Mothers Honored At B. & P. W. Meeting

One of the most interesting meetings of the year for the business and Professional Women's club was that of Thursday night at the Woman's clubhouse when the mothers of the members and friends were entertained. The club house had been artistically decorated with spring flowers and arranged most attractively for the evening party.

Stunts formed the main part of the entertainment with the organization being divided into groups each of which presented a stunt. The nominating committee won the prize which will be presented at the next meeting of the club. Those appearing in stunts were as follows:

Health committee: Skit played by Grace Sehon as A. B. Grace L. Taylor as P. A. Irene Harrington as M. E. Irene Brethaupt as Q. T. Dr. Mary B. Purvine as M. D. Finance committee: Tried to find ways and means of raising money. Finally decided to ask Browning Amusement company to share their proceeds. Phebe McAdams, chairman, Amy Martin, Edna Purdy.

Headquarters committee: Had a "Grand Opening" portrayed by Julia Webster, Edith Bagley, Maude Pressnell, Merle Dimick. Publicity committee: May Hale as Madame X who told past, present and future of members present by reading the crystal.

New members. Nineteen new members have joined the club. Joy Hills, Irene Brethaupt, Mrs. Kinsley, Irene Harrington represented new members and pledged their cooperation.

Membership committee: Emily Howard, chairman, La Moine, B. Clark, Esther Hagedorn, Amy Martin, Edith Bagley, Irene Brethaupt, Joy Hills, Ruth McAdams, Grace Sehon, Edna Purdy, in appropriate costume and banners pledged their loyalty.

Nominating committee: Grace L. Taylor, chairman, Emma Kalke Hale, Ruth McAdams had a meeting and endorsed to get old officers to accept but one and all declined. They "did not choose to run."

Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith sang "Little Mother of Mine" and "Lullaby," accompanied by Miss Ruth Bedford who also accompanied Miss Rachel Taylor, singing "Mother, O'Mine and 'You are a Wonderful Mother'."

The oldest mother present was Mrs. Josephine Taylor and Mrs. Susan Varty presented her with a corsage in behalf of the club.

Following the program the committees were served by the committee in charge, Mrs. Nora Baird, Maude Pointer, Ruth Moore, Georgia McLean, Clara Patterson, Mary Hill, Ellen Tower and Susan Varty, chairman.

In the business session which was held Thursday night several important decisions and announcements were made. Delegates to the state convention to be held in Eugene were announced as follows: Julia Webster, Mary Cleveland, Mona Yoder, Maude Pressnell, Ruth Moore.

Alternates: Ruth McAdams, Grace L. Taylor, Phebe McAdams, Blanche Isherwood, Signe Paulson, Edith Burch, Clara McNeill. Ruth McAdams is convention chairman, Grace Sehon, stunt chairman and La Moine R. Clark son leader for the convention.

Mrs. Alice Dodd Is Luncheon Speaker

Mrs. Alice Dodd addressed the members of the Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church at their regular monthly luncheon meeting Friday afternoon at the church on the subject of "Shawls." Because of having much time in travel in the Orient and the far East Mrs. Dodd was able to speak intimately on the subject after having made a comprehensive study of shawls in many of the countries of which she spoke Friday afternoon.

Many of Salem's most beautiful examples of old and rare shawls were on display to aid in illustrating the lecture. Among these shawls was a hand blocked wool shawl 100 years old owned by Mrs. J. Vogt; a Roman striped, silk shawl bought in Algiers by Mrs. E. C. Cross; a black silk Chinese shawl embroidered in gorgeous colors, the property of Mrs. D. J. Fry, Sr.; a huge Paisley of very fine weave owned by Mrs. Ed Rosta; an exquisite all white embroidered Chinese shawl and a black lace Chantilly loaned by Mrs. Joe Albert, both heirlooms.

Mrs. Dodd also showed loaned by Miss Elizabeth Lord and other shawls loaned by Mrs. H. J. Clements, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. C. H. Parks, and Mrs. Alice Dodd.

Shawls were discussed from the countries of China, India, Persia, Turkey, Italy, France and England. This lecture discussion was one of the most interesting which the Alliance has enjoyed for some time.

Chapter C. P. E. O. Elects Delegates

Delegates for the P. E. O. convention in Chattanooga this next week were elected at the regular meeting of Chapter C of the P. E. O. club held at the home of Mrs. O. W. Moore, Thursday afternoon. These are Mrs. W. M. Smith, Mrs. A. T. Woodport, and Mrs. C. A. Sprague.

Aside from the election of delegates a program hour was enjoyed at which time Mrs. E. J. Hagedorn read a paper, "Famous Mothers" in honor of the club's celebration of Mother's day. Musical numbers were presented by Melodie Hill Styles, a guest from chapter A.B.

Assisting Mrs. Moore at the tea hour were Mrs. Gardner Knapp and Mrs. W. H. Wirtz.

Special guests for this interesting afternoon were Mrs. Melodie Hill Styles, Mrs. M. A. Thompson, Mrs. Ada Gibler, Mrs. H. C. Coughlin, Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Mrs. Mary Bayne, Mrs. Smuk, and Mrs. Taylor.

Mrs. A. L. Dark Is Hostess

The South Central circle of the Jason Lee church was the guest of Mrs. A. L. Dark at her home Wednesday afternoon. The guest rooms were beautifully decorated with iris, tulips, and lilacs.

Following a short business meeting at which Mrs. C. M. Roberts presided a program was given. Those appearing on the program were Mrs. Mark Wilber, in two solos, Mrs. Clifton Mudd, who read, and Miss Barbara Barham who played two saxophone solos assisted by Miss Dora Dark.

A tea hour followed this program. The tea table was centered with pink tulips and pink tapers. Mrs. W. H. Chadwick poured and Miss Barham and Miss Dark served.

It was decided in the early afternoon business meeting that the circle would take charge of the annual Fellowship meeting at 6:30 o'clock May 21, at the church.

Willing Workers Enjoy Regular Meet

The Willing Workers of the First Christian church held their monthly business and social meeting at the home of Mrs. Arthur Pritch, Highland avenue Wednesday afternoon. Spring flowers made gay decorations for the living rooms.

At the close of a brief business meeting a program was given followed by refreshments with which the hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. B. W. Macy, Mrs. Faye Humphrey, Mrs. C. M. Epley, and Mrs. Gertrude Kirkpatrick.

Garden Parties Planned by Mrs. Ferry

Mrs. Martin Ferry is doing the delightful thing by planning three garden parties for the coming week. The first one will be for the children of the Unitarian church. They will meet in the parsonage and church garden at 12:30 following church services, Sunday.

Miss Ethelwynne Merton will assist Mrs. Ferry Monday at which time members of the Alpha Chi Omega and their children will be entertained with the second garden party. The garden will be open between the hours of three and six.

Again on Tuesday a garden benefit bridge tea is planned for all the ladies of the church and their friends. Mrs. Elsa Ebsen and Mrs. Ray MacDonald will assist Mrs. Ferry.

Mrs. J. Carson, Sr. Gives Luncheon Party

The most popular guest of the season has been Mrs. E. Hofer whose departure from Salem for the new Hofer home on Abernathy Heights, Portland, has caused her to be entertained again and again by her many Salem friends of long standing. The latest party to honor her was the one o'clock luncheon given by Mrs. John Carson, Sr. Thursday.

Iris, tulips, bridewreath and mixed spring flowers were used about the room in most attractive manner, while tiny pink potted plants centered each of the four tables where luncheon was served and later "800" was in play.

High score for the "500" afternoon was given to Mrs. Hal Patton and the guest prize to Mrs. E. Hofer.

The guest list for the affair was the honor guest, Mrs. E. Hofer and Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mrs. D. C. Minto, Mrs. Robert Downing, Mrs. J. L. Stockton, Miss Zoe Stockton, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr., Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. Hal Patton, Mrs. Rose Babcock, Mrs. Max Hofer, Mrs. Lawrence Hofer, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Richard Wetten, Mrs. John Carson, Jr., Mrs. S. Thompson, Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson and Mrs. John Carson, Sr.
