SALEM MEETS MT. SCOTT NINE

Long Anticipated Outbreak of Hostilities Slated to Occur at 2:30

LEAGUE GAMES TODAY
Mt. Scott vs Salem Senators at Olinger field, 2:30 p. m.
Montavilla vs Kelso at Kelso.
Longview vs Albany at Albany.

PROBABLE LINEUPS
Salem: Mt. Scott, Goleman, Fleischmann, 1b, Cloninger, 1b, Filleto, rf, Gribble, 3b, Lamb, 2b, Edwards, c, Cole, p.
Mt. Scott: T. Girod, cf, P. Girod, ss, Longhart, 1b, Helmecke, c, Bussell, rf, Calkins, 3b, Buono, lf, L. Girod, 2b, Sax, p.

Seemed like it never would come—that succinct phrase which makes sweet music in the ears of every dred in the wool baseball fan. For three successive Sundays muddy lakes have covered the diamond at Olinger field and the fans have sat moodily at home while Manager "Frisco" Edwards and his crew of incipient fence busters fretted and retreated to the stove league for their Sunday amusement.

But this morning the aforesaid diamond is as dry as a Kansas W. C. T. U. meeting, and frequent working has smoothed it out beautifully; and shortly afternoon today the gray uniformed Senators will rally for the hot batting practice. At 2:30 sharp, Umpire Shea—or it may be Umpire Harvey—will utter those magic words and the Oregon-Washington league season will be "on" officially in Salem.

Change In Batting Order Is Made
Manager Edwards has made a slight change in his batting order since first announcing it three weeks ago. He has moved Fleischmann up into second position and stationed Harry Cloninger in the "cleanup" berth.

Otherwise the team will be just as previously announced, and King Cole will start on the mound. In a way it's fortunate that the opening game is today instead of last Sunday, for at that time Cole was just recovering from an attack of "flu," and wouldn't have been in very good condition to pitch. However, he worked six innings in a game at Portland early last week, and will be ready to start today.

Manager Fredericks of the Mt. Scott club may spring some dark horses in today's game, as it was reported that he and Captain Buzselli had their heads together on numerous occasions since the Tigers lost to Longview a week ago. However, they haven't announced any changes in the lineup. At that, it didn't appear in the Longview game, though Mt. Scott would need anything except a little luck, for Fredericks' youngsters were ahead most of the game, but the Forest Rangers, and lost on a couple of freak plays in the sixth—and then by only one run.

Fast Whitman Net Team Defeats Willamette in Tennis Tournament Here

Willamette university's tennis teams fared poorly at the hands of Whitman college racquetballers Saturday, Whitman winning both men's and women's competition by scores of 3 to 1. However, all of the matches excepting the men's doubles were close.

Ivan White, No. 1 man on the Willamette team, came within one point of taking a set from North Oswald, Whitman star who has not lost a set since entering college. White was leading 5-4 in the first set and had "point set" against Oswald, but couldn't win the point, and Oswald finally won 7-5, then took the second set 6-0.
