

GLENN SAVAGE HEADS LEAGUE

Brooks Party Goes to Keizer for Meeting and for Program

BROOKS, May 15.—Mrs. William Schaefer and daughter, Miss Vida, Mr. and Mrs. William Buchanan and children, Delores and Kenneth and Miss Constance Buchanan, Mrs. John Dunlavy and daughter, Miss Marie of Brooks, went to Keizer Sunday evening to attend the Epworth League and Mother's day program.

The Epworth League held its annual election of officers at this meeting and the following were chosen for the coming year: President, Glenn Savage; vice-president, Miss Mildred Gardner; second and third vice-presidents, Miss Margaret Barruff; fourth vice-president, Miss Myrtle McClay; secretary and treasurer, Carol Pool; song leader, Glenn Savage. The following program was presented by the Keizer Sunday school: vocal solo, Glenn Savage; reading, Miss Myrtle McClay; quotations by the juniors; vocal solo, Mr. David Saucy; reading, Ernest Savage Jr.; vocal solo, Miss Mildred Gardner.

The pastor, Rev. D. George Cole spoke on the subject of "Mother." The text was "Behold Thy Mother."

CRAWFORDS BACK TO SPRING VALLEY HOME

SPRING VALLEY, May 15.—Mrs. S. Nonnel Crawford and her daughter Gladys have returned to their home here after having spent the past three weeks in Portland at the home of Mrs. Crawford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Zinser. Mr. Zinser has been very ill and his health is not improving as they had hoped for at the present time. Another daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Pritchard of Walsburg, Wash., is helping her mother care for Mr. Zinser at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haines and son Floyd and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood all of Salem spent Mother's Day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Schubert.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Ray and two children Elma and Johnnie of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kirkwood and their children, Doris, Vera, Norman and Homer of Salem were Saturday evening visitors at the Belle Simpkins home. Miss Pauline Simpkins had as her guest Sunday Miss Iris Smith of Falls City.

Sunday evening visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Childers were: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lowry of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. McKlaney and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Chenoweth.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stevenson and daughters Ruth and Shirley of Salem were Friday evening visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Alderman.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Yungen and their two sons Robert and Arthur were Sunday visitors at the John Spranger home east of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Chute of Salem were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Chute's son, Frank A. Smith and family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Higgins of Zena were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. Higgins' cousin, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. McLench. Mr. Higgins is enjoying being out again after a sick spell of several weeks duration.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Windsor and family attended the opera "H. M. S. Pinafore" given by the Salem High School chorus Friday evening. Their daughter, Miss Irene Windsor who is a senior at S. H. S. took part in the chorus work of the presentation.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Versteeg, Kenneth and Ila Marie Versteeg spent Sunday in Salem visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. West S. Versteeg. Other guests present were Mrs. Versteeg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vele and family of Hopewell.

Adams Back From Trip To Old Home

SILVERTON, May 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Adams and Mr. Lew Adams returned to Silvertown from a five-weeks' trip which took them to many points in the middle east and Pennsylvania.

Gervais to See Play Put on By Young People of Salem

Black Crepe Put On Halls as Men Take "Sneak Day"

SILVERTON, May 15.—Black crepe adorning the halls and class rooms of the senior high building on Tuesday was explained to the lower class men when they learned that it was "senior Sneak Day."

Practically the entire class, accompanied by Prof. Tingstad, J. C. Gunther, Coach Delay and Mrs. Powell, of the faculty, motored to Lake Oswego, where they enjoyed the day in picnic style. Swimming and boating made up the day's recreation.

HAZEL GREEN PLANS WOMEN'S MEETING

Missionary Alliance Set for May 23; Daughters to be in Attendance

HAZEL GREEN, May 15.—Miss Leila Luckey and sister Mrs. Orville Luckey will be hostesses to the Women's Missionary association Thursday afternoon May 23 at the parsonage.

This is the Mothers' and Daughters' meeting. The date of meeting was changed from May 9 until school closed that the daughters could attend.

Cordial invitation to all interested women and girls of community.

There are to be ball games between the girls and boys teams of Hayesville and home team May 20.

Orville Luckey and family, Joseph Zelinski and family, C. A. Van Cleave and family and G. G. Looney attended the dress parade at Chemawa Sunday.

The warm weather is hurrying the farmers in planting corn. The old saying is, "Corn should be planted when the dog woods are white."

HOMECOMING PICNIC FOR JUNE 1 PLAN

BRUSH COLLEGE, May 15.—Plans were made for the annual homecoming picnic June 1. Miss Marjorie Oliver pleased very much with a reading, "Mother O' Mine," followed by dainty refreshments served by Mrs. U. J. Lehman, Mrs. Oliver Whitney, Mrs. John Schindler and Miss Marjorie Oliver. Guests who were present Thursday were: Mrs. Anna Byer, Mrs. Monty Harris, Mrs. Ed McDonald, Mrs. Ferdinand Byer, Mrs. Ray Tandy and daughters Opal and Nina Tandy. Members present were: Mrs. John Schindler, Mrs. A. R. Ewing, Mrs. U. J. Lehman, Mrs. Fred Ewing, Mrs. Oliver Whitney, Mrs. Charles McCarter, Mrs. Walter Hatch, Mrs. A. E. Uttley, Mrs. Corydon Blodgett, Mrs. M. Focht, Mrs. Victor Olsen, Mrs. L. Himmler, Mrs. F. Singer, Mrs. George Meir, and the hostess Mrs. Esther Oliver and daughter, Miss Marjorie.

ROSEDALE WOMEN FETED BY GIRLS

ROSEDALE, May 15.—Daughters of the Rosedale community entertained their mothers at a delightful party Saturday evening at the Cammack home. The rooms were decorated in the Mother's Day colors, purple and white. Games were played and then a short program followed.

Miss Berchen Cole sang "That Old-fashioned Mother of Mine" in a very pleasing manner. Readings were given by Lena Carter, Frieda Carter, and Mrs. Elsie Trick. Talks were given by Mrs. Mary Cammack and Mrs. Hildy. The mothers each told a funny incident of their daughter's childhood.

PERRYDALE CLASSES READY FOR FINISH

Week of Commencement is to be Busy One, Says Principal Ryan

PERRYDALE, May 15.—Commencement week exercises have been announced for the coming week at the Perrydale schoolhouse by J. C. Ryan, principal. The events will occur between May 19 and May 25, inclusive. The program follows:

Wednesday, May 22, 8 p. m.—eighth grade graduation exercises. Thursday, May 23, 8 p. m., H. S. commencement. (a) Invocation, H. McKee; (b) Presentation of the class by Principal Ryan; (c) Quartette—Maid of the West; In Quest of the Best—Welcome; Miss Electa A. Richmond. Address—"The Greatest Battle Yet to be Fought," M. Douglas Miller. Oration—"America the last Word," Harold O. Stapleton. Farewell—Entering the highway, Miss M. Lavelle Miller. Address to senior class—Dean Roy R. Hewitt. Presentation diplomas—H. J. Elliott, chairman board directors. Class song. Friday, May 24—school a day community picnic. Saturday, May 25—8 p. m.—Alumni banquet.

TAKES GLENDALE JOB SILVERTON, May 15.—Milton Thorstod left Silvertown on Saturday for Glendale, Ore., where he has accepted a position in the mill there. His family will follow him later in the month.

WEST SALEM QUOTA OF VISITORS LARGE

WEST SALEM, May 15.—F. A. Miles who has been working at Brownsville, was a weekend visitor at his home here in West Salem.

Sunday callers at the J. E. Thomas and M. A. White homes were: Mr. and Mrs. A. V. White of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Henkle of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Craft of California, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Briency and children of Brownsville visited at the F. A. Miller home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hendrickson of Salem, were Sunday afternoon callers at the J. E. Thomas home.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Fox and daughter, Eleanor Virginia, were Sunday afternoon and dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schilt of Salem.

Miss Marie Sebern who has taken up work in Portland, was a Saturday dinner guest at the Leonard L. Burgoyne home on Second street.

Earnest Moore and family of Airley, Oregon, were Saturday guests at the F. M. Moore home on Edgewater street.

Delbert Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Moore, and family, were Sunday evening guests at the home of their parents.

Bookkeeper, After Seven Years Work, Takes Last Balance

SILVERTON, May 15.—Zelmer King, who has been bookkeeper with the John Wolford store for seven years, finished her work with the store on Tuesday, when she balanced the books for the last time. The pioneer store has been sold, all remaining stock being purchased by the Olds Workman and King Co., of Portland. Miss King will spend an indefinite time with her father on the home ranch on the Silvertown-Stayton highway.

Guests Come To Brooks Home For Weekend Visits

BROOKS, May 15.—Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Thurman of Brooks were Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Foren and children, Edith, Fay and Eva of Clear Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Northern and children, Joseph and Carl of Harrisburg, Oregon. Mrs. Foren and Mrs. Northern are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rap spent the past week at the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ray, and family at Glad Tidings.

Miss Ellen Hackit and her nephew Robert Glover went to Mt. Angel Sunday and were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Finnamore and daughters Misses Ethel and Agnes. In the afternoon they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Finnamore, also of Mt. Angel.

A special Mother's day service was held Sunday at the Brooks community Methodist church. The following special selections were given: duet, Miss Marie Dunlavy and Mrs. John Tomlin; reading by Miss Constance Buchanan, followed by a special Mother's day sermon by Rev. D. George Cole, pastor.

8th Grade Exams Set For Weekend For Polk Schools

DALLAS, May 15.—State examinations for the eighth grade Polk county students will be held in Dallas on May 16 and 17. The Dallas schools is the only school in the county which is not required to take these examinations and their final examinations will be given later by the local instructors. The program for the state examinations follows:

Thursday morning—Arithmetic and writing. Thursday afternoon—History, spelling, agriculture. Friday morning—Physiology, language (for 6th grade). Friday afternoon—Geography, civil government and reading.

Free circus tickets for boy or girl under 16 just secure one new three month subscription to The Oregon Statesman.

CRAWFORD GUESTS AT SIMPSON HOME

ZENA, May 15.—Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Crawford and daughters Alice and Wilma of Zena accompanied by Mrs. Alice Simpson of Lincoln, mother of Mrs. Crawford, motored to Fruitland Sunday and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noel Simpson. They also called upon Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Simpson at Swegle.

Charles Dawson of Oregon City was a weekend visitor in Zena at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. E. Phillips.

James Hiatt, in charge of equipment on the coast highway construction work visited here during the weekend with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Phillips of Portland were Monday callers at the farm of S. H. Barker and son, while en route to Tillamook.

Saturday Evening Club Entertained

DALLAS, May 15.—Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Woods entertained the Saturday evening bridge club last week at their home on the Hawthorne highway. Late in the evening a pot luck lunch was served, after which dancing was enjoyed.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Loughery, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Croven, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hayter, Dr. and Mrs. V. C. Staats, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sundberg, Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Starbuck, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Soehren, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chapman, and the host and hostess.

MRS. KREISEL ENTERTAINS

SILVERTON, May 15.—Mrs. Theresa Kriesele of the English department of the Silvertown high school, entertained in honor of her mother, Mrs. W. P. Fowler, who has just returned from California. The affair was in the form of an attractive bridge luncheon.

WE HAVE A FEW DEMONSTRATOR MAYTAGS TO BE SOLD AT REDUCED PRICES. These washers are the latest Aluminum Tub Models with the new, soft rubber water remover and are in splendid condition. Subject to previous sale. THE MAYTAG SHOP 828 N. Commercial St. Salem Telephone 2218

J.C. PENNEY CO. 160 North Liberty Street VALUABLE To Be Real and Lasting Must Combine Quality with Low Price~All Three Are Found Here. Sweater Values Here Are VALUES in MEN'S HOSE. Plain Colors Fancies. Our "Foremost" and extra heavy full mercurized sock With Tu-Toe Feature 3 Pcs. $1.00. $4-for-1." Full mercurized medium weight sock, with "Tu-Toe" feature. 4 pairs $1.00. "701 Brand." Pure thread silk hose with mercurized top and toe. "Tu-Toe" feature for added strength. 48c. This worsted plaited slipper sweater is offered in a variety of smart patterns and color combinations. Well-knitted and shaped. Outstanding value, at— $1.98. Our Feature Value in Men's Shirts. Printed broadcloth, woven madras and woven broadcloth shirts in many smart new patterns. Plain colors, too. $1.98. Men's Athletic Union Suits. Made of good quality White Balbriggan and is full cut throughout, making for both coolness and comfort on the warmest days. Expertly made and well-trimmed. Also offered in button-at-shoulder model. One of our exceptional values, at— 49c. Boys' Shirts. For Work or Play. Of indigo-blue chambray cut, roomy and sturdy made. 45c. Harvest Hat. 36 Eyelets. Of Pean straw, shellacked, full trimmed; adjustable band. 49c. Mexican Hats. Of durable Anserio; fancy band and ventilating eyelets. 25c. Golf Hose. For Boys. A smart cotton hose of health-mixtures. Fancy striped patterns with fancy top. Also plaid and Jacquard patterns. 25c. Sport Shoes. For Boys. Durable, cool and comfortable. Fashioned to give the foot the support it needs while in action. In a variety of styles and sizes. Low-priced, too. 79c to $1.98. "Solar Straw" Young Man's Champagne color, sewed braid straw, with telescope crown, snap brim and— Smart Self-Figured Scarf Band. Attractively finished, top, with satin strip tip and full leather sweatband. Excellent value, at, $2.98.

FOR ALL men and young men of the Northwest who were unable to participate in the phenomenal FULOPS DAY VALUES Last Saturday in Fulops Ten Busy Stores we will CONTINUE the offering thru this entire week. $40 $45 $50 $27.75 2 PANTS SUITS. $45 to $65 $28.85 Shedrain TOPCOATS. $6 to $10 $3.95 Odd Trousers. $7.50 and $8.50 $4.35 KNICKERS. All $2.50 $1.65 SHIRTS. $1.50 Neckwear 55c $4 $5 Sample Golf Hose $1.95 $18.00 to $30. Silk Robes $11.95 $5 Straw Hats $3.95 and Many Other Offerings. YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD $1.00 DOWN Fulops 456 State St., Salem

Surprise Party Is Given At Valsetz

VALSETZ, May 15.—A surprise party was given in honor of Mrs. Ella McConnell at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Cordie McConnell of Camp 1 Thursday afternoon, it being Mother McConnell's anniversary. The friends enjoying the day were Mrs. Mortimer, Mrs. Stelzco, Mrs. John March, Mrs. Massie, Mrs. Dodson, Mrs. Bill Yedd, Mrs. Tokstad, Mrs. Goehle, Mrs. Emmett, Mrs. Jerry Morris, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Harp. After a very delicious luncheon Mother McConnell opened the packages containing many beautiful birthday remembrances.

LAST DANCE ENJOYED IN MILL CITY

MILL CITY, May 15.—The last city dancing club and the last dance of the season Saturday evening with a large attendance. The next dance will be the first Saturday in October.

ATTEND LEGION MEETING

DALLAS, May 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krason and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eakin spent Monday evening in Grande Ronde where they attended a joint meeting of Sheridan post, American Legion and its auxiliary. Following the business session a refreshment was served and then dancing was enjoyed, with splendid music furnished by the Sheridan post orchestra.

HOOKER'S SON TO WED, DALLAS WORD

DALLAS, May 15.—Sheriff T. B. Hooker received the announcement from his son, Robert Eugene Hooker, of his engagement to Miss Winifred Cecilia Strachan of Sacramento, Calif. Robert is very well known here as he was raised in Dallas, but has been employed for the past two years in Sacramento by the Southern Pacific machine shops of that city. The wedding will be an affair of late summer.

Maxey Langford To Be Life Guard

Life guard at the Fourteenth street playground this summer will be Maxey Langford. It was decided Tuesday morning by the playground board. He has held the position for the last two seasons.

SCHOOLER NEW HEAD

WOODBURN, May 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Schooler was elected student body president in a class vote over Lowell Grizzle at an election held at the school Monday. Other officers to serve on the board of control, under the new constitution are Jane Yergen, vice president, Naomi Van Cleave, secretary, and Cletus Chapelle and Murel Neble, members-at-large. A tie between Dora Tresidder and Kenneth Gillanders for the third of the members-at-large will be decided at an election soon.