor prize and Grace Wickland received the consolation prize.

Ray Betzer Named President Of Keizer Community Club At Final Meeting for Year

KEIZER, May 11.—The Keizer Community club convened Friday night for its last session of the school year. Ray Betzer, president, was in the chair. In the absence of the secretary, Olive Evans, Myrtle McClay substituted. Letters from Dr. P. E. O. Riley and Dr. W. B. Morse were read. By a unanimous vote it was decided that the club enter the parade on May 24, also to take part in the talent contest. Committees were appointed for the parade and contest plans.

The last day of school, June 7, was set as the date for the community picnic to be held at Haggar's grove. The following committees were announced for the picnic. On securing ground, Robert McClay; prize committee, Joe Bartruff, Guy Smith and Charles Weathers; refreshment committee, Mrs. Joe Bartruff, Mrs. Robert McClay and Mrs. W. E. Savage; for ice cream, Ward Russell; athletics, Ray Betzer, Glenn Savage and Carroll Poole. A rising vote of thanks and appreciation for the splendid May day program sponsored by the teachers and pupils was given by the club. It was also suggested that this be made an annual affair.

The election of officers followed. President, Ray Betzer; vice president, Mrs. R. S. Melson; secretary, Myrtle McClay; treasurer, Mildred Gardner; sergeant-at-arms, Ward Russell.

Fred McCall announced the annual school meeting for the election of directors to be held at the school house June 17. After a short community sing, light refreshments were served and a social time was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Springer from Manila, Philippine Islands, on a trip around the world are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Pearmine. Springer represents the American Drug company and makes a trip around the world every three years. Mrs. Springer and Mrs. Pearmine were associated in reclamation work in Russia after the close of the World war. This is Springer's first trip to the Willamette valley, and he expressed himself as delighted with the scenery, climate and the possibilities of this great section.
