Little Janice Lee and Jean Marie Myers, two daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Burton Myers, received the guests at the door. Mrs. Burton Myers and Mrs. Ed Goodwin assisted Mrs. Hunter in serving. High score for the afternoon was won by Mrs. E. A. Kurtz, and second high score went to Mrs. C. T. Ellison.

Salem Lodge Folk Motor to Albany

Mrs. Carl Ryckman entertained at her home near Albany for visiting members of the Salem Royal Neighbors of America Tuesday. A potluck dinner was served and sewing occupied the afternoon. Spring flowers were attractively used as bright spots of color about the guest rooms.

Those motoring to Albany from the Salem lodge were Mrs. Ida McCulley, Mrs. Mina Saunders and daughter Barbara, Mrs. Julia Blodgett, Mrs. E. M. Shepherd, Mrs. Mary Ackerman, Mrs. Mildred Nash, Mrs. Sarah Peterson, Mrs. Irene Speer, Mrs. Rose Abbott, Mrs. Katherine Botts, and daughter Barbara, Mrs. John Graybill, Mrs. A. H. Dinner was served at a long table centered with a bowl of orchid colored Japanese wisteria, and small birds-of-paradise marked the guests places. Miss Zoe Stockton assisted Mrs. Stockton in receiving the guests.

Guests bidden for the evening were the honor guest, Mrs. E. Hofer, and Mrs. W. C. Kantner, Mrs. W. P. Babcock, Mrs. Samuel Orr, Mrs. W. I. Staley, Mrs. H. C. Fox, Mrs. S. P. Kimball, Mrs. Alice Dodd, Mrs. H. A. Brown, Miss Lavern Kantner, and Miss Constance Kantner.

Miss Frances Virginia Melton was chosen as one of the judges for the Oregon Federation of Music clubs contest held in Portland this past week. This is an honor both Miss Melton and Salem—to Miss Melton as a pianist of outstanding ability in Oregon and to Salem because it draws attention to her as the hostess of an outstanding musician. The contest winning in the contest in Portland will again compete in Seattle and those winning there will go to Boston. It is interesting to those following music that both winners in the piano contest were students of Ruth Bradley Kelsner, prominent Portland teacher.

The Liberty Woman's club will have the last meeting of its year with Mrs. Fred Scott. There will be a potluck one o'clock luncheon and a social hour and program following. There will also be an election of officers and all members are urged to be present.

Mrs. R. Cartwright Made League Head

The Salem Arts League started a new year Tuesday night at the city library with an election of officers. Mrs. Richard Cartwright was made president, Otto Paulus, first vice president, Mrs. Clifton Mudd, second vice president, Mrs. C. I. Lewis, secretary, S. H. Van Trump, treasurer and Blanche Jones, financial secretary, and Miss Ruth Brauti, arts director.

Miss Ruth Brauti spoke concerning "Who's Who in Oregon Among Artists" as one of the speakers for the program hour. She brought illustrations of work done by Zane, Gilbert, Vincent, Schrott, and Fairbanks, all Oregon artists who have hung pictures in galleries of note, with the exception of Avarad Fairbanks who is a sculptor now studying in Europe and winning fame for himself.

Miss Brauti also emphasized the need for a Salem art museum and much discussion ensued as to how to promote such a civic need. The Arts League is seriously taking the idea under consideration and plans within the near future to launch a scheme which will bring to Salem the best exhibits and give them a place to be housed so that the public may benefit thereby. It is urged that such an action would not entail very much labor and that the results would be of much educational and civic benefit to greatly more than repay the efforts, time and money spent in such an endeavor.

Mrs. Virginia Bacon, Oregon state librarian, followed Miss Brauti with a fascinating discussion of the past and prose writer, the late Eleanor Wylie. Mrs. Bacon expressed the opinion that this, one of the greatest, American writers and standing high among international artists, was far out of tune with her time. This fact Mrs. Bacon suggested was shown in one of her prose stories "The Venetian Glass Nephew," which creates a world apart in which two people found happiness. Eleanor Wylie created a world apart for herself and thus her works, many of them are subtle and fantastic and require much interpretation. But Mrs. Bacon pointed out, there is always a quality of humor in her style that saves the extreme from being fantastic and unreal.

The two last volumes of Eleanor Wylie's posthumous collection of her stories "Trivial Breath" and "Angels and Earthly Creatures" and Mrs. Bacon quoted from "Valentine" and "Beauty" much to the keen delight of her audience.

The Arts League meeting started off the new year in a most enthusiastic spirit.

WHEN A CHILD IS FEVERISH, CROSS, UPSET

Colic, gas, sour belching, frequent vomiting, feverishness, in babies and children, generally showing food is souring in the little digestive tract.

When these symptoms appear, give Baby a teaspoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Add it to the first bottle of food in the morning. Older children should be given a tablespoonful in a glass of water. This will comfort the child—make his stomach and bowels easy. In five minutes he is comfortable, happy. It will sweep the bowels free of all sour, indigestible food. It opens the bowels in constipation, colds, children's ailments. Children take it readily because it is palatable, pleasant-tasting.

Learn its many uses for mother and child. Write for the interesting book, "Useful Information," Address The Phillips Co., 117 Hudson St., New York, N. Y. It will be sent FREE.
